HEAR
A Southern SLAVE-HOLDER!

JOHN MCPHERSON BERRIEN, of Georgia, is known as one of the leading Whigs of the South. In reply to an invitation to attend a Barbecue recently given in that State, he sent a letter from which we take the following extract:

"I ask you to make known to our fellow-citizens who will be assembled on the 30th instant, the reason why I am not with them, not so much as to explain my absence, for that is comparatively unimportant, as to enable me through the proper organs of the meeting to say to them how deeply I feel it to be, that we should work with "might and main" in the present canvass—that I consider it as the most important Presidential election, ESPECIALLY TO SOUTHERN MEN, which has occurred since the foundation of the Government.

WE have great and important interests at stake—if WE fail to sustain them now, WE may be forced too soon to decide whether WE will remain in the Union at the mercy of a band of fanatics or political jugglers—or reluctantly retire from it for the preservation of our domestic institutions, and all our rights as freemen. If WE are united, WE can sustain them—if WE divide on the old party issues, WE must be victims.

With a heart devoted to their interests on this great question, (Wilmot Proviso) and without respect to party, I implore my fellow-citizens of Georgia, Whig or Democrat, to forget for a time their party divisions—to know each other only AS SOUTHERN MEN—to act upon the truism uttered by Mr. Calhoun, that on the vital question—the preservation of our domestic institutions, the Southern man who is farther from us, is nearer us than any Northern man can be"—that Gen. TAYLOR IS IDENTIFIED WITH US IN FEELING AND INTEREST—was born in a slaveholding State—is himself a slaveholder—that his slave property constitutes the means of support to himself and family—that HE CANNOT DESERT US, without sacrificing his interest, his principles, the habits and feelings of his life—and that WITH HIM, THEREFORE, OUR INSTITUTIONS WILL BE SAFE. I beseech them, therefore, from the love which they bear to our noble State, to rally under the banner of Zachary Taylor, and with one united voice to send him by acclamation to the Executive chair.

Respectfully, your fellow-citizen,
J. MCPHERSON BERRIEN.

MR. J. H. CHRISTY.

There, reader, you have the sentiments of a great Southern Whig, the opinion of a leading Southern Politician and slavery extension advocate, as to Gen. Taylor's views, feelings and position on the question of slavery extension. Who is most likely to be correct, Mr. Berrien, or Gov. Johnston and other stump speakers of this region, who are trying to induce you to believe, against all evidence, that Gen. Taylor is deserving of the support of, and may be trusted by, anti-slavery voters?

For the Intelligencer.

Meteorological Register for Oct.

The month of October, this year, was remarkable for the number of cloudy days, there having been scarcely five clear days during the whole of it. It opened with rain; tho' the quantity which fell during the night was not very great, it being equal to but 1¼ inches. The prevailing winds were N. W. and S. W.

The nights of the 11th, 21st, and 22d were the coldest; the thermometer having stood during each of these at 35 deg. The warmest days were the 1st and 17th, when the thermometer at 12 o'clock stood at 73 deg.

The monthly mean of the thermometrical observations at 12 o'clock was 60⅔ deg.

The barometer was highest on the 9th, at 7h. A. M., viz: 30.08 inches. The monthly mean of the barometer at noon was 29.714 inches.

Besides the above remarks, it may be added; there was a thunder-storm on the 17th, and an Aurora Borealis on the 29th. X.

From the Clarin Democrat.

Will Clarion do Better?

It is almost unfair to ask the Democracy of Clarion county to "do better." She so nobly came up to her thousand lacking only one vote for each district, that it would seem well nigh imposing upon the people to crave more, but this late glorious result seems to have enkindled afresh the fire of ambition in each Democratic bosom, and we have good reason to believe that our estimate of 1400 majority! will yet be reached.

As the federal vote was nearly all polled and some 8 or 900 of the Democrats failed, we may expect a larger majority than ever polled in this county.

His First Vote.

Gen. Taylor has got to be sixty years of age, and never yet voted. He now casts his first and maiden vote—but if he is as honest and conscientious as the whigs say he is, we think he should vote for CASS and BUTLER! The old General, certainly, has too much modesty to vote for himself. Perhaps, as he is said to be in favor of the Wilmot Proviso, he may vote for VAN BUREN!

☞ They say Colt, who killed Adams in New York, and committed suicide a few hours before the time fixed for his execution, is now living in Paris. Where's Morgan?

Death of Gen. S. W. Kearney.

