

Select Poetry.

SONG OF AUTUMN. come, I come, ye may hear my song, From hilltop to valley 'tis pealing along; The leafless bough is my wild harp's string. And loudly and long do its echoes ring.

Ye may know the path by the golden grain, And the rainbow hues on my bordered train; By the towering maple's scarlet tress, And her forest sister's gorgeous dress.

.The wild flower bows her gentle head, As she hears afar my conquering tread, And the prince of the forest doffs his crest, As a beggar low to a kingly guest.

Ye may see my power in the night walk still. When the starlight sleeps on the mountain rill-Where the ripples that danced the livelong day, I hush in their wild and careless play.

And bind them fast with a chrystal chain, That a sunbeam's touch might break again ; While fairy frost with her glittering gems, Weaves me many a diadem.

Oh, proudly now I career along, And breezes are pealing my triumph song ; While earth from her garner her treasure brings To lay on the shrine of the Autumn king.

But listen ! I hear a note of dread, And I see afar a hoary head; And a freezing look from a piercing eye, Warns me with lightning speed to fly.

"Tis icy cold Winter, I know him well, I have felt before his withering spell ; A grim old tyrant and lordly is he, And he laughs outright when he's conque

Miscellaneons.

The Mother's Lesson

A mother, sitting in her parlor, overheard her child, whom a sister was dressing, say repeatedly, "No, I don't want to say my prayers, I don't want to say my prayers." " Mother," said the child appearing at the parlor

"Good morning, my child." " I am going to get my breaklast." " Stop a minute. I want you to come and see me first <sup>6</sup> The mother laid down her work on the next chair, and the boy ran toward her. She took him up. He kneeled in her lap, and laid his face down upon her shoulder, his cheek against her ear. The mother rocked her chair slowly backward and forward--" Are you pretty well this morning ?" said she, in a kind and gentle tone.

"Yes, mother, I am very well." "I am glad vou are well. I am very well, too; and when I waked up this morning and found that I was well, I thanked God for taking care of me."

Uncle Benjamin's Sermon. Our Country. Not many hours ago I heard my Uncle Benjamin The London Dispatch gives this glowing picture t. Even the father cannot realize it thus. There of the United States : iscussing this matter to his son, who was comis a vacancy in his home, and a heaviness in his "If ever there was a people on this earth blessed plaining of pressure. "Rely upon it, Sammy," said the old man, as he heart; there is a chain of association that comes with every appliance that can make life happy, round with its broken link; there are memories of man contented, and a nation prosperous, it is sure- leaned on his staff, with his grey locks flowing in the breeze of a May morning, "murmuring pays no endearment, a keen sense of loss, a weeping over ly the citizens of the United States of America. crushed hopes, and pain of wounded affection. But They possess unlimited means of education and bills. I have been an observer any time these fifty the mother feels that one has been taken away who intelligence: the most unbounded liberty: the most years, and I never saw a man helped out of a hole was still closer to her heart. Her's has been the of enlightened institutions-a territory so vast, varied by cursing his horses. Be as quiet as you can, for fice of constant ministration. Every gradation of and fertile, that there poverty is not only not nothing will grow under a moving harrow, and leature has developed before her eyes. She has de- known, but destitution is impossible. With light discontent harrows the mind. Matters are bad, I tected every new glearn of intelligence. She has burdens superabundance of every production that acknowledge, but no ulcer is any better for finger seen the refuge of his fears, the supply of his wants. can minister not only to the necessities, but to the ing. The more you groan the poorer you grow. And when he dies, a portion of her own life, as it higher comforts of life; separated from all enemies "Repining at losses is only putting pepper into vere, dies. How can she give it up, with all the that could be at all formidable to them by the a sore eye. Crops will fail in all soils, and we may nemories of these associations? The timid hands broad Atlantic-distinguished for energetic indus- be thankful that we have not a famine. Besides, I hat have so often taken her s in trust and love, how try, boundless enterprise, remarkable ingenuity and always took notice that whenever I felt the roc can she fold them on his breast, and give him up genius, and a restless spirit of progress-what pretty smartly, it was as much as to say, "here in something which you have got to learn." Sammy, to the cold clasp of death ? The feet whose wan- have they to fear from without, for what have they derings she has watched so narrowly, how can she to be anxious within, what have they to wish or don't forget that your schooling is not over ye see them straightened to go down to the dark hope for that is not already realized ? With them though you have a wife and two children." valley? The head that she has pressed to her lips solicitude for the future would be as preposterous "Ay," cried Sammy, " you may say that, and : and bosom, that she has watched in burning sick- as the idea of danger in the present. The growth mother-in-law, and two apprentices into the bargain; ness, and peaceful slumber, a hair of which she of population, the pressure of competition, which and I should like to know what a poor man can would not see harmed. Oh! how can she consign create disorder, misery, revolution, insecurity in learn here, when the greatest scholars and lawyers it to the chamber of the grave? The form that the older countries of the world, are relief, life, are at loggerheads, and can't for their lives tell what knowledge, how can she put it away for the long night of the sepulchre, to see it no more? Manhas cares and toils that draw away his thoughts Moral greatness consists not in the office a man and employ them; she sits in loneliness, and all these memories, all these suggestions crowd upon her. How can she bear all this? She could not. were it not that her faith is as her affection; and if the one is more deep and tender than in man, the other is more simple and spontaneous, and akes confidently hold of the hand of God.

