Sarsaparilla. THIS Extract is put up in quart bottles—it is six times cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted supe-ior to any sold. It cures diseases without vomiting, purging, sickening or debilitating the patient, and is particularly adapted for a Spring and Summer

Medicine.

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other remedies is, while it eradicates disease, it invigorates the body. Consumption cured. It cleanses and strengthens. Consumption can be colds, coughs, catarrh, asthma, spitting of blood, soreness in the chest, hectic flush, night sweats, difficult or profuse expectoration and pain in the side, &c., have and can be cured.

No female who has reason to believe she is approaching that critical period, "the turn of life," should neglect to take it, as this is a certain preventive for any of the numerous and horrible diseases to which females are subject at this time of life. This period may be delayed for several years by taking this mediciner. It braces the whole system, renews permanently the natural energies, by remember the present.

Dr. Townsend—Dear Sir: My wife has been afficted with a disease of the heart, and with a terrible rupture for over fifteen years, the greater part of the time. She has been troubled with shortness of the time. She has been troubled with shortness of breath, and great fluttering of the heart, which has been very distressing, and has frequently been unable to leave her bed. The rupture was very large and severe. She tried almost every remedy for such cases with but little benefit. When she had taken but three bottles of your excellent medicine she was entirely relieved of the fickleness of cine she was entirely relieved of the fickleness of the heart, and the rupture has almost entirely disappeared. She has also had the dropsy, and was very much swollen. We had no idea that she could be benefitted as she had such a complication of diseases. But it has, as strange as it may appear, relieved her of the dropsy. I am aware that this statement is so strange as to appear almost like fiction, but it is, nevertheless, sober reality. Your Sarsaparilla is certainly a valuable medicine, and should be used by every one that is suffering as we have been. Bank Department, Albany May 10, 1846.

Dr. Townsend—Sir: I have been afflicted for several years with dyspepsia in its worst form, attended with sourness of stomach, loss of appetite, extreme heartburn, and a great aversion to all kinds of food, and for weeks (what I could eat) I have hear mishle to ratain but a small portion on extreme neartourn, and a great aversion to all kinds of food, and for wocks (what I could out) I have been unable to retain but a small portion on my stomach. I tried the usual remedies, but they had but little or no effect in removing the complaint. I was induced, about two months since, to try your Extract of Sarapparilla, and I must say with little confidence; but after using nearly two bottles, I found my apparite restored and the heartburn entirely removed; and I would carneatly recommend the use of it to those who have been afflicted as I have been.
