The Lancaster Intelligencer.

"THAT COUNTRY IS THE MOST PROSPEROUS, WHERE LABOR COMMANDS THE GREATEST REWARD."-BUCHANAN.

VOL. XLIX.

CITY OF LANCASTER, TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 16, 1849.

At the Lancaster County Oak Hall Clothing Store, North-east corner of North Queen and Orange Sts., Lanc HAVING just returned from Philadelphia, is enbled to offer to his numerous customers and other who may favor him with a call, the cheapest and best assortment of Fashionable and Plain READY-MADE CLOTHING, in the city of Lancaster.

This establishment having attained a celebrity for the cheapness and great variety of goods kept there, (which is unparalelled in the history of Lancaster,) it shall be the untiring endeavor of F. J. Kramph to continue its good name; and in doing so, the old adages will be verified of "Quick Soles and Small Profits," and "The Nimble Sizpence is better than the Slow Shilling."

F. J. Kramph has also a well selected assortment of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, CASINETTS, VESTING, &c., to accommodate those who prefer being measured, all of which together with his good supply of Shirts, Drawers, Stockings, Gloves, Suspenders, &c., &c., make up the very best good supply of Shirts, Drawers, Stockings, Gloves, Suspenders, &c., &c., make wariety of Fall and Winter Goods, he has ever had the pleasure of offering to the public

The cool winds of Autuma around us are dancing,
The blasts of December are fast drawing near;
Whilst snow, hall and sleet are in column advancing,
And son will Old Winter's dread army he here.

His Cacke and his Clocks, are substantial and pretty
His Sacke and his Paramore are insufacions and work. Whilst snow, hall and sheet are in column advancing,
And soon will Old Winter's dread army be here.

His Coats and his Cloaks, are substantial and pretty
His Sacks and his Bangups are landsome and wa
His Pants and his Vests et the best in the city,
For richness of pattern and beauty of form. Nore,
With a warm winter suit you may fearlessly meet him.
The loud his winds whistle, and dismal they rear.
Kramph's Clothing is made for both service and beauty
His fabrics are fine, and his prices are low,
Oct 17

Then pick up your purse with a few dollars in it,
And visit the Lancaster County Oak Hall,
Where Kramph's Clothing is made for both service and beauty
His fabrics are fine, and his prices are low,

3m -3

"FOR THE GOOD OF THE PEOPLE!"

USI RECEIVED at J. Offices Obstached and next for the sale of Genuine Popular Meaternes.

Store immediately opposite Mrs. Kauffman's Hotel, and next door to the Examiner's Herald Office.
North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa., a full supply of the following genuine and celebrated Family Medicines. Or Morchants and all country dealers (in genuine medicines) supplied at the lowest terms.

Wistar's celebrated Balsam of Wild Cherry. Bull's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla. Swaim's well known Panacea. Townsend's Sarsaparilla. Atwood's Dyspeptic Bitters. Confort's composition Powder—spiced Bit. No.6. Sherman's All-Healing Baisam. Wright's Indian Vogetable Pills. Brandreth's Universal Beckwith's Anti-Dyspeptic Dr. Dyott's Anti-Bilious Grafenberg Vegetable
Dr. Rush's Infallible Health r. Steeling's Vegetable 121 cent Pills. r. Wistar's Sarsaparilla and Tar Clickner's Sugar Coated Worsdell's Restorative Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla Blood

Dr. Wistar's Vegetable Dr. Soule's Sovereign Balm Hibbard's Family Hibbard's Family
Stainburn's Vegetable Extract
M'Allister's All-Healing Ointment and Hair Oil.
Mrs. M. C. Maxwell's Indian Extract for Rheumam and Pains, a certain cure.
Dr. Jayne's American Hair Dye. Dr. Jayne's American Hair Oil. Detterer's Magic Hair Oil. Indian Cholagogue for Fever and Ague. Wheeler's Teaberry Tooth Wash. llebasi's Celebrated Medicines. Stainburns Medicated Toilet Soap. Dr. Davis' Wild Cherry and Tar Syrup.

Dr. Cullen's Indian Vegetable Panacea. Steven's pure Wine of Tar for coughs, colds and consumptions.

Hyena Tooth Ache Drops.

Dr. Jayne's Expectorant and other preparations.

Dr. Swayne's Syrup of Wild Cherry.

Dr. Steeling's Pulmonary Syrup.

Louden's Indian Expectorant and Hair Tonic.

