Arrival of the Britannia!

IMPORTANT FROM IRELAND!!

ARREST OF THE PATRIOTS!

The Britannia arrived at Boston at 1 P. M., on Saturday, having made the passage in fourteen days. She sailed from Liverpool on the 12th of August.

Very interesting from Ireland.—Affairs in Ireland have not materially changed, though every day seems to lessen the probability of any serious outbreak. That this unfortunate country is not now plunged into all the horrors of a civil war is not to be attributed to the disinclination of the people to rise up in arms—but, rather it would seem to be the want of bold, able, and trusted leaders.

Mr. W. S. O'Brien was arrested on Saturday evening, August 5, at the railroad station at Thurles, whilst in the act of procuring a ticket for Limerick, where, it is said, he intended to have taken refuge among his friends. Immediately after his arrest he was marched to Bridewell, and subsequently conveyed to Dublin, and lodged in Kilmainham jail. After O'Brien's arrest, he is said to have expressed himself satisfied of the hopelessness of accomplishing his object, and that he was induced to leave his retreat in the mountains, because the farther he went the more the people seemed to fear to harbor him, or hold any communication with him. O'Brien is said to be cheerful, and his wife is allowed free access to him. Other friends are permitted to converse with him in the presence of the jail authorities.

Numerous arrests continue to be made, and, among others of recent date, we notice the names of Dr. M. Carron; Mr. James Bergen, ship broker, of New York, and Mr. Nolan, of the United States; and Richard O'Gorman, for whose arrest £300 was offered.

Gen. Cass on the Dissolution of the Union.

"It pains me, sir, to hear allusions to the destruction of this Government, and to the dissolution of this Confederacy. It pains me, not because they inspire me with any fear but because we ought to have one unpronounceable word, as the Jews had of old, and that word is DISSOLUTION. We should reject the feeling from our hearts, and its name from our tongues. This story of "We, we, to Jerusalem," grates harshly upon our ears. Our Jerusalem is neither beleaguered, nor in danger. It is yet the city upon a hill, glorious in what it is, still more glorious, by the blessing of God, in what it is to be—a landmark, inviting the nations of the world, struggling upon the stormy ocean of political oppression, to follow us to a haven of safety, and of rational liberty. No English Titus will enter our temple of freedom through a breach in the battlements, to bear thence the ark of our Constitution, and the book of our law, to take their stations in the streets of a modern Rome, as trophies of conquest and proofs of submission.

"Many a raven has croaked in my day, but the augury has failed, and the republic has marched onward. Many a crisis has presented itself to the imagination of our political Cassandras, but we have still increased in political prosperity as we have increased in years, and that, too, with an accelerated progress unknown to the history of the world. We have a class of men whose eyes are always upon the future, overlooking the blessings around us, and forever apprehensive of some great political evil, which is to arrest our course some where or other on this side of the millenium. To them we are the image of gold, and silver, and brass, and glass, contrariety in unity, which the first rude blow of misfortune is to strike from its pedestal.

"For my own part, I consider this the strongest Government on the face of the earth for good, and the weakest for evil. Strong, because supported by the public opinion of a people inferior to none of the communities of the earth in all that constitutes moral worth and useful knowledge, and who have breathed into their political system the breath of life; and who would destroy it as they created it, if it were unworthy of them, or failed to fulfil their just expectations. And weak for evil, from this very consideration, which would make its follies and its faults the signal of its overthrow. It is the only Government in existence which no revolution can subvert. It may be changed but it provides for its own change, when the public will requires. Plots and insurrections, and the various means by which an oppressed population manifests its sufferings, and seeks the recovery of its rights have no place here. We have nothing to fear but ourselves. Speech of Gen. Cass on the Oregon question.

DOUBLE CAUSE FOR GRIEF.—The editor of the Pawtucket Chronicle, who had recently an opportunity of saying good-bye to a lovely lady of his town, who had that day "committed matrimony," and was on the eve of departing for her new home in the South, was surprised to find at the depot some fifty of the fairer portion of the human race, "like Niobe, all tears," and could not resist the temptation to ask what the matter was. He was politely informed by one in the secret, that a part of the young ladies were shedding tears of regret at parting with a much-loved associate, and the balance were crying because they were not married too.

