The advantages to be derived from having a large stock to select from, ought certainly to be apparent to every one; only two need be mentioned:

1st. The variety to please the taste.

2d. The advantage of purchasing at the lowest prices; for it is certainly evident to every thinking mind, that the larger the business done, the smaller the profit required. It is so in every branch of trade. He treats natural teeth with a view to their preservation and beauty, with the same care and precision which characterized his preceptor and predecessor, and for which he was so much beloved as a professional man. As a student of Dr. Van Patten's he is perfectly familiar with his mode of treating diseased teeth for which he was unsurpassed. He inserts entire sets of artificial teeth for both upper and lower jaw, with or without artificial gums, and partial sets or single teeth, warranted to be comfortable, useful, and in overy respect satisfactory to the wearer.

He also inserts full or partial sets on the principle of atmospheric pressure.