Dr. Sherman's Poor Man's Strengthening Plasters

Hauck's Vegetable Panacea. Barnes' Pile Lotion, a certain cure. Davis' Horse Linament

OPODELDOC, CASTOR OIL, SWEET OIL, &c.

at the Lowest Prices.

307 Pamphlets, Hand-Bills, and copies of the Oracle of Health, to be had gratis by applying at J. GISH'S GENERAL AGENCY, opposite Kaufiman's Hotel, North Queen Street, Lancaster.

tf-42

Satinets.

JUST RECEIVED and now opening an extensive assortment of Satinets, comprising every price and color of most desirable styles, at the GRIEL & GILBERT.

Holiday Presents.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY.

OLD LEVER WATCHES, 18 carat Cases, full jewelled, from $30 to $100. Silver Levers, from $15 to $30. Lepinos, Quartiers and all other watches at the lowest prices. Jewelry, Silver Ware, Spectacles, Fancy Goods, Brittania Ware, Ed., low for cash. Call and see—no charge for looking. The Repairing of all kinds attended to.

G. M. ZAHM,

BONNETS, FEATHERS, FLOWERS, Hard No. 24PS, BONNET CAPS, SATINS, SILKS, and in the latest and most fashionable styles. Feeling thankful for past favors she would respectfully solicit the continuance of so belonging to MILLINERY, and is prepared to alter, whiten, press, and trim Straw Hats select, and in her very reduced prices she will be able to please all who may favor her with a call.

April 4-tf-10.

Centre Square, Lancaster. Tuition in the German and Hebrew Languages. ACOB EHRLICH respectfully informs the citi a zens of Lancaster, that he is prepared to give b struction as Teacher of the German and Hebrew Languages, and will be happy to receive a class. By long and practical experience in this profession, both in Europe and America, he feels competent, in a short time and by the simplest methods, to impart an accurate knowledge and comprehension of these two useful and important languages.

Applicants will please call at the Book Store o J. GISH & Co., (Diller's,) city of Lancaster.

Dec 5, '48

Westings. PANCY Cachmere, new and beautiful styles.—
Plain and Fancy Velvets, Plain and Fancy Satins, together with a great variety at low prices in plain and fancy styles, now opening at the New York Store.

CRIEL & GILBERT. GRIEL & GILBERT.

WILLIAM W. BROWN, Attorney at Law, tenders his professional services to the public. Office in West King street, a few doors west of the Lamb Tavern and next door to Col. D. W. Patter-

Heyl's Embrocation for Horses.

THIS most valuable Embrocation will cure Sprains, Bruises, Cuts, Galls, Swellings and all other complaints, which require an external remedy. It gives immediate relief in the Scratches and the disease incident to horses of white feet and noses, produced by St. John's Wort. It is also highly useful in relaxing John's Wort. It is also highly useful in relaxing suffness of the tendons and joints, and produces beneficial effects in cracked heels brought on by beneficial effects in cracked heels brought on by high feeding, splints and sprains. This Embroca-tion is highly recommended to Farmers; Farriers, Keepers of Livery Stables, and private gentlemen owning horses, and should be constantly kept in the owning norses, and should be constantly kept in the stable. The genuine article is prepared only by W. MARSHALL, No. 302 Race Street, below 9th,

DR. HUNTER will forfeit $50, it failnig

50 to cure any case of Secret Disease that may come under his care, no matter how long standing or afflicting. Either Sex are invited to his private or afflicting. Either Sex are invited to an invited to a rooms, No. 38 North Seventh Street, without fear rooms, No. 38 North Seventh Seve rooms, No. 38 North seventh street, without car of interruption by other patients, as thousands are cured yearly by his practical experience and great remedies. Strangers and others who have been unfortunate in the selection of a Physician, are solicited to call on the Doctor. His RED DROP and is Specific act like magic in discases of this class.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, hap-piness, and in many cases their lives in the hands of Physicians ignorant of this class of maladics. It of Physicians ignorant of this class of maianes. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the-human family are subject to. Every respectable Physician has his particular branch, in which he is more successful than his brother professors, and, therefore, to that he devotes more of his time and study. Dr. HUNTER is known to be the most successful practitioner in the United States in diseases of the sexual organs. YEARS OF PRACTICE exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of gleet, stricture, effects of solitary habits, ulcers upon the body, throat nose or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercuria rheumatism, gravel, irregularities, climate, or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer spe dy relief to all who may place themselves unde his care.