Death of a Child.

Burke

his judgment, and his interest with both

No one feels the death of a child as a mother feels ing and fixing the inhabitants of multitudes who are not sensible of the influence he has upon them. Was one of the most splendid specimens of Irish He works silently, judiciously, and constantly. This alent ; but his imagination too often ran away with is moral greatness. Where you find a man leading you along imperceptibly, as by silken cords and It is well known that Burke on his first debut in silent resistless appeals, you may be sure he poslife improved himself not a little under the banners sesses in a pre-eminent degree the elements of real and the patronage of the opposition; for which purpose he was a constant frequenter of the various greatness Such an individual is worth to God and humanit debates and disputations held at the house of one Jeacocke, a baker, but who, notwithstanding his situation in life, was gifted with such a vein of eloquence, that he was unanimously constituted perpetual president of the famous disputing society held at Robin Hood, near Temple Bar. On a cer-age, his steadfastness, his moral power or virtue. tain memorable occasion in the House of Commons

Mr. Burke exclaiming " I quit the camp I" suddenly Stealing a loaf of bread or a string of onions i called petit larceny ; but the defaulter or fraudulent official, in starched collar and broad cloth coat, who Sheridan concluded a spirited reply to that unlooked makes way with fifty, seventy-live, or a hundred thousand dollars of other people's hard earning's gentleman, to use his own expression has quitted and hard dollars, is politely adjudged to be simply the camp; but he will recollect that he has quitted guilty of a peccadillo! The former is locked up in as a deserter, and I sincerely hope he will never jail, and the latter is admitted to free and easy bail. The one is hustled out of the way as a graceless sympathise in the astonishment with which thief, but the other escapes punishment, generally

Lancaster Intelligencer, PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING. BY E. W. HUTTER. Union Court," in the rear of the Marke

House, adjoining Centre Square. TERMS: DESCRIPTION.-Two dollars per annum, payable in advance; two twenty-live, if not paid within six months; and two fifty, if not paid within the year. No subscription discontinued until all at rearages are paid, unless at the option of the DUERTISÉMENTS.—Accompanied by the CASH, and not exceeding one square, will be inserted three times for one dollar, and twenty-five cents for each additional insertion. Those of a greater length on Paperna.—Such as Hand Bills, Posting Bills, Pamphlets, Blanks, Labels, &c., &c., executed with accuracy and at the shortest notice.

Election Notice. FARMERS' BANK OF LANCASTER, October 19, 1848. N ELECTION for Thirteen Directors of this A Bank, will be held at the Banking House, on fonday, the 20th of November next, between the ours of 9 A. M. and 3 P. M. G. CLARKSON, Cash'r. Oct 24

3t-29 LANCASTER BANK, ) OCTOBER 17, 1848. N Election for Thirteen Directors of this insti-tution will be held at the Banking House, on onday, the 20th day of November next, between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M. and 3 P. M. CARISTIAN BACHMAN, Cashier. r 24. 31.39. October 24

DENTISTRY.

DR. S. WELCHANS, Successor to Dr. Van Patten, would respectfully inform the citizens of Lancaster, and the public in general, that he is going to continue the office of his preceptor and predecessor, so well known as Dr. Van Patten's office, on the second floor of Kramph's Building, ower than they have ever been sold i before. A general as wear, &c., &c.

wear, &c., &c. Sugars, Coffee, Teas, Molasses, &c. call as we are determined to sell at asmi on cost. HOSTETTER & BEL corner of North Queen and Orange streets, opposite the Post Office . Welchans can always be found at his office

Dr. Weichans can always be found at his office ready to perform any operation in the practice of Dental Surgery. He treats natural teeth with a view to their preservation and beauty, with the same care and precision which characterized his preceptor and predecessor, and for which he was N. B. All kinds of country produce j change for goods, for which the high price will be allowed. 'sept 5 1848 preceptor and predecessor, and for which he was so much beloved as a professional man. As a stu-dent of Dr. Van Patten's he is perfectly familiar with his mode of treating diseased teeth for which he was unsurpassed. He inserts entire sets of artificial teeth for both upper and lower jaw, with as with carificial ourse read particle as simple Extract from a Speech at a Politic STRIKE! said he, for the hour is or without artificial gums, and partial sets or single teeth, warranted to be comfortable, useful, and very respect satisfactory to the wearer. He also inserts full or partial sets on the princ spheric pressure. GISH'S GENERAL AGENCY fo

J. the sale of all Genuine Popular Patent Mei-cines, Store immediately opposite Mrs. Kaufinan's Hotel, and next door to the Examiner & Herald office, North Queen Street, Lancaster—where is kept on hand a full supply of all the leading articles of GENUINE POPULAR PATENT MEDICINES

327 Every article is warranted fresh and genuine Sept 26 6m-35 FALL & WINTER DRY GOODS.

THE subscriber has just returned from Europe with a large stock of his own importation, viz CLOCKS, WATCHES, JEWELRY, SPECTA

DRY COODS

HOSTETTER SBEATES

JOSEPH GORMLEY,

North Queen Street, Lancaste

DENTISTRY.

Notice.

Notice. /

George Wolf,

Peter Haldeman,

Peter Haldeman, R. Chalfant, Peter Haldeman, jr.

R. E. Cochran, Reuben Mullison, John L. Wright,

John Barr, Columbia, July 1, 1848.

