Octoraro Rail Road.

PURSUANT to adjournment, a very large num-ber of the citizens of Lancaster and Chester counties, favorable to the construction of a Rail Road down the Octoraro Creek to North East of Road down the Octorato Creek to North East of Port Deposit, met at the public house of John Twaddel, in Lower Oxford township.

The meeting was called to order by appointing Thomas Wood, Esq., President, and John P. Har-lin, Secretary. n, Secretary.

The very great enthusiasm on the part of those resent, manifested a conciousness of the immense enefit such a road would be to all living near it; and also a determination to accomplish the greatly needed work. The committee of five appointed at a previous neeting to view the routes being called upon, made heir report unanimously testifying therein that for natural facilities no ground could be discovered, setter adapted for the cheap and easy location of uch a road, and that no road except some of our horoughfares would do a greater amount of bus ness in proportion to its length, nor be as profitable

That portion of the report was warmly approved of, and unanimously believed to be correct.

Several speeches were made urging the duty of making a strong effort in the important matter, and repeating the belief that the stock would pay a large percentage. One of the speakers, an experienced business man whose calculations rarely prove incorrect, averred as his belief that the stock would pay 12 per cent certainly.

It was agreed upon by the Commissioners that the books for taking stock be opened on the twenty-fifth day of July next, and remain open for three days at places to be advertised hereafter in the Lancaster Ezaminer and Intelligencer—in the West.

T. FORD, being desirous of returning his sincere and hearty thanks to the citizens of Lancaster city and county, for the kind manner in which they have come forward and welcomed him—being an entire stranger among them—and for the unprecedented patronage he has received at their hands, adopts this medium of expressing his gratitude for their favors. He wishes it distinctly understood that he does not attempt to these to grattude for their favors. He wishes it distinctly, understood that he does not attempt to thrust it down the necks of the public, that his is the only Clothing Store in the world, nor has he got quite as magnificent a front to his establishment as some persons pretend to have; but one thing is certain, and it has been unanimously decided by the entire population o Lancaster, that he has just received the most magnificent and extensive
