Hedenberg's Patent Air-Tight Parlor

Coal Stove. A new, beautiful, convenient, and fuel-saving Parlor Coal Stove is now for the first time introduced to the public.

The proprietors teel confident, that upon an exship, where the said inn or tavern is proposed to be kept, do certify that the said inn or tavern is ne-cessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that we are well ac-with a comparatively small quantity of fuel, this stave s yet invented.

With a comparatively small quantity of fuel, this stove will radiate a greater quantity of heat, (not dry or parched, as is generally the case in the ordinary coal stoves,) than any other stove now in

I have had one of Hedenberg's nir-tight coal stoves in use since the middle of last October—am entirely satisfied with it—and believe it to be superior to any description of stove hitherto introduced. It requires much less coal than a common radiator stove of the same size—produces no annoying radiant heat—and with ordinary care there can be Triant heat—and with ordinary care there can be neither duty on the carpet nor dust on the furniture. There is no difficulty in managing it, or in keeping up the fire over high), at small cost of fuel, by properly closing the checks. I have kept up the fire in mine continuously for a period of five weeks. Before purchasing the one I have, I carefully examined a large variety of specimens from other inventors and makers, exhibited at the Fair of the inventors and makers, exhibited at the Fair of the American Institute, in New York, and selected it that the above mentioned Inn or Tavern which he proposes to keep, is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that he is a person of good repute for honesty and temperance, and that he is well provided, with house room and coaveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

Samuel WeGlaughlin, G. Morrison, A. S. Ewing, Samuel WeGlaughlin, G. Morrison, A. S. Ewing.

I hereby certify that I have used "Hedenberg's pitent and light coal stove," for two months past, and that I am better satisfied with it than any other coal stove I ever used. I heat two large rooms by it, a parlor and the chamber above, and heat them both at the same time, and with less consumption of the large way and the same time, and with less consumption.

I have this winter used one of "Hedenberg's parent antiquit coal stoves," with much satisfaction, warming with it, comfortably, two rooms, to one above the other,) without consuming more fuel than was before required to warm one of those rooms. In the convenience with which it is managed, and the cleanliness of it, it exceeds every other coal stove I have yet used; and the heat of it is more coalf and agreeable, possessing less of that unpleasant dryness which is generally experienced from stone coal fires. The excellence of this stove this induced me to order another one the kind, to be used in the place of another coal

Dr. Townsend's compound Extract Sarsaparilla.

THIS Extract is put up in quart bottles—it is sixtimes cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold. It cures diseases without vomiting, purging, sickening or debilitating the patient, ine is particularly adapted for a Spring and Summer Medicine.

Medicine.

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other remedies is, while it eradicates disease, it invigorates the body. Consumption cured. It cleanses and strengthens. Consumption can be cured. Bonchitis, consumption, liver complaint, colds, coughs, catarrh, asthma, spitting of blood, soreness in the chest, hectic flush, night sweats, difficult or profuse expectoration and pain in the side, &c., have and can be cured.

Probably there never was a remedy that has been as successful in desperate cases of consumption as successful in desperate cases of consumption as so successful in desperate cases of consumption as this; it cleanses and strengthens the system, and appears to heal the ulcers on the lungs; and the patients gradually regain their usual health & strength.

Curious case of Consumption.

Dr. Townsend—Dear Sir:—For the last three doubt, the best, safest and most emeacutus remedy at present in use, for the immediate expulsion of every species of worms from the human body. Years of experience have proved its superiority over every other medicine.

Albany, Aug. 17, 1847. Grand and Lydius sts To Mothers and Married Ladies.

This Extract of Sarsaparilla has been expressly prepared in reference to female complaints. No female who has reason to believe she is approaching that critical period, "the turn of life," should neglect to take it, as this is a certain preventive for any of the numerous and horrible diseases to which females are subject at this time of life. This period may be delayed for several years by taking this medicine. It braces the whole system, renews permanently the natural energies—by removing the impurities of the body—but so far stimulating the system as to produce a subsequent relaxation, which is the case of most medicines taken for female weakness and disease.