September 12.

October 10.

9-4

PRIVATE SALE.

Small Tract of Patented Land.

THOMAS MASTERSON, jun. near Manheir

Auditor's Notice.

persons interested are requested to attend.

Longenecker & Co.,

HAVE received a large lot of very cheap LIN EN GOODS.

Damask Table Linens, DU, 0.27 and 1. Table Napkins, very cheap. Diaper Toweling, best quality. Fine Huckaback Toweling. Bird Eye Diaper, for children's aprons. Cambric Handkerchiefs from 12; to $1.

Sign Painting.

Damask Table Linens, 50, 624 and 75 cts.

EN GOODS. Shirting Linens at 25 and 37‡ cents. 12-4 Linen Sheetings, very low.

to satisfy all who may be ple heir custom.

FRS. KEENAN, Auditor

used to favor him

6mo-23.

H. E. Atkins,

B. Cranston, John A. Hook,

H'v Haldeman

niel Herr

Samuel Brooks, Philip Gossler.

6то-23

ook fur-

33-tf.

td-37.

CLES. ACCORDEONS, nd other Fancy Goods, all of which the is prepared o the public

Gold Lever Watches, 18 carats, full jeweled $25 Silver do Silver Lepines from $8 to $12 ilver Quartiers from ilter Quarters and rench Accordeons from $100 to 210 And all other goods in like proportion. Thankful for past favors, he respectfully solicits a continuance of public patronage, and feels confi-dent that all purchasers will find it to their advan-tions to deal with him, as he is determined to avoid $5 to $8 $1 50 to $16 tage to teen with him, as he is determined to avoid all humbing and misrepresentation in his line of business, and sell all goods for what they really are. H. F. W. FEDDERSEN.

Don't forget the place, it is in West King street, North side, first door below the Market Houze, and nmediately opposite the Cross Key Tavern. N. B. All kinds of Watch Repairing done at the

Oct 10 3m-37

Equitable Life Insurance, Annuity and Trust Company.

and Trust Company. OFFICE 74 Wainut street Philadelphia. CAPT Company are prepared to transact business at Lan-caster upon the most liberal and avantageous terms. They are authorized by their charter (sect. 3) "to make all and every insurance appertaining to life risks of whatever kind or nature, and to receive and execute trusts, make endowments, and to grant and purchase annuties." The Company sell annu-ities and endowments, and act as Trustees for minors and heirs. Table of Premiums required for the Assurance of $100 for the whole term of life : Age. Prem. Are. Prem. FALL SUPPLY !!! OSTETTER & BEATES, respectfully an-nounce to their town and country friends that they have this day received direct from the New York and Philadelphia markets, a large and elegant supply of Fall Goods, which have been selected with great care and will be sold at prices that can-tot fail to please. Their stock comprises every hing to be found in the

Dry Goods, Grocery and Queensware Cloths, Cassemeres, Cassinetts and Vestings Age. Prem. Age. Prem. Age. Prem

	lower than they have ever been sold in this city	10	1 50	31	2 09	46	3 36 before. A general assortment of articles for Ladies	17	1 53	32	2 15	47	3
	wear, &c., &c.	18	1 56	33	220	48	3 62
	Sugars, Coffee, Teas, Molasses, &c. Give us a	19	1 59	34	2 27	49	3 77
1	call as we are determined to sell at a small advance	20	-160	35	2 33	50	3 94
	on cost. HOSTETTER & BEATES,	21	1 63	36	2 40	51	4 13
	East King street.	22	1 66	37	2 47	52	4 39
	N. B. All kinds of country produce taken in ex-	23	1 69	38	2 54	53	4 51
ł	change for goods, for which the highetst market	24	172	39	2 63	54	4 71
	price will be allowed. H. & B.	25	1 76	40	2 70	55	4 91
	'sept 5 1848 32-tf	26	1 85	41	2 81	56	5 19
	sept 0 1840	27	1 89	42	2 92	57	5 33
		28	1 94	43	3 01	58	5 54
I	Extract from a Speech at a Political Meeting.	29	1 98	44	3 12	59	5 78
Ì	CITRIKE! said he, for the hour is come-the	30	2 04	45	3 23	60	6 03
į	S hour that summons us to glory or to a glorious	71					0.03
	dress. Strike, said he, for your homes, your altars,	and	ie premium	sare less	than any	other co	mpan and your firesides. Now is the day, and now is the	and	the policies	anora gre	ater adv	antages.	Table of he	alf yearly a	na quarter	ly premi	iums, half	cred hour that summons us to a glorious victory. We	ates of premium, short terms, joint lives, survivo hips and endowments; also form of application strike for our rights and our native land. We	owments;	also for	m of app	licatio strike against distinction in external appearance	(lor	which there	e are blank	. sheets,)	) are to be	) had o
	and have raised a hall of defence. Behold! Behold! the mighty I ancaster Hall of	appi	ication at th	ne office, o	r by lett	er to the s	igent.
	Benoid ! Behold ! the mighty lancaster Hall of			matter			-

(for which there are blank sheets,) are to be had ou application at the office, or by letter to the agent. Behold ! Behold ! the mighty Lancaster Hall of Fashions. He has brought the price of superfine clothing within the reach of all. No more boast of importing Clothing for my express person-no more disparaging American Mechanics. High over

