 Dr. Townsend—Sir: I have been afflicted for several years with dyspepsia in its worst form, attended with sourcess of stomach, loss of appetite, extreme heartburn, and a great aversion to all kinds of food, and for weeks (what I could eat) I have been unable to retain but a small portion on my stomach. I tried the usual remedies, but they had but little or no effect in removing the[complaint. I was induced, about two months since, to try your kinds of food, and for weeks (what I could eat) I have been unable to rotain but a small portion on my stomach. I tried the usual remedies, but they had but little or no effect in removing the complaint. I was induced, about two months since, to try your Extract of Sarsaparilla, and I must say with little confidence: but after using nearly two bottles, I found my appetite restored and the heartburn en-tirely removed; and I would earnestly recommend the use of it to those who have been afflicted as I have been.