Office open during the week from 7 A. M. unti
9 P. M. On Sundays the office will close at 2 P. M Dec 12 '48

French Nipple Shields. OTHERS who are afflicted with excoriated or sore Nipples can have their suffering alle-i by purchasing and applying the above highly l and cheap article. Also Tops or Caps for viated by purchasing active. Also Tops of Capuseful and cheap article. Also Tops of Capuseful and Cheap article. Also Tops of Capuseful and Ca

Drug and Chemical store, No. 8, North Queen S Dec 12 248 Longenecker & Co.,

AVE just received a large assortment of GINGHAMS, plain and plaid which they wilt sell very low. Also, LINEN LUSTRES, Lawnsl &c. Black BEREGE SHAWLS, rich colored ligh, Fabrics, do. Superior black and Blue Black Summer BOMBAZINES. [May 9, '48-tf-15.

To Shoe Makers. THE subscriber has a first-rate workman from Philadelphia, who makes and repairs all kinds of Shoe Makers Tools, which will be done at the lowest prices, and warranted to work well.

dec 22-47

H. C. LOCK

H. C. LOCHER.

UST RECEIVED at J. GISH'S GENERAL AGENCY for the sale of Genuine Popular Medicines.

Euen's
Dr. J. H. Longenecker's Black Salve.
Graefenberg Health Bitters.
Green Mountain Ointment. Tousey's Master of Pain. Shenck's Pulmonic Syrup.
Roberts' Vegetable Embrocation.
Thomson's Tar and Wood Naptha.
Packets Pulmonic Syrup. Ritter's Tar and Wild Cherry Syrup Rowand's Tonic Mixture for Ague Hobensack's Worm Syrup. Fahnestock's-Vermifuge

Gay's Extract of Chanchalagua, a Californian plant of rare virtues.

Dr. Sherman's Orris Tooth Paste.

Dr. Wistar's Cherry Candy for coughs, &c.

With a number of other popular Medicines, (all of which are warranted fresh and genuine,) and sold

Fashionable Millinery. MRS. MARY P. RANNINGER would respect she fully inform her friends and the public, that she is going to continue her Millinery at her old stand, on the second floor of Kramph's Buildings, opposite the Post Office, where she will open on the 1st of November, a splendid assortment of goods

BONNETS, FEATHERS, FLOWERS,

She flatters herself, that her work, for neatness, taste and durability, is unsurpassed by any, having at all times the very best hands that can be pro-

She would therefore invite all to come and look perfectly delighted.

To Country Merchants. OUNTRY DEALERS and others can be supplied at the lowest city prices with fresh and

Ground Cinnamon, Ground Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Mustard,

Cayenne Pepper --ALSO--Pearl Ash, Sal Æratus, Saltpetre, Alum, British Lustre Madder, Copperas, Camphor, Castor Oil, Epsom Salts, Fric. Matches, Bottle Corks, acking, Spt. Turpentine, Span. Brown, Venetian Red and Yellow Ochre. For sale, together with every other article in the line, on the most accommodating terms by JOHN F. LONG, Druggist, Nov 28, 148

JOHN C. BAKER'S

COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

THIS article is employed with great success and by the most eminent physicians of this city, for the cure of the following diseases: Scrofula or King's Evil, Rheumatism, Cutaneous Scrotula or king's Evil, Kheumatism, Cutaneous Diseases, Sypheletic Affections, Tetter and Ulcers, White Swellings, Scurvy, Neuralgia or Tic Doloreaux, Cancer, Goitre or Bronchocele, (swelled neck.) Spine Disease, Chronic Disease of the Lungs, to counteract the destructive effects of Mercury, Jaundice, Hypertrophy or the Enlargement of the Heart, Palpitation and Trembling in the Region of the Heart and Stomach, Enlargement of the Boncs, Loints or Liegments. Also, all the various diseases Joints or Ligaments. Also, all the various disease Solin, such as Tetter, Ringworm, Biles, Pimples, Carbuncles, etc., Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, Nervous Affections, Dropsical Swellings, Constitutional Disorders, and diseages originating from an impure state of the blood and other fluids of the body, in short all diseases where a change of the ystem is required.

Price 50 cents per bottle.
Prepared only by the Proprietor,
JOHN C. BAKER & Co.,
Wholesale Druggists and Chemists, No. 100,
North Third Street, Philadelphia They always keep a good and general supply $FRESH_DRUGS$, FRESH_DRUGS, also a new article, IMITATION PLATE GLASS, very superior, equal to English or French plates, for about one fifth the price,—any size, according to order, together with Oils, Paints & Glass generally. The Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla for sale by HENRY & CASLOW, Druggists, corner of Market and Third Streets, Harrisburg, Sole Agent for Dauphin county.