TRUSTEES : ident-JOHN W. CLAGHORN. Vice President-PETER CULLEN Clayton B. Lamb Alve E. Laing, R. F. Loper William Craig George N. Diehl Robert Morris Robert F. Walsh Wm, G. Alexander all they raise the standard of equality in dress and Edw. C. Markley Peter Cullen Peter Rambo Wm. W. Haly defy the world to show better or more elegant fitting garments than are now produced and sold at the most triffing expense, at the Lancaster, Hall of Joseph T. Thomas Stephen Crawford William M. Baird Harvy Conrad. CONSULTING PHYSICIANS-Francis West, M. D. B Biddle M D

ATENDING PHYSICIANS—Fitzwilliam Sargent M. D., E. Lang, M. D., Francis C. Sims, M. D.

has become of all the hard money." " Soitly, Sammy, I am older than you. I have not these gray hairs and this crooked back without some burdens. I could tell you stories of the days

You may learn these seven things. " First : That you have saved too little and spen too much. I never taught you to be a miser, but I when you might have laid one half aside for charity. and one half aside for a rainy day. " Secondly : That you have gone too much upon credit. 1 always told you credit was a shadow ; it thousand times as much as the man who is elevated in the glare of selfishness and popular applause now learn that you have followed the opinion of -who has been fitted up by the hands of others-but who never raised himself an inch by his cour The Difference.

left the opposition benches, and going over to the reasury side of the house, thundered a violent philinnic against his former friends and associates. Mr. for attack, nearly in the following words: "That return as a spy. But I, for one, 'he continued.

not one night has been beyond her vision or her security, wealth to the Americans. Greatness.

fills, or in the elevation he has reached by the zeal of continental money, when my grandfather used of his friends. The humblest individual in our to stuff a sulky-box with bills to pay for a yearling neighborhood, may in reality be the greatest man or a wheat fan, and when the Jersey women used in town. He is unknown by the crowd; but in thorns for pins, and laid their teapots away in the correct principles, moral habits, and unbending in- garret. You wish to know what you can learn tegrity, he shows grandeur of character, which no man can boast. His talents and exertions are formhave seen you giving your dollar for a "notion," shows that there is a substance behind, which casts the shadow; but a small body may cast a greater shadow, and no wise man will follow the shadow any further than he can see the substance. You may others until you have been decoyed into a bog. 'Thirdly : That you have been in too much haste

"Did you ?" said the boy in a low tone-half a whisper. He paused after it-conscience was at its work. "Did you ever feel my pulse ?" asked his mother after a minute of silence, at the same time taking the boy down and sitting him in her lap, and pla cing his fingers on her wrist.

"No, but I have felt mine." "Well, don't you feel mine now-how it goes beating."

" Yes." says the child.

"If it should stop beating I should die. " Should you ?"

"Yes, I can't keep it beating.

"Who can f

"God." A silence. "You have a pulse too all over you, and I cannot keep it beating, nor can vou-nobody can but God. If he should not take care of you who could ?"

"I dou't know," said the child, with a look of anxiety, and another pause ensued. "So'when I waked this morning I thought I'd ask God to take care of me and all of us." " Did you ask him to take care of me?"

"No"

"Why not?

" Because I thought you would ask him yourself A long pause ensued-the deep and thoughtful expression of his countenance showed that his heart was reached "Don't you think you had better ask him yourself ?" " Yes." said the boy, readily, He kneeled again in his mother's lap, and uttered in his simple and broken language, a praver for the protection of Heaven.

Devotion.

Devotion implies sincere gratitude to God, for all his benefits. This is a warmer emotion than simple veneration. Veneration looks up to the Deity, as he is in himself; gratitude regards what he is towards us. When a devout man surveys this vast universe, where beauty and goodness are overy where predominant : when he reflects on those numberless multitudes of creatures, who, in their different stations, enjoy the blessings of existence and when at the same time he looks up to an Uni versal Father, who hath thus filled creation with life and happiness, his heart glows within him. He adores that disinterested goodness which prompted the Almighty to raise up so many orders of intelligent beings, not that he might receive, but that he might give and impart; that he might pou forth himself, and communicate to the spirits which he formed, some emanations of his felicity.

The goodness of the Supreme Benefactor gratefully contemplates, as displayed in his own state. He reviews the events of his life, and in every comfort which has sweetened it he discerns the Divine hand. Does he remember with affection. the parents under whose care he grew up, and the companions with whom he passed his youthful life? Is he now happy, in his family rising around him. in the spouse who loves him, or in the children who give him comfort and joy? Into every tender re membrance of the past, and every pleasing enjoyment of the present, devotion enters; for in all those beloved objects it recognises God. The communication of love from heart to heart, is an effusion of his goodness. From his inspiration descends all the friendship which ever glowed on earth: and, therefore, to him it justly returns in gratitude, and terminates on him.

All Full.

me."