WANTED!—A Whig Elector for the Albermarle District. The situation is a good one, but without honor or emolument—yet the duty imposed is a light one, there being no principles to discuss.—Gentlemen desiring the situation had better apply before the election is over.—Virginian.

Harmonious Federalism.

That highly spirited paper, the Cleaveland (Ohio) Plaindealer, draws a graphic picture of Federal difficulties in that State. It says:

Thus we have it—Giddings, Root, Briggs, Crowell, Hamlin, Vaughn and perhaps Ford—all Whigs—legging it for Van Buren, against Ewing, Corwin, Delano and lots of smaller fry, who are going it for old Zack.

Ohio is safe for Cass!

NEW USE OF THE TOMATO.—The Cheraw Gazette states that in addition to the advantages of tomato for table use, the vine is of great value for food for cattle, especially for cows. It is said that a cow fed on tomato vines will give more milk, and yield butter of a finer flavor, in greatest abundance, than on any other long feed ever tried. It is thought, too, that more good food for cattle, and at less expense, can be raised on a given quantity of ground, planted in tomatos than from any other vegetable known in the Southern country. Farmers look out for this in the coming season.

HOW TRUE.—A very eminent writer has said that although we seem aggrieved at the shortness of life in general, we are wishing every period of it at an end. The minor longs to be of age; then to be a man of business; then to arrive at honor; then to retire. The usurer would be very well satisfied to have all the time annihilated that lies between the present moment and the next quarter pay; the politician would be content to loose three years of his life, could he place things in the posture that he fancies they will occupy after such a revolution of time; and the lover would be glad to strike out all the moments of existence that are to pass away before next meeting.

☞ Society is like a glass of ale, the dregs go to the bottom, the froth and scum to the surface, and the substance, or the better portion, remains about the centre.

LEISURE.—This leisure is a very pleasant garment to look at, but it is a very bad one to wear. The ruins of millions may be traced to it.

Fresh Arrival!!

ANOTHER CASE. Fifteen Hundred Yards of those splendid fast color prints; only 6¼ cents per yard. Just received at the New York Store.

August 29. 29-tf.

To all Whom it may Concern.

WHEREAS, by the freshet in the Susquehanna, the only bridge over said river between Columbia and Port Deposit has been swept away, thus very materially affecting and destroying the facilities heretofore enjoyed by the citizens of Harford county, Maryland, and of Lancaster and York counties in Pennsylvania, in the transaction of their business, putting those engaged in the driving of cattle and horses through said counties to the Eastern markets, to much greater trouble and expense on account of the increased length of their journey, as well as adding to the expense of taking produce from the counties on the Eastern Bank of the Susquehanna to Baltimore market. Therefore, we, a committee appointed for the purpose, by a meeting of the citizens of the several counties above mentioned, convened for the purpose, at the Buck, on Saturday, the 19th instant, respectfully invite the attention of the citizens of Baltimore city and co., Harford county, Maryland, of York, Chester, and Lancaster in Penna., and of the city and county of Philadelphia to the consideration of the advantages which would accrue to all of them by the erection of a bridge at or near the site of the former bridge, at McCalls Ferry, which we believe to be the following, viz:

1st. That this 3d site is nearly midway between the Bridge at Columbia and Port Deposit, so far distant from each as not to be injuriously affected by either, and at the same time will draw more travel than any other bridge between said points.

2d. That it is on the most central and direct route, over which the Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio drovers can drive their cattle and horses to the Eastern markets, and it is a route along the greater portion of which first rate pasturage can be had at the lowest rates, and all turnpikes avoided, besides avoiding danger from cars and locomotives in the Columbia Bridge and Railway, as well as saving the increased distance by Port Deposit.

3d. That the increased travel of cattle and horses through the section of country the above route passes, will not only be equally advantageous to the buyer and seller, so far as the market is concerned, but will benefit the farmers along the route by improving their lands, as experience has proven on other routes.

4th. That it is currently reported and believed that in case of accident to the Bridge now across the river at Port Deposit, which would partially or entirely destroy the same, it would not be repaired or reconstructed, and consequently the Bridge at McCalls Ferry would have its travel increased.

