elective franchise, in all its various bearings, is the great panacea exercised by the people in the correction of any evils that may again arise in the administration of the general government, as in 1798, when a company of dragoons left the now whiggish county of Lancaster and went to the Democratic Herculian county of old Berks, and cut down just such poles as we have this day raised here in honor of liberty and a free exercise of our political opinions: and the State administration of 1838, when honest men were to throw their consciences to the devil, and treat the elections as though they were not. The preser vation of our privileges from similar innovations is of the most vital importance. Therefore be it Resolved, That at the approaching elections it is a duty incumbent on every democratic republi-can to forego all sectional and minor considerations-come to the polls and use every honorable means in his power to promote the election of the regular nominated democratic candidates, namely, CASS, BUTLER, LONGSTRETH, and PAIN-

Resolved, That we, a portion of the democratic party, hail with enthusiastic delight the nominaof the virtuous and enlightened statesman Gen. LEWIS CASS, of Michigan, and that we will yield our warmest and most unqualified supto him for his patriotism, firmness, decision, and fearless perseverance in defeating, with a single stroke of his pen, the Quintuple Treaty. Resolved, That we highly estimate the Hero and Statesman, WILLIAM O. BUTLER, whose past life, both in the field and in the councils of the nation, convinces us of his bravery, patriotism and devotion to democratic principles, and that we go for him with a firm and fixed determination to do our duty as freemen and secure his election.

Resolved, That the intelligence, business talent, fair private character, and unwavering democracy of MORRIS LONGSTRETH recommend him as a highly suitable person for Governor of the dem atic State of Pennsylvania; and his public life ffords us a full assurance that he will discharge his duty faithfully by following the footsteps of h ted predecessor, FRANCIS R. SHUNK: efore give him our hearty support. Resolved, That we repose undiminished confidenc in our excellent candidate for Canal Comsissioner, ISRAEL PAINTER; and because we know him to possess the vigor to sustain the hon-est and unbiassed convictions of his judgment, in all emergencies, however critical or trying, we will use all honorable means to secure his election. Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the stability of our institutions and in our pa triotic President JAMES K. POLK, and regard him as able to originate, and bold to execute such measures as are requisite for our country good, and calculated to inspire us with feelings of licitude for his welfare.

Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the talents, virtue and political integrity of our Vice President, GEORGE M. DALLAS. course of our United States Senators in relation to he Mexican war. Resolved, That our county ticket is just such an one as will meet the approbation of the Democrats of Lancaster county. It is composed of men of sterling worth and sound political integrity.

Resolved, That we will oppose the election of Zachary Taylor, because he is chameleon like in principles and political measures, he says he beongs to no party, has no principles to carry out-

o measures to support, and is not at all qualified o till the Presidential chair-that he never held a ivil office in his life—he never studied the civil affairs of the nation-he was bred and repred a warfaring man-and did not even vote for the last forty years. Resolved. That we see in Millard Fillmore, the House, aujoining Centre Square.

1 Each subscriber of Five Dollars becomes 1. Each subseriner of Five Boliars becomes a member of the Art-Union for one year. The money thus obtained is applied, first, to the procuring of a large and costly Engraving, from an original American Picture, of which every member receives a copy; and next, to the purchase of Pic-tures, Drawings, or other works of Art, with the funds distributed by lot among the members for that purpose.

Thus, for the sum of Five Dollars, every member is sure of receiving a fine Engraving (worth alone, the amount of his subscription) and the chance of obtaining a fine original Painting, to be SELECTED BY HIMSELF from any public exhibition in the For further particulars call at the Painting Room f the undersigned, where can be seen a specime of the engraving, and where subsceived for the same.