Lamb was one day returning from a dinner party in the suburbs of London. It was rainy, and the stage consequently crowded, when a gen- law to himself, and above all tradition." The number of Presidential candidates; pushing her tleman attempted an entry, but paused and asked omewhat doubtfully: "Are you all full inside I don't know how it is with the other gentlemen. said Lamb, in his own quiet way, "but I must say that last piece of ovster pie did the business fo so flagrant an act of apostacy has electrified the by a liberal use of the money that he has filched House ; for neither I. nor that gentleman, have forgotten from whom he has borrowed those weapons ged and penniless wretch who steals a shilling's which he now uses against us. So far, therefore, vorth of food, stands no chance at all of escape from being astonished at that gentleman's present but your well dressed and respectably connected tergiversation, I consider it not only characteristic. scamp, whose purse is as heavy as his conscience but consistent, for it is but natural, that he who is is elastic, has nine chances out of every ten in his on his first starting in life, could commit so gross favor, and seldom fails, even when closely passed Commons for his bread "

Extracts from "Lacon." for gross dishonesty.-Albany Express. It was an observation of the Lord Bishon (

Landaff, that there are but two kinds of men who Mexican Milkmen. which beats here in your bosom, in your arm, and succeed as public characters, men of no principle, One of the curiosities of Mexico, is the man but of great talent, and men of no talent, but of one principle, that of obedience to their superiors. essel, or the spouted tin can, with the different It is lamentable to think, what a gulf of impracticability must ever separate men of principle, whom offices want, from men of no principle, who old home spun looking negro packing it about on similar manner. want offices. his hard crowned head, we have the animals them-Those who would conscientiously employ power selves driven from door to door of the different reg for the good of others, deserve it, but do not desire ular customers, where they are milked, and a reguit; and those who would employ it for the good of themselves, desire it, but do not deserve it. He that is gone so far as to cut the claws of the lion, will not feel himself quite secure, until he has also drawn his teeth Of all the passions, jealousy is that which exacts the hardest service, and pays the bitterest wages. Its service is-to watch the success of our enemy; ecounting. its wages---to be sure of it. The Bible.

There is but one pursuit in life which it is in the nower of all to follow, and of all to attain. It is It is said that in 1804, according to the best estimate that can be obtained, there were in existence ubject to no disappointments, since he that peronly about 4,000,000 copies of the Bible. Now everes, makes every difficulty an advancement and every contest a victory; and this is the pursuit there are more than 30,000,000. In 1804, the Bible of virtue. Sincerely to aspire after virtue, is to had only been published in 48 or 49 languages; in is to receive them. Those that seek her early, will find her before it is late; her reward also is 1817, it existed in tongues spoken by 600,000,000, thinking they would show a specimen of their wit, with her, and she will come quickly. For the breast of a good man is a little heaven commen- by the British and Foreign Bible Societies alone- kee deliberately cut off three pigs feet, and handed cing on earth; where the Deity sits enthroned with 400,000 more than in any year before, except in them to the man. Pat not at first understanding unrivalled influence, every safety from danger, re- 1845. ource from sterility, and subjugated passion, "like the wind and storm, fulfilling his word."

A Beautiful Legend.

We find in a late sermon of Theodore Parker, spirits, no compliance with the intemperate mirth of others, ever betray you into profane sallies .the following story. The subject of the discourse Besides the guilt thereby incurred, nothing gives a s "rest:"

more odious appearance of petulence to youth, than and Milton Train was starting on its way from the "They tell a story that one day Rabbi Judal and his brethren, the seven pillars of Wisdom, sat the reflection of treating religion with levity. Instead Old Colony Depot, a female having a child of two of being an evidence of superior understanding, it in the Court of the Temple, on feast day disputing about rest. One said that it was to have attained discovers a pert and shallow mind, which, vain the platform of the depot on to the cars, and as is of the first smattering of knowledge, presumes to usual with inexperienced persons in such cases, she sufficient wealth, yet without sin. The second, make light of what the rest of mankind revere. that it was fame and praise of all men. The third, At the same time you are not to imagine that the cars. With great presence of mind a young that it was the possession of power, to rule the when exhorted to be religious, you are called man, as we understand by the name of Clarence state. The fourth, that it consisted only in a happy upon to be more formal and solemn in your man- A. Dorr, of Dorchester, immediately sprung to her home. The fifth, that it must be in the old age o ners than others of the same years, or to erect assistance and, seizing her by the hair, sustained one who is rich, powerful, famous, surrounded by yourselves into supercilious reprovers of those her in that position until her shricks and the shouts children and children's children. The sixth, said around. The spirit of true religion breathes gen- of the passengers reached the ear of the engineer, that all that were vain unless a man keep all the tleness and kindness. It is social, kind, cheerful and he stopped the train-at a fortunate moment, ritual law of Moses. And Rabbi Judah, the vene -removed from the gloom and illiberal superstition | it would seem, as but a second previous, the woman's rable, the tallest of the brothers, said: "Ye have which clouds the brow, sharpens the temper, dejects hair gave way leaving masses of it in the young spoken wisely, but one thing more is necessary the spirit, and teaches men to fit themselves for man's hands. The child fortunately rolled into the He only can find rest, who to all these things add another world, by neglecting the concerns of this. eth this, that he keepeth the tradition of the elders.' Let your religion, on the contrary, connect prepa-"There sat in the Court a fair-haired boy, play ng with his lilies in his lap, and hearing the talk, tration for Heaven with an honorable discharge of ropped them with astonishment from his hands the duties of active life. Of such religion, discover and looked up-that boy of twelve-and said, on every proper occasion that you are not ashamed

"Nay, nay, fathers, he only loveth rest, who loves but avoid making any unnecessary ostentation of i his brother as himself, and God with his whole before the world. heart and soul. He is greater than fame and wealth and power, happier than a happy home, happy without it, better than honored age, he is a come perfect."

doctors were astonished. They said, when Christ spectacles over her forehead the other day, she exometh shall he tell us greater things? And they claimed : "Well, there's a great talk about who hanked God, for they said, "The old men are not shall be President. Some say Cass, some say Tay thanked God, for they sain, and out nen are not shall be riestuent. Some say Cas, some say lay while say ray and while sain an an ecdote of a lawyer, who always wise, yet, God be praised that out of the lor, some say Van Buren, some say Old Rough and while growing suckling has His praise be. Ready, but I think that William Proviso will be charged his client among other items for "walking the out of the same. A. ARMSTRONG.