Gen. STEPHEN W. KEARNEY, the conqueror of New Mexico and California, is now no more. His disease has had a fatal termination, as was feared, and he died on Wednesday, as is announced through the telegraph from St. Louis. Of all the officers in the army, none has rendered more service to his country. He entered it in 1812, was at the famous battle of Queenstown, and from the rank of Lieut. rose to that of a Brigadier General. But the most remarkable service that he performed, was that in New Mexico and California, the former of which, by the celerity of his movements and the excellence of his plans, he entered, and received the complete submission of the inhabitants without a single battle, and the latter, joined with the naval forces under Stockton, he conquered after several hard fought and successful battles. His march from Santa Fe to California was one of the most daring acts that heroism could undertake. With only a few followers, between twenty and thirty, he had several engagements with an enemy greatly superior in force, through all of whom he cut his way successfully, though severely wounded in one of the encounters. He was a brave and chivalric officer, was prudent as heroic, and the army and his country lose one of its most gallant spirits in his death. Congress, notwithstanding the opposition made in a high quarter in the Senate, did an act of justice when it confirmed his nomination to his present rank. Gen. Kearney was born in Newark, New Jersey, about the year 1793, and was thus in his 55th year at the time of his death.

From the Pennsylvanian.

The Coon Holed at Last.

In Mr. HALLETT's great speech at Kensington last evening, he drew a strong and startling comparison between the contradictory positions assumed by General TAYLOR upon the question of the Wilmot Proviso. The following statement, made by that gentleman to the meeting, was heard with much attention, and created a very strong feeling, especially when it was announced that Gen. TAYLOR had assumed a directly different position upon the same question. The disclosure here made may be implicitly relied upon. Both Mr. LATHROP and Mr. BATES are distinguished men in Massachusetts, and their evidence cannot be impeached. So also with Dr. PANNILL, who certifies on the slavery side of the question. He is a Taylor electon in Virginia, and is much respected by his fellow-citizens.

First, for the Proviso or Free Soil side of the question:

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2, 1848.

I have a letter from Wells Lathrop, Esq., of Springfield, Mass., one of our most respectable citizens, whose veracity is unquestionable, in which he says, "that some four or six weeks since, Hon. Wm. G. Bates, a very distinguished Whig leader in Massachusetts, exhibited to him a letter as from General Taylor, in which he, Gen. Taylor, said that he would not veto the Wilmot Proviso, and he added that he would not allow it to be published."

This is the letter referred to by Truman Smith and the Washington Union. You may rely on this.

Yours respectfully,
B. F. HALLETT.

Now for the Southern or Slavery side of the question:

TO "A DEMOCRAT" OF CULPEPER.

SIR:—Your communication, addressed to me, and published in the Richmond Enquirer of the 26th inst., requesting the publication of a letter in my possession, from Gen. Taylor, is so respectful and complimental, that I cannot suffer it to pass unnoticed.

If I had an assurance that you, my friends of the Enquirer, and other Democrats, would be made good Taylor men by the publication of this letter, then there would be a strong inducement for me to yield to your polite request; but I feel confident that, though the views expressed in this letter might be in accordance with yours, in relation to the subject treated of, (the Wilmot Proviso,) yet your political hostility to the brave old man would be unabated. You will, therefore, excuse me for not complying with your request, inasmuch, too, as I stated to Gen. Taylor that I did not desire a reply from him for newspaper circulation.

Very respectfully, your ob'dt serv't.
DAVID PANNILL.

Orange county, Sept. 28th.

To this disclosure we beg to add the notorious fact that General Taylor's own friends, in a letter now before us, take the boldest ground that he is hostile to the Wilmot Proviso. They state this fact in the most pointed and emphatic manner. This letter may be seen at our office, or by any one who may call upon the editor of this journal.

Here, then, is the prediction verified, that Gen. Taylor would take ground in favor of the Wilmot Proviso to cheat the North, as he had formerly taken ground against it to secure the South. The whole is now placed beyond all controversy or doubt.

We leave the intelligent voter to read and reflect upon this humiliating disclosure at his own leisure.

Counting too Fast!

The Whig State Central Committee were so elated with their supposed success that they ran off to Philadelphia three days after the election, and issued an address containing the following:

"The returns already received, though not official, are sufficiently reliable to warrant us in announcing the election of a Whig Governor, of a Whig Canal Commissioner, of a Whig majority of the Congressional delegation, and of a decided Whig majority in the lower branch of the Legislature, with the necessary consequence of a Whig United States Senator, and of a Whig Treasurer of the State."

This was the Whig boast immediately after the election. But mark the result. When the official returns come in "the Whig Canal Commissioner" is beaten 2,700; the Whig majority in the Congressional delegation is reduced just two members, and the "decided Whig majority in the lower branch of the Legislature" is just exactly nothing, being fifty Democrats to fifty Whigs, and the Whig Governor, if elected at all, is elected by a Millerstown vote in Schuylkill county, which nobody either there or elsewhere can account for.

Jefferson Davis for Cass!

The Mississippi papers announce that Col. JEFFERSON DAVIS of that State, the SON-IN-LAW OF GEN. TAYLOR, is addressing the people of that State in favor of Cass and Butler. The personal relations of Col. Davis towards Gen. Taylor are delicate and peculiar, but he is a devoted Democrat, and prefers to serve his country before his Freundschaft. With such a man as Jefferson Davis in the canvass, Mississippi is safe for Cass and Butler by thousands.

