SWIFT'S SPECIFIC.

HERCULEAN RHEUMATISM. Mr. J. C. Jones, city marshal of Fulton, Ar. Kansas, writes: 'About ten years ago I contracted a severe case of rheumatism. The leading physicians of the city were called in, and I took without effect all their remedies, with the exception of the use of your medicine.'

INHERITED SCROFULA. Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) cured my little boy of hereditary scrofula, which broke out all over his face. For a year he had suffered, and I had given up all hopes of his recovery, when at length I was induced to test S. S. S. I was entirely cured and able to resume work. I consider Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) the greatest medicine for blood poisoning of the disease. This was three years ago.

THOMAS J. LOVETT. port, but the latter club, after securing a positive lead for the championship, sold all its valuable players at a good round figure to the Oshkosh club, of the Western league, and to Lovett's work in the box Oshkosh credited its success in winning the pennant. In the sixty-seven games he pitched that season sixty-two were victories. In 1888 he played in Omaha, and was secured by Brooklyn at the end of the season.

A Famous Trotting Stallion. Allerton is a handsome brown stallion of 15 1/2 hands and was foaled in 1882. He is by Jay Bird, dam Gustie Wilkes by Mambrino Boy. He was bred and is owned by C. W. Williams, the breeder of the famous Axtell. On Aug. 23, 1889, in Chicago, he made a record of 2:15 1/2. His owner is confident that he will hold the station record at the close of this year.

PROF. J. R. SOHEY. The office of assistant secretary of the navy is a new one, created not long ago by act of congress, and the first to receive an appointment to the position is Professor James Russell Sohey, of Massachusetts.

Capt. George H. Douglas, who recently died in San Francisco. After facing the perils of the sea for thirty-five years Capt. George H. Douglas, one of the noted mariners of the Pacific ocean, died at San Francisco the other day from injuries received in a runaway accident. He was a native of Massachusetts and 53 years old.

Charles B. Neilson, the 19-year-old tourist from Chicago, who made the distance from his home to New York in fourteen days, breaking the best record by over three days. He will start to break the record from New York to San Francisco as soon as he is fully rested from the effects of his last trip. In his ride from Chicago he averaged over seventy-five miles per day.

Exile. At this year's spring meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey club he won two good races. It is the record he had only Sir Dixon to contend with. He beat the old cripple easily by two lengths, running the mile and a half in 2:55 1/2.

THOMAS J. LOVETT. The Brooklyn League Team's Effective Thomas J. Lovett is one of the pitchers of the Brooklyn team, and comes from Providence, R. I. where he was born in December, 1863. In 1883 he joined the Wilkes-Barre club, and in 1884 played in Waterbury, Conn., and did not materially improve the championship for his club. The strong Providence League team secured Mr. Lovett for the season of 1885, but when the season was half over and retirement necessary he was released to the Athletics. As his pitching arm troubled him late in the season he obtained his release and devoted all his time to getting himself into shape again.

Irwin was born in Toronto, Canada, about thirty-two years ago, but has lived in South Boston since his boyhood days. He is a cool, quick player, and well up in his work. He always plays to win, often times sacrificing his batting record to accomplish his end. The picture is taken from the collection of Nick Engle, one of the biggest base ball cranks in the country.