And lastly, to end my serme to offer with more understanding, the prayer from those who put their trust in him. The rag. your infancy, ' Give us this day our daily bread.' The old man ceased, and Sammy put on his become rich. Slow and easy wins the race.

"Fourthly : That no course of life can be depend ed upon as always prosperous. I am afraid the younger race of working men in America have a notion that nobody would go to ruin on this side of the water. Providence has greatly blessed us, but

'Fifthly: That you have not been thankful enough

"Sixthly: That you may be thankful our lot i to worse. We might have famine, or pestilear we have become presumptuous.

or war, tyranny, or all together.

God for his benefits in past time.

The Word "Dun."

Some erroneously suppose that it comes from the French word donnor, to give, implying a demand a blunder as to go the buker's for his dequence, should and warmly hugged, to wire out somewhere, escape but the true origin of this word, too frequently used conclude such a career, by coming to the House of conviction and justice, and run his face for such is from one John Dunn, a famous bailiff, or sheriff's loose sympathy as the world may have at its dispo- officer of the town of Lincoln; so extremely active sal for such as are deserving only of condemnation and dexterous was he at the management of his rough business, that it became a proverb, when a man refused or perhaps could not pay his debts, "Why don't you Durin him ?"-that is "why don't you send Dupp to arrest him ?" Hence it became f selling milk; instead of the neat, white, wooden a custom or proverb and is as old as the days of Henry the Seventh. But the word Dunn is not leasures hung upon it, and the rattling bell-cart, to merely confined to demanding payment with imconvey it from place to place with despatch, or an portunity, but to any other thing demanded in Personal Security.

"Will you do me a favor ?" says young George lar stand, where the transient patrons are supplied Brooks to his wealthy friend Simon Hanson. "What city. by milking it into the vessels in which they take it is it, George?" says Hanson. "I wish you to lend home. Besides a drove of cows, with the calves me a hundred pounds, sir," replies George. " Call all muzzled, running and bleating after them, there at my counting-house," rejoined Hanson. George is also a gang of goats and asses driven along that was not long in paying his respects. "What secupeople may suit themselves as to quality and price, rity can you give me, young gentleman ?" " My as also their different tastes-for which there is no own personal security, sir." "Very well; get in here," says Hanson, lifting up the lid of a large iron chest. "Get in there!" exclaimed George in astonishment : "what for ?" "Why that is the place where I always keep my securities."

A Yard of Pork.

Remarkable Rescue:

years of age in her arms attempted to jump from missed her footing and with the child fell between middle of the track and the train passed over it safely; and mother and child were taken into the cars, and proceeded on their way .- Boston Transcript.

was meant by the realities of life, answered, "Real estate, real money, and a real good dinner, none of which could be realized without real hard work."

ID- In Cork, the crier endeavored to disperse the crowd by exclaiming, "All ye blackguards that s'nt lawyers quit the coort !"

In a neighboring town, in which they were build gain her; and zealously to labor after her wages, 1848, it existed in 136. In 1804, it was accessible ing a railroad, a party of men, who were employed in languages spoken by 200,000,000 of men; in there, went to the store of a real live Yankee, and During the last year, 1,419,283 copies were issued one asked for a yard of pork, whereupon the Yan the joke, asked: "And sure, and is that what you would be after calling a yard of pork ?" Certainly replied the Yankee, coolly, "dont you know tha in this country three feet make a yard."

Oct 10 On Friday evening as the 61 o'clock Dorchester

Incorporated 1844. OFFICERS for 1847. President.—JAMES M° WURTRIE. Vice President.—JOSEPH SILL. Treasurer.—WILLIAM TODHUNTER.

Baird, John Notmun, Geo. R. Graham, George Keim, J. Scholefield. The Art-Union is established for the purpose extending a love for the fine arts thr United States, and to give encouragement to Ar-tists beyond that afforded by the patronage of individuals. Its promoters believe that these arts can never attain their due rank in this country (already so far advanced in many of the other elements c civilization) until adequate encouragement be give to the highest efforts of the Painter and Sculptor. For the accomplishment of this object, the Soci ety has adopted the following PLAN 1. Each subscriber of Five Dollars becomes :

Ars, and proceeded on their way.—Boston Transcript. REALLITIES OF LIFE.—A person being asked what was meant by the realities of life, answered, "Real state, real money, and a real good dinner, none of which could be realized without real hard work." hat purpose. Thus, for the sum of Five Dollars, every membe is sure of receiving a fine Engraving (worth alone the amount of his subscription) and the chance of obtaining a fine original Painting, to be SELECTED BY HIMSELF from any public exhibition in the United States.

A PROFESSIONAL CHARGE .-- A writer in the in the night, and thinking of his business," August 1.

