EXPLOSION—CONFLAGRATION AND LOSS OF LIFE. One of those terrible catastrophies which some times occur, frequently through carelessness, and often from causes impossible to control, took place yesterday morning about 10 o'clock. The whole this city. neighborhood of Fifth and Market Streets was shocked at that hour with an explosion that soundd not unlike an earthquake. Instantaneous with the explosion we saw—for we happened to be present—the bricks and other materials of the house occupied by the pyrotechnist, Claudius C. Williams on the southeast corner of the alley running from Vine to Lodge street, and between Fifth and Sight. the explosion we saw-for we happened to be preson the southeast corner of the alley running from Vine to Lodge street, and between Fifth and Sixth street, thrown in every direction, and the whole street, thrown in every direction, and the whole interior and roof of the building enveloped inflatics. The workmen of Mr. Williams were engaged in 36 years, 3 months, and 20 days. manufacturing fire works to be used on the 26th of next mouth for the benefit of the Mechanics. Institute, and the probability is that some of the combustible material became ignited during the progress of the work, in a manner, no doubt, per-fectly unaccountable. One of the young men. feetly unaccountable. One of the young men. Henry Solomon, of Lexington, busily engaged in stuffing rockets, was found when the flames were extinguished, at the loot of the stairs, his bead, one urm, and both legs completely off, and his body burned literally to a crisp. Another young man named John McChurr, employed with some other article, was searched, so hadly that it was impos sible to recognize hint; he was taken to the flospital, but it was not expected that he could survive.
His wounds were indeed horrible, and it was wonderful that he could exist a moment alterwards; in fact, we learn that he has since died. A small bay of Esquire Madison, who was in the alley at the time, was injured a good deal by a portion of the wall falling upon him; he says that one of his mates was with him, a little closer to the building, and if so he must have perished. Mr. Williams

Truth and Common Sense is mighty and will prevail,

Over all the Humbuggery in the World, however bom bastic and noisy it may appear. T. FORD, being desirous of returning his sincere and hearty thanks to the citizens of Lancaster city and county, for the kind manner in which they have come forward and welcomed him being an entire stranger among them—and for, the unprecedented patronage he has received at their hands, adopts this medium of expressing his gratitude for their favors. He wishes it distinctly inderstood that he does not attempt to thrust it lown the necks of the public, that his is the only lothing Store in the world, nor has he got quite as magnificent a front to his establishment as some persons pretend to have; but one thing is certain, and it has been unanimously decided by the entire population of Lancaster, that he has just received most magnificent and extensive Assortment of Goods, suitable for the present and coming season, ever he-fore exhibited in this county, to describe which is almost an impossibility. The only way to form an accurate idea of the extent, variety and spiendor, will be to call and examine them. And rest assured, gentlemen, of receiving the most polite attention, whether you intend purchasing at the time or not. M. T. FORD offers $1000 reward to any person in Lamostor city or county, who can produce as large a variety, and as cheap a stock of well made Clothing, and biseast goods as he become thing and piece goods as he has now ready for
