den. Ruiler a "Barnburner."

During the last war with England, Gen. BUTLLE përformed one of the noblest deeds of heroism or record. In one of the severest battles with the British and Indians on the North Western frontier. a large number of the savages had tound their way into a Barn, from which they poured a deadly fire upon the American troops. The American Commander said "that Barn must be burnt, and m quired "who would volunteer to perform the peril ous task." After a long pause, the vouthful Butle gallantly stepped forward, and, providing himselwith a torch, proceeded to the Earn amid a showe of bullets from the rifles of the Indians, and soon fired it so completely as to envelope it in fiames and returned unharmed to the American lines, when every spectator considered his death inevitable The firing of that Barn deprived the enemy of his strongest position, and soon gave the victory to the Powers Americans. Gen. Butler is, therefore, the right sort of a Barnburner-he burns the Barns occupied by his country's enemies-and he is in every other respect a man worthy of the admiration and confidence of his countrymen! He and his great associate on the Democratic ticket, are bound to be elected by an overwhelming vote!

PERNSTLVANIA RAIL ROAD.-The Company which has this great work in charge appear to be pushing it with considerable energy. The contracts are all progressing as rapidly as is consistent with economy, and the road will be put in action as far as Lewistown during the ensuing winter. The line to Huntingdon will be ready for the rails early next summer. The light work between Huntingdon and Hollidaysburg will be contracted for in time to be completed as soon as the points now being commenced are ready. This arrangement for the work has been made in order to bring capital expended into activity with as little loss of interest as possible. It is expected that the road will be ready to Hun tingdon in the summer following the present, and to the Portage by the opening of navigation the ensuing spring.

PITHY AND SENSIBLE .- A Georgian in N. York writing to the Macon Journal, on the subject of Federal prospects, concludes as follows: "I would say something about the prospects of Gen. Scott, but fearing Marcy has already said too much, will take the liberty of being silent."

Dr. Franklin's Opinion of Luck. THE astonishing success of JOS. GORMELY, in the CLOTHING BUSINESS, excites the W HEREAS, John C. Walton and Philip W. Housekeeper, Assignees of said John Steele Worrison, did on the 16th day of May, 1848, file in the Office of the Prothonotary of the said Court, the Office of the Prothonotary of the said Court, that her than the rest, attribute it to any cause that the rest is the rest. more envious than the rest, attribute it to any cause that best suits their purposes, no matter how unjust, or how foul the misropresentations. Again, there is another class more easily satisfied, and content themselves by saying—"Well, it is all luck—better to be born lucky than rich. Born under a lucky planet," &c. "Pshaw says Dr. Franklin, of luck, all the luck I know of is in proper management." Precisely so, Dr., and just the operating cause in the extensive business done at the great LANCAS-TER HALL OF FASHIONS. The only secret in this large business, and the only reason that it is large, is because he is careful in the selection of good materials, and has all his goods well madeant then the fit of his garments cannot be surpassed; WHEREAS, Adam H. Truth and Common Sense is mighty and will prevail,

Over all the Humbuggery in the World, however bon bastic and noisy it may appear. T. FORD, being desirous of returning his sincere and hearty thanks to the citizens of Lancaster city and county, for the kind manner in which they have come forward and welcomed him ment they have come toward and welcomed him—being an entire stranger among them—and for the unprecedented patronage he has received at their hands, adopts this medium of expressing his gratitude for their favors. He wishes it distinctly understood that he does not attempt to thrust it down the necks of the public, that his is the only Clething Stephin they would not have here here the straight of the public of the publ Clothing Store in the world, nor has he got quite as magnificent a front to his establishm persons prefend to have; but one thing is certain, and it has been unanimously decided by the entire population of Lancaster, that he has just received the most magnificent and extensive Assortment of Goods. suitable for the present and coming season, ever be-fore exhibited in this county, to describe which is almost an impossibility. The only way to form an accurate idea of the extent, variety and splendor, will be to call and examine them. And rest assured gentlemen, of receiving the most polite attentio whether you intend purchasing at the time or not.

W. T. FORD offers $1000 reward, to any person in Lancaster city or county, who can produce as large a variety, and as cheap a stock of well made Clothing, and nieco produce he has a superson to the county of the count