BEITER BARGAINS than ever can be had at that unrivalled place for bargains, THE BEE HIVE STORE, North Queen Street, where they are just opening invoices of SPLENDID DRESS (600DS, which will be sold at very small profits. SILKS, SILKS, SILKS!

Oct 24

Rich Ispahan Satin, Chameleon, figured and plain Innures; Chameleon Satin de Chin; figured and Jain Chameleon Double Poslt de Soics, Gros Court House, where they are prepared to practice all the various branches of the Profession on the nost approved plan. For the information of any who may be suffering raines, and Gros de Rhines, 3-4, 4-4, 5-4 from Palatine defects, either Congenital or Acci-dental, we would remark that our art holds out the only means of relief. [sept 19-tf-34 brilliant boiled Silks for dresses, &c., &c., MERINOES, MERINOES.

Lupin's Superior French Colors. MERINOES for Ladies Cherry, Blue, Crimson Maroon, Modes, Brown Dreases, &c. New style Mous de Laines and Cachmeres, Jasp Cachmeres, a new article for Dresses and Sacks Plain Mous de Laine from 124 cts. upward.

THE Columbia Bank and Bridge Company intend to make application to the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the next session thereot, for the renewal, extension and continuance SHAWLS! SHAWLS!! SHAWLS!!! of the Banking, discounting and other privileges they possess under existing laws. The Company to be continued by the name, style and title of the The most complete and largest assortment low be seen at prices astonishingly low. Super extra size French Wool Long Shawls. Rob Roy Wool Plaid Long Shawls.

Columbia Bank & Bridge Company, in the borough of Coulmbia, in the county of Lancaster, and State of Pennsylvania. The Richest designs Terkerri Shawls. French Cashmere, Thybet, &c. Modes and Black Thybet. Silk Fringes. By order of the Board, SAMUEL SHOCH, Cashier. I Case splendid Parametres and Merin Columbia, July 1, 1848. nd 25 cents. 1 Case rich California Plaids, all wool filling ; only

121 cts. These goods cannot be equalled DIDDONS DIDDONS

Superb styles of Fall and Winter Bonnet Rib Magnificent styles for waist and neck Velvet Rib -plain and shaded. Merino Scarfs for ladies merfine fall shades Kid Gloves. Embroid and plain Silk Gloves. Hosiery very cheap, FRENCH WOOL CLOTHS.—The newest article for Ladies Fall Sacks, AT THE BEE HIVE, North Queen st. CALICOES. Two Cases of the best dark prints ever sold ast Colors. Only 61 cts.

Muslins and Flannels cheaper than ever AT THE BEE HIVE. Al THE BEE HIVE. Rich Patterns dark French Ginghams, 12; cents. Woolen Plaids for Children's wear. A cheap lot of Satinetts and Cassimeres. 1 Case good un-bable Course Place & Course of an end of the Course pleached Cotton Flannels, only 61 worth 10 cts. Dry Goods of every description, lower in price and better in style than can be bought in this city ow going rapidly CHAS. E. WENTZ & BRO.

Bee Hive, North Queen s Just received 1 case of new styles black ringes and Gimps; new styles Silk Buttons f AT THE BEE HIVE, North Queen st.

CLOTHS! CLOTHS! CLOTHS! t opening 10 pieces superior French Fabrics. AT THE BEE HIVE, North Queen st. GOOD PLAID SILKS for Dresses, only 371 cts. t the Bee Hive, North Queen Street, CHAS. E. WENTZ & BRO.

The Art-Union of Philadelphia.

Treasurer.-WILLIAM TODHUNTER. Corresponding Secretary.-JAS. S. WALLACE. Recording Secretary.-THOS. F. ADAMS. MANAGERS.-Rev. Henry J. Morton, D. D., Rev. William H. Furness, D. D., Charles Toppan, John Towne, Hon. William D. Kelley, John Sar-tain, H. B. Wallace, Charles Macalister, Henry C.

THE undersigned having been appointed Auditor by the Orphans' Court of Lancaster county, to distribute the assets remaining in the hands of El Rutter and John F. Lefever, administrators of Rutter and John F. Letever, administrators of Adam Miller, late of Paradise township, in said county, deceased, to and among the parties entitled to the same, hereby gives notice, that he will attend for the purpose of his appointment, at his office, in the city of Lancaster, at 2 o'clock P. M., on Friday, e 10th day of November next, when and when uel Ho ingsworth, M G RADUATES of the Baltimore College of Den-tal Surgery, beg leave to announce to the citizens of Lancaster, and public generally, that N. D. M. D. Spring Garden-J. H. Haskell, M. D., W. Boyd, M. D. the surgery, beg leave to annohice to the citizens of Lancaster, and public generally, that they have entered into partnership in the practice of DENTAL SURGERY, and will hereafter occupied by Dr. Waylan, directly over Messrs. Sprecher and Rohrer's Hardware Store, in East King street, 5 doors from the Court Hore, where the are prepared to practice.

For further particulars call at the Painting Roo 28-tf.

. D. Southwark—W. Klapp, M. D. Germantown—Theodore Ashméad, M. D TREASURER-Francis W. Rawle. H. G. TUCKET.

GEO. A. MILLER, Agent, for Lancaster, Pa. July 25 26 - 1 v

Estate of Robert Jenkins, dec'd. ETTERS of administration having been granted to the undersigned on the Estate of Robert Jenkins, late of Carnarvon township, Lancaster county, deceased—all persons indepted to said Estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having accounts, to present them, duly uthenticated.