Notice to Distillers.

AND ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. WHEREAS, I, Jacob Weitzel, of the city HEREAS, 1, Jacob Weitzel, of the city of Lancaster, coppersmith, have received by letters Patent, recorded in the Patent office in the city of Washington, certain useful improvements in the construction of Stills, which improvements consist of an additional tub, called a derailing tub, which is placed partly above the still, is which tub the doubler is inclosed, the beer which is pumped into the upper tub passes down by a plug pipe into the doubling tub, where it is brought to a boiling state before it is let into the still, which pipe is opened or stopped when requisite by means of a plug made of wood, copper, or any other material.

What I claim as my improvements are the above described doubling tub and the plug by which the beer passes from one tub to the other, or from the tub into the still.

ub into the still.

Having received information, amounting to proof, that my patent for the above described improvements has been violated by several distillers in this county and in various other places, I hereby give notice, that unless those persons who have made use of my invention, or have it now in use, without being authorized by me, come forward and make full reparation for having infringed my patent right, on or before the first day of March next, suit will be invitived grainst all and every conde instituted against all and every such person of JACOB WEITZEL. Feb. 22, 1848.

Sign Painting. OHN L. KEFFER has commenced the above business, in A. N. Brenneman's Building, Cen-re Square, Lancaster, and will do the best he can by strict attention to business and moderate charges tion to business and moderate charges, [May 1848.-15.

Sprecher & Rohrer's Cheap Hard-Ware Store.

HARDWARE, Glass, Paints, Oils, and Varnishes at that long established stand, East King st, Lancaster, formerly occupied by Howett & Krieder, a few doors east of the Court House, next door to the Drug Store of James Smith, and opposite Geo. Messenkop's Hotel, which they have recently taken and whose they will carry on the business.

Messenkop's Hotel, which they have recently taken and where they will carry on the business.
They most respectfully beg leave to invite the attention of their friends and acquaintances to their stock of Hardware, which they have just opened and will sell at the most reasonable prices, including every variety of Iron and Steel, Latches, Locks, Bolts, Hinges, Screws, and all kinds of building materials, every description of Files, Blacksmith's Bellows, Saddlery, best warranted Edge Tools, Planes, and Veneers. Also a complete assortment of CEDAR WARE, such as tubs, buckets, butter churns, together with every article in their line. churns, together with every article in their line They will keep constantly on hand every variety of od Stoves; also a highly approved COOKING STOVE.

The attention of young beginners is particularly called to their full and complete assortment of ousehold utensils. Determined to spare no pains to accommodate purchasers, and by steady adherence to business, they expect to merit a continuance of the liberal patronage thus far bestowed upon them. GEORGE D. SPRECHER, REUBEN S. ROHRER.

Old Metal and Flaxseed taken in exchange for DENTISTRY. DRS. WAYLAN & McCALLA.

DRS. WAYLAN & McCALLA, CRADUATES of the Baltimore College of Dencitizens of Lancaster, and public generally, that they have entered into partnership in the practice of DENTAL SURGERY, and will hereafter occupy conjointly the rooms hitherto occupied by Dr. Waylan, directly over Messrs. Sprecher and Rohrer's Hardware Store, in East King street, 5 doors from the Court House, where they are prepared to practice Court House, where they are prepared to practice all the various branches of the Profession on the most approved plan.

For the information of any who may be suffering from Palatine defects, either Congenital or Acci-dental, we would remark that our art holds ou the only means of relief. [sept 19-tf-34 READY-MADE FRENCH BURR MILL STONES.

THE subscriber will receive orders for Frence Burr Mill Stones, of all sizes, composed of the manner at the Quarries in France. All sizes from 3 feet 6 inches to 6 feet, can be furnished in a very short time. A pair of 4feet 6 inches can be ex-amined at any time, at the Warchouse, O'Donnell's

WM. G HARRISON.

Baltimore, Dec. 5,'48. Longenecker & Co., AVE received a large lot of very cheap LIN-EN GOODS. Shirting Linens at 25 and 371 cents. 12-4 Linen Sheetings, very low.

Damask Table Linens, 50, 022 and ...
Table Napkins, very cheap.
Diaper Toweling, bost quality.
Fine Huckaback Toweling.
Bird Eye Diaper, for children's aprons.
Cambric Handkerchiefs from 124 to $1. Damask Table Linens, 50, 621 and 75 cts.

