In appearing before you, to renew the solerm, obligation of fidelity, io the Constitution, and my pledges for the faithful exe-cution of the duties, to which the suffrages of the people have again called me, I avail myself of your presence, to express to you, and through you to my fellow critizens of the Commonwealth, my gratifude for the favor with which they have regarded my efforts, to discharge the duties of my trust, in good faith.  made and this assumes for its basis, the great inhuminer-tal truth, that man is copable of self-government. This great political principle, only partially de-veloped before, was, by our republican fathers, made the ground-work of written constitutions, which defined and limited the powers of government, and prescribed the duties of those to whom its admin-teration use getputted. This is the animating prescribed the duffes of those to whom its admin-istration was entrusted. This, is the animating principle of our whole system. It shields life and liberty, the acquisition and enjoyment of property and reputation. Assuming the inherent and ex-clusive right of the people to institute government for their peace, safety and happiness, it secures re-ligious freedom, free and equal elections, the trial 1847. Maach by c " Ame Boa a su ligious freedom, iree and equal elections, the trial by jury, general education, the liberty of the press, and all the essential guards of religious, political, civil and personal right. This democratic power of government, is the security of liberty in all its forms;—and no other fundamental political power, pora June 1 orde mak serv Sept'n of t for forms ;---and no other fundamental, pointical power, is recognized in this country. Its happy influence is traced in the rewards which follow industry and enterprize among us, increases, causes that are inherent in human nature, produce inequality in its distribution. The fathers of our government foresaw the tendency of this. Trease and that it might eventuate and that it might eventuate in the creation of a permanent aristocracy of wealth. Wisely guard-ing against it, they not only abolished the laws of descent and distribution, but they segured to us, their posterity, the equal right of acquiring, of the segure of the se to us, their posterity, the equal right of acquiring, possessing and protecting property, by making it an essential article of the Constitution.

Still, political society is, and always must be in-fluenced, to a considerable extent, by the differing HENR circumstances of the people. Capital and labor, if regarded separately, have apprently different in-terests:—and yet these powers, if left to their un-restricted action, under the salutary influence of restricted action, under the saturary initiatice of our system, mutually sustain and cherish each other. Those who represent each, will, in the pro-gress of affairs, change their positions; laborers-will become capitalists, and capitalists laborers-and these quiet, and peaceful, and equalizing revolu-house tributing, in perfect harmony, to the promotion Jan 24 of the general welfare. of the general weilare. It is to this free and natural combination of la-bor and capital, under the controlling influence of religious and civil liberty, that we must ascribe the eligious and civil liberty, that we must ascribe the mexampled progress of civilization and refinement L D lature, the grant of special protection and perpetui-ty of privilege. This, if admitted, is at once de structive of the balance between these powers which it should be the aim of government steadily to maintain, and works most injuriously to the cit-zen, leading to oppression on the one hand, and to dependence on the other. Thus, the beautiful order the whole system is deranged, and the foundations upon which this noble structure of govern-ment has risen, to command the admiration and atrol the destinies of the world, are undermined. control the destines of the word, are undernined. To counteract this injurious tendency of capital, and to confine it within the just limits prescribed by the Constitution, is the high and imperative duty of every citizen, and especially of those to whose official guardianship the public interests are con-

Impressed with the force of this obligation, and with a fixed purpose to maintain all the principles of our government, I adhere to the opinions I had the honor to announce in my first Inaugural Ad-dress; and I avail myself of this occasion to add, that I hold every attempt on the part of those who are entrusted with delegated and limited powers, to create public debt without providing ample means for its norment within a reasonable marked in New Issue" across the middle of the design. for its payment, within a reasonable period; to make contracts in the form of grants to individuals for binding posterity; to create new powers of gov. ernment, without the consent of the people; to place any delegated powers, which are dependent upon the popular will, beyond its control; to in crease or diminish any executive, legislative or ju-dicial power, as defined by the Constitution, is inter-dicied by that instrument, or manifestly unwise and impolitie. These opinions are only a response to the government, which sentiment is always in ad vance of those who affect to distrust the judgment of the gople, and doubt their capacity to rule tarmselves.

With an earnest desire fully to realize the imposing solemnity of my position, and feeling my de-pendence upon our Heavenly Father. I humbly inassistance, that His strength may sustain and His wisdom direct nie in the and His wisdom direct mie in the performance of all the duties of the high office to which I am culed; that I may always recognize the responsibility of thôse to whom the people have delegated any portion of their sovereignty, and use the power conrred upon me, for the single purpose of promoting ne public good, preserving inviolate all the cherthe public good, preserving inviolate all the cher-ished principles of liberty, and adding to the stabiliry of the foundations upon which they rest. Connected with the Foundry, there is a large as-sortment of Flasks, Ladels, a Crane, together with the advantage of a Hydrant, and every thing re-quisite to that branch of the works. Five Laths, one Baring Mill, one Unright Drill, Soven Vices, a Chloroform. Childroform. DR. VAN PATTEN has received a supply of the above article and is prepared to administer it to those who wish their teeth extracted with-out pain. Having administered it to several per-sons, he can recommend it as being very pleas-ant to inhale, and certain to prevent pain. It is generally believed to be quite harmless in its effects. quisite to that branch of the works. Five Laths, one Boring Mill, one Upright Drill, seven Vices, a Grind-Stone, one Eight-Horse Engine, and all the Drills, Tapes, Dies, and Wrenches, necessary in this division of the establishment. There are, besides, three setts of Blacksmith Tools, two setts of Boilermaker's Tools, and a large and as empired show for building boilers in Charles Stokes, Globe Hall of Fashion.

Tools, two setts of Bohermaker's Loois, and a large and convenient shop for building boilers in. These shops are situated immediately on the Columbia and Philadelphia Rail-Road, so that every convenience is afforded for hauling Coal, Iron, Lum-ber, or any thing that may be required about the works. This establishment is so well known through the State, that it is scarcely necessary to give a more minute description of the several advantages con-nected with it. Suffice it to say, that the whole vill be rented upon reasonable torms by the sub-oribers, from the 1st day of April next, Scribers, from the 1st day of April next, For further particulars enquire of WILLIAM W.
