From the Baltimore Sun. PROCEEDINGS OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The National Democratic Convention, compose of Delegates from every State of the Union, assembled, in pursuance of the general notice given throughout the country, at 12 o'clock yesterday morning, in the Universalist Church, on the corner of Calvert and Pleasant streets.

The Committee of Arrangements had made every preparation for the accommodation and busi-ness of the Convention, together with ample facili-ties for the Targe body of Reporters, representing he press from all parts of the Union. The delegates having been successively admitted, s they arrived at the church in their united capacity presented as respectable and as dignified a body as we have ever seen convened on similar, or any other occasion. The familiar faces of honorable entlemen, whose talents, elevated position, and popular character have made their names and fame as familiar as household words throughout the country, were encountered at every glance of the eye practised in the political world; whilst others

"Judge Bryce, on taking the Chair, returned thanks, a few appropriate remarks, concluding with the expression of a hope that the proceedings would be characterised by "order—Heaven's first law."

On motion, Mr Samuel Treat, a delegate from Missouri, was appointed temporary Secretary.

The president protein said, that before proceeding to business, it would be proper that the Throne of Trace should be invoked for a blessing on their proedings, and that office would now be performed by the Rev. Mr. Eisk, who was present. Rev. Theophilus Fisk, of Baltimore, then made very eloquent and appropriate prayer. Mr. F. H. Wheeler, of North Carolina, offered Resolved, That a committee of one from each State, "except those States whose delegates are in controversy," be appointed by the delegates from that State, to report the number of delegates in at-tendance, and to examine the validity of credentials. Mr. F. H. Cone, of Georgia, rose and said, that ctore acting on the resolution just offered, he de-

The delegates from Ohio desired but one vote in the committee, and he presumed such was the case with the New York delegation. He hoped that the convention would look upon New York without regard to her minerrial strength, and until this question was decided that neither set should be allowed a representation. proposed a resolution to exclude both sets from the right to be represented in the committee, upor which the Chair put the question, in the midst much confusion, and declared to be carried.