MISS MAYER will be prepared on Mon-day, the 3d of April, and throughout belonging to MILLINERY, and is prepared to alter, whiten, press, and trim Straw Hats and Bonnets, in a superior manner and short notice, at Dentistry Improved. AVING secured the Patent Right to use Gilbert's "Central Cavity Plate," last summer, we take this opportunity of informing the public that after thoroughly testing this important invention we pronounce it one of the greatest improvements in our profession. By means of which we are enabled to insert partial or entire upper sets teeth without the use of clasps or springs, better ators or artificial plates inserted in the mocomfortable manner.

Persons having difficult cases which may have baffled the skill of Dentists are invited to give us a call at No. 36; East King Street, Lancaster ELY PARRY, M. D.,

CHARLES H. BRESSLER, M. D.

Removal. EO. SPURRIER would respectfully inform his friends, customers, and the public in general, that he has removed his Clothing Store from his old stand next door to the Post Office, to one door south of John Bear's Printing Office, and nearly opposite J. Michael's Hotel, at the sign of the Big ANTS, where all would do well to call that wan o buy CHEAP AND WELL-MADE CLOTHING.

Customer's work attended to at the shortestotice, and made in a workmanlike manner. Don't forget the place, sign of the Big Pants.

dec 7 '47-45-tf]

GEO. SPURRIER. Ornamental Marble Works. AST King street, next door to John N. Lane's store. Charles M. Howell, Marble Mason, spectfully informs the citizens of Lancaster and the public in general, that he carries on the MAR-BLE BUSINESS, in all its various branches, and nvites all to call on him, as he is satisfied that he can sell cheaper than any other establishment in th city or state.

He invites the public to call and examine his stock of finished Mantels, Monuments, Tombs, Grave Stones, and also his collection of designs for Bookbindery.

Monuments, Tombs, &c., before purchas

THE undersigned hereby returns his sincere thanks to his respected patrons, and the public in general, for the liberal encouragement in his business, BOOK-BINDING; and makes known, at the same time, that he still continues at his old AND WELL KNOWN STAND, in North Prince Street Lancas. branches. His work, in regard to beauty, durability and cheapness, cannot be exceeded by any other nere to remark, that he likewise continues the bus ness of writing POWERS OF ATTORNEY, LET TERS. DEATH CERTIFICATES, RENUNCI. as desired; and will also some any place in Germany, with perfect safety.

PHILIP C. RANNINGER.

July 4, 1848. Castings! Castings!

THE Subscribers having rented the shop, to gether with all the Lathes, Tools, Patterns, &c., belonging to Pennel & Lenher, late in the occupancy of James H. Pennel, they are prepared to do all kinds of CASTING AND FINISHING. such as Railroad work, Furnace and Forge Castings, Mill Gearing, Factory work, Horse Power and Agricultural Castings, &c.

Having patterns of every description on hand, they are prepared to execute all orders at the shortest notice. Also, Patterns made to order.

From the known experience of the subscrib n the above business, the assurance is given that all orders will be faithfully executed.

For sale by

The Great Discovery. R. WILLIAM STEELING'S PULMONARY SYRUP is the GRAND REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Throat Disease, Whooping Cough, Scarlet Fever, Measles, Shortness of Breath, and in short for all Diseases Shortness of Breath, and in short of all Discusses of the Throat, Breast and Lungs. Try it and you will not be disappointed. It is far superior to the host of useless trash that is offered to the public, and on trial you will find it so! The only thing in which it is deficient is that the price is only Fifty Cents, while others are exterting One Dolla Bottle for articles very far inferior!

MR. SMITH, Druggist, JOHN GISH, JACOB LONG, and wholesale by the Proprietor, at Camden City, Lancaster Intelligencer, PUBLISHED. EVERY TUESDAY MORNING.

BY E. W. HUTTER. Office in "Union Court," in the rear of the Market

House, adjoining Centre Square. TERMS: UBSCRIPTION.—Two dollars per annum, payable in advance; two twenty-five, if not paid within six months; and two fity, if not paid within the year. No subscription discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of th Editor.

DVERTISEMENTS .-- Accompanied by the CASH, and not exceeding one square, will be inserted three times, for one dollar, and twenty-five cents for each additional insertion. Those of a greater length

OR PRINTING -Such as Hand Bills, Posting Bills

Pamphlets, Blanks, Labels, &c., &c., executed with accuracy and at the shortest notice.

Doetrn.

For the Lancaster Intelligencer.

THE HEART. BY P. M. DESHONG

In secret cells, in the breast of youth, A priceless