5th. That there is now in existence a good and valid charter, granted by the Legislature of Penna. in 1837, to Jonas Preston of Chester county, in the state aforesaid, and to his heirs and assigns forever, which has been pronounced by a gentleman learned in the laws of the state, not only as eminently beneficial to the grantees, but better than any charter which can now be had. And this charter can now be had without any thing more than a mere nominal Bonus, nothing more being required of the state than a mere act of incorporation, as the assignees of the said Jonas Preston.

6th and lastly—That the width of the Susquehanna is less at McCalls Ferry than any other point between Columbia and Port Deposit, thereby lessening the expense of erecting the Bridge, besides which nature has done the greater part of the work of the abutments; on either side the banks being so bold as to enable the construction of the Bridge to put it out of the possibility of harm from the ice or freshets of the river.

We therefore again invite all who choose to participate in a measure which has not only the good of the public in view, but which must prove of private profit to those who invest their means in it, to meet at the Buck Tavern, Drumore township, Lancaster county, Pa., on Thursday, the 14th day of September, to devise such measures as will insure the speedy erection of a Bridge at McCalls Ferry.

SANDS, LENTS & CO'S

HIPPOFÉRAEAN ARENA.

THIS IMMENSE and truly Magnificent Establishment will be open in Lancaster, on Thursday and Friday, September 21st and 22d, 1848.

FOR TWO DAYS ONLY.

In addition to their already mammoth troupe of Equestrians and Animals the Proprietors offer, the present season, a series of novel and Magnificent Entertainments, far surpassing anything that ever was presented to the American Public. The leading new features of this extensive company consists of a pair of trained Elephants, Jenny Lind and Romeo, and ten Egyptian Camels, whose performances have been the wonder and delight of thousands in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe. Independent of these unparalleled novelties, the company proper is composed of a host of artists whose abilities have stood the test of the most searching criticism both in the old and new worlds, and the names which are now offered are a sufficient guaranty that none but the most talented have been selected.

Among them will be found those of Mr. R. Sands and his children Maurice and Jesse; Mons. Cane in his astonishing performance; Master Walter Aymar, the Juvenile Equestrian Wonder in various acts of equitation unapproached as a bare-back rider; Mlle Rosalthe Madigan, the Fairy Amazonian Princess of the Arena, only 7 years of age; Mr. Madigan, the great scenic and polyhippian Equestrian; Sig. Perez, the Unrivalled Contortionist; Mr. Ruggles, the popular and unsurpassed performer on the Corde Volante; Wm. Aymer, the Aerial Vaulter; Albert Aymer; Messrs. Rice, Mitchell, Crawford, Lacy, Tucker, and a host of other performers, male and female, all of the most approved talent in their various feats.

This Mammoth Corps will enter town on the morning of Exhibition, at 11 o'clock, in Procession and cavalcade, preceded by the Sacred Egyptian Chariot of Isis and Osiris, drawn by 10 Egyptian Camels, containing the splendid full band attached to the Company.

Next in order will be the East Indian Car; to which will be harnessed the two Elephants, followed by the magnificent Stud of Horses, and all the numerous costly and highly ornamented Vehicles belonging to the company. The beautiful Fairy Carriage drawn by twenty Lilliputian Ponies, driven in hand, will bring up the rear of the whole procession, the toute ensemble of which surpasses anything which language can describe.

Master of the Arena, Capt. J. A. Decamp, Equestrian Director, Mr. H. P. Madigan, Treasurer, Mr. J. W. Cushay. Clowns, Petland and Lathrop, both distinguished above all others in the country, for their wit and joviality, and unsurpassed by any in the world for their genuine and unexceptionable humor. Musical Director, Mr. E. K. Eaton; Leader of the Brass Band, Mr. Geo. Seeley, Leader of the String Band, Herr A. Gerloff.

The Pavilion in which the company will exhibit is by far the largest ever erected, and will be brilliantly illuminated on the night of performance.

Doors open at 2 and 7 o'clock P. M. Performance commences at 2½ and 7½ o'clock.

Admittance 25 cents; positively no half price.