A. E. ROBERTS, Earl, JAMES M'KAA, Cærnarvon. October 10. 6t-37

ADAMS & Co.'s EXPRESS.

For Lancaster, Harrisburg, Carlisle, Phila., &c. THE undersigned, having made arrangements with the Eagle Line for special accommode with the Eagle Line for special accommoda-tions, are prepared to forward to and from Phila-delphia, daily, Parcels, Packages, Single Cases of Goods, &c. Articles for Columbia, York, Carlisle, and Chambersburg, will be forwarded from Lan-caster and Harrisburg by the regular conveyances. Persons residing in the integrior towns, which are off the main routes, can obtain packages from Philadelphia, by directing them to the care of some one in any of the above named places. Packages for the Eastern, Western and Southern Cities, will be forwarded from the Philadelphia Office with NOTICE is hereby given, that Citizens of Lancas-ter county intend to make application to the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it the next session thereof, for the incorporation of a Company, under the name and style, or intended ame and style of the Columbia Savings Institution. designed as an office of Discount and Deposit, with signed as an once of Discourt and Deposit, and capital not exceeding One Hundred Thousand ollars, and to be located in the borough of Co-mbia, Lancaster county Pa. be forwarded from the Philadelphia Office with great despatch and moderate terms.

The undersigned will give particular attention to filling orders forwarded to them by mail, postage paid. When they are for Goods to be sent by paid. When they are for Goods to be sent of Express, no commission will be charged. OFFICES.--Philadelphia, ADAMS & Co., No. 80 Chesnut Street: Lancaster, G. Ilill, North Queen Street; Harrisburg, D. Robison, Market Street. E. S. SANFORD, S. M. SHOEMAKER, PROPRIETORS.

Philadelphia Oct 17 '48

SHEBGT SCHOOL.

SITUATED in Mountjoy township, on the public road leading from Manheim to Colebrook fur O road leading from Manneim to Colebrook fur-nace, adjoining land of Henry Gipford, H. Ginter, Abraham Gibble and John Snyder, containing 90 acres and 80 perches; 10 acres thereof is good timber land. The improvements are a ONE AND A HALF STORY WEATHERBOARDED LOG HE subscriber informs the citizens of Lancaster and vicinity, that he has re-opened the Select hool, formerly taught by the Rev. G. M. Clawges. He occupies the spacious and commodious hall, in Mr. Kramph's large corner edifice, in which the Medical Society hold their meetings. The bran-DWELLING HOUSE, a log barn, with a waggon shed thereto attached, and other necessary outches he professes to teach are—Realing, Penman-ship, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, History, Composition, &c. The subscriber will use every uildings, a spring-house over a never failing spring of water, a first rate orchard of choice fruit trees. f water, a first rate orchara of choice have a set bout 6 acres first rate meadow. The property is divided into nine fields and under Composition; &c. The subscriber will use every means in his power to advance his pupils in their studies, and bring out their minds and capacities to the best advantage; and while he attempts that, he will at the same time spare no pains to instil into their youthful minds the strictest Worallity, which he considers all important. He hopes, therefore, that he will be patronised, assuch a school is much needed. good fences. Persons wishing to view the same will please to call on either of the subscribers ssion and a good title will be given on the la day of April, 1849. THOMAS MASTERSON, sen.

needed. TERMS:

Those who cannot read $3 per quarter: hose who cannot read -hose who read and cipher Those who study Geography and - 86

Grammar Revid WILLIAM URIE, Lancaster. G. M. CLAWCES, Marietta. Dr. ROBERT H. JONES, Bainbridge.

Dr. ROBERT H. SUSAL, " FREDERICK HIPPLE, Esq., " R. T. HARMAN. sept 26

Cheap Theological Books. T JUDD & MURRAY'S Cheap Book Store opposite the Post Office, North Queen Street, Lancaster. Dwight's Theology, Comprehensive Commentary, Henry's Commentary, Clark's Commentary, Barn 2 notes as far as published, Hall's Works, Newton's notes as far as published, Hall's Works, Newton's Works, Origin and History of Missions, Startavantz Preacher's Manual, Milner's Church History, Pri-deaur's Connections, Jay's Works, McChaynovs Works, Hoyker's Complete Works, Bridger on Proverbs, Sketches of 500 Sermons, Horn's Intro-duction, French on the Parables, Cudworth's Intel-lectual System of the Universe, Murdock's Mosh-eim's Ecclesiastical History, Ladie's Wreath for November received, a splendid, magazine-§1 per year; Ladie's Book for November; Graham's Mag-azine for November.

ear; Laure or November. Sunday School Books, together with a great va-nety of other valuable Books at very low prices. 2t-40.

OHN L. KEFFER has commenced the abo UNIUS B. KAUFFMAN, Attorney at Law, Offers his professional services to the public.-Office in Longenecker's building, Centre Spuare, next door to Kendig's Hotel. business, in A. N. Brenneman's Building, Cen-e Square, Lancaster, and will do the best he can, strict attention to business and moderate charges. April 13, 1847. [May 1848.-15.

elected after all, though he is not a General."

Who will be Elected ?

An old lady has been sadly puzzled about the Reverence for Religion.

Impress your mind with a reverence for all that is sacred. Let no wantonness of youthful