Huzza for Texas!

A letter from an intelligent citizen of Austin, the Capital of Texas, estimates the vote for President as follows:

For CASS AND BUTLER,	19,600
" Taylor and Fillmore,	3,000
Democratic majority	16.000

Is there another State in the Union that can equal that? It beats Old Berks.

South Carolina---all right!

The Charleston Mercury of a recent date, speaking of the extravagant claims of the whig press in regard to the vote of that State, says: "We think we speak within bounds when we express the opinion, that of the 168 members of the State Legislature not more than 30 will vote for the TAYLOR Electoral ticket, if indeed such a ticket is voted at all."

☞ The St. Louis Union says—the infant son of Col. FREMONT died on the steamer Martha, on the 6th inst. Mrs. FREMONT accompanied her husband to the frontier, and to the sorrow at parting with him for two years, is added the poignant grief of the death of their only son.

☞ Rice Garland, ex-Judge of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, and ex-member of Congress, who disappeared from New Orleans some years ago, while under arrest, is practising law in Freeport, Texas, opposite Matamoras.

PRICE OF A HUSBAND.—Mary Walker recovered, last week, $3,500 of the Buffalo and Niagara Falls railroad company, for the death of her husband, caused by upsetting of the cars.

This is the last no. of the Intelligencer we shall send to those who have subscribed only for the campaign. If there be any, who are willing to be continued as permanent subscribers, we trust they will notify us of the fact.

Dr. Franklin's Opinion of Luck.

THE astonishing success of JOS. GORMELY, in the CLOTHING BUSINESS, excites the surprise of some and the envy and jealousy of others. His unparalleled success some attribute to one cause, and some to another. And some, more envious than the rest, attribute it to any cause that best suits their purposes, no matter how unjust, or how foul the misrepresentations. Again, there is another class more easily satisfied, and content themselves by saying—"Well, it is all luck—better to be born lucky than rich. Born under a lucky planet," &c, "Pshaw says Dr. Franklin, of luck, all the luck I know of is in proper management."

Precisely so, Dr., and just the operating cause in the extensive business done at the great LANCASTER HALL OF FASHIONS. The only secret in this large business, and the only reason that it of large, is because he is careful in the selection is good materials, and has all his goods well made—and then the fit of his garments cannot be surpassed; and are sold at prices that defy competition. This is the cause of his astonishing success at the great LANCASTER HALL OF FASHIONS, N. Queen St., Lancaster; next to J. Gish & Co.'s Book Store and the National House. [May 9, '48.-tf-15.

Notice to Distillers,

AND ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

WHEREAS, I, Jacob Weitzel, of the city of Lancaster, coppersmith, have received by letters Patent, recorded in the Patent office in the city of Washington, certain useful improvements in the construction of Stills, which improvements consist of an additional tub, called a dead-drawing tub, which is placed partly above the still, in which tub the doubler is inclosed, the beer which is pumped into the upper tub passes down by a plug pipe into the doubling tub, where it is brought to a boiling state before it is let into the still, which pipe is opened or stopped when requisite by means of a plug made of wood, copper, or any other material.

What I claim as my improvements are the above described doubling tub and the plug by which the beer passes from one tub to the other, or from the tub into the still.

Having received information, amounting to proof, that my patent for the above described improvements has been violated by several distillers in this county and in various other places, I hereby give notice, that unless those persons who have made use of my invention, or have it now in use, without being authorized by me, come forward and make full reparation for having infringed my patent right, on or before the first day of March next, suit will be instituted against all and every such person or persons.

JACOB WEITZEL.

Stolen Notes of the Bank of Chester County.

THIS Bank has now redeemed nearly all its issues that were in circulation at the time of the robbery of the President, in December last. It has, at a large expense, advertised the robbery in all the cities of the Union. It has also given widely extended notice of the issue of new notes, and that none of a date prior to 1848, have been circulated by the Bank since the robbery. It has reason to believe that attempts are making to circulate some of the stolen notes; therefore in order further to guard the Bank against wrong, it now gives notice that none of the old issues of a date prior to the year 1848, will be redeemed, unless upon satisfactory evidence that they are honestly held, with information when, where, how and of whom they were obtained, and that the holders believe they are not a part of the stolen money. This evidence and information to be accompanied with proper affidavits of the facts. Had the public refused to receive the old issues, after notice of the robbery, those in whose hands they then were, could readily have satisfied the Bank they were not a part of the money stolen from the President, and the Bank would long since have been able to detect the robbers, and all those who were concerned in passing the stolen notes, and neither the community nor the Bank would have suffered loss. It is hoped the public will still assist in tracing all those notes yet in circulation. Neither Banks or Brokers will receive them.

By order of the Directors,
DAVID TOWNSEND, Cashier.
