From the Pennsylvanian.

The Schuylkill County Vote. ELECTION FRAUDSI FIGURES THAT PROVE EXTRAORDINARY FACTS!

The North American is now silent on the subject of election frauds. We presume it is satisfied in relation to Penn District. "If not, upon the inquiry it will find that there are in this district 1493 bono fide taxables, and that three hundred dwellings have been erected within its boundaries during the present year. We do not give this information, or al lude to this matter, because we think it at all necessary to vindicate or explain the late vote of the District of Penn, but we allude to it in reference to the votes of other parts of the State, to show to the North American that it is called upon by its own argument, to give us some explanations relative to these votes also :

	Penn	District	in 1947, polled 600 votes.

Thus it will be seen, that the whole increase in the vote of Penn district on the 10th inst., (notwithstanding three hundred houses have been erected in it during the year,) is only about eighty per cent-While the Democratic gain is 50 per cent., the Federal gain is just 400 per cent!! This matter needs no further comment.

Having thus stated the case of Penn, about the increased vote of which the North American has been clamoring ever since the day of the late election, and pronouncing it a "gross fraud," we again call its attention to certain districts in Schnylkill county, referred to vesterday, and to which we now particularly allude for its enlightenment:

Democratic gain 17 Federal gain, 771!!

Where did these seven hundred and seventy-one new votes come from? Nowhere in the county was there any such increase of votes or any such Federal gain. Will the North American tell us that these districts have increased in population thus much in one year ! They are all purely mining districts. Has the coal trade increased since las year in this 'extraordinary ratio? There stands Penn district, and its three hundred new houses are to be seen and their inhabitants found; but who has seen the new buildings erected in those districts in Schuylkill county to hold these new votes /----Where, also, are the new mines opened for them being mined at the same time last year-then why and to the Country, come what may. IT In January, 1843, soon after his return from France, Gen. Cass visited Harrisburg. (Pa.) where he had a public reception, and was invited to par-take of a public dinner, in a letter signed by about two hundred citizens of all parties, among whom two hundred citizens of all parties, among whom were many of the most prominent whigs of that town. In that letter they bore the following most honorable and truthful testimony of Gen. Cass' eminent services to the country on numerous great occasions, which it is now their policy to contradict and falsify:

"The distinguished services you have rendered the country as the representative of her interests, her dignity and honor, at the Court of France, have nd your diplomatic career a popularity so universal, that it cannot be circums party lines or distinctions."

And again-

"The prominent part you took in defeating the Burr conspiracy, and your gallant conduct during the war of 1812, were services which the whole nation are proud to acknowledge." This is true-those "were services which the whole nation are proud to acknowledge," and the people are about to reward them by elevating him to the highest office in their gift-the highest and most honorable earthly station.
