Messes. Wyatt & Ketcham:
Gentlemen—I consider it a duty which I not only owe to you, but to my fellow beings, to speak in praise of Dr. Upham's Electuary, a medicine which I think has saved my life, and restored me to full health. For several years I was afflicted with Piles, together with Dyspepsia, and a general disarrangement of the system. I employed different physicians, with no good result, and they at iast told me they could do no more for me, and said that I must die. I thus had given up all hopes of ever having my health restored, until I had called to mind the benefits that a nephew of finine in Philadelphia, (Benjamin Percival.) had derived in a severe case of chronic dysentery, by your medicine, that I purchased a box, which, to my surprise, after taking a few doses, I received great relief, and thank God, by continuing its use, that I am now restored to perfect health.

I hereby certify that I have used "Hedenberg's patent air-tight coal stove," for two months past, and that I am better satisfied with it than any other coal stove I ever used. I heat two large it, a parlor and the chamber above, and heat them both at the same time, and with less consumption of fuel than is used in the ordinary coal stove to warm a single room. The heat is pleasanter than that of the former kinds of coal stoves, and is sufficient from a small fire to warm the largest apartment.

the only original and genuine article for the cure of Heaves, other complaints of the respiratory apparatus, and derangement of the digestive functions in the Horse, is Kirkbride's Tattersall's Heave Powders. It is warranted to be perfectly safe in all cases, will not inconvenience the animal or injure him even if he has now disease; it is from four to eight times cheaper than most of the imitations which are being circulated throughout the country, being put up in much larger packages, sufficient to cure an ordinary case of Heaves, and to administer in a dozen cases of cold, catarrh, &c.

At this season, while the Horse is shedding his coat, his vital energy is much reduced, and he is extremely liable to colds, &c., many cases of incipient Heaves are contracted now, but are suppressed by pasture or warm weather, till they break out with full force in the fall. Thousands of Horses can be saved from future unsoundness, if, when the first symptoms of cold or wheezing is observed, a few doses of the Tattersall's Heave Powders should be administered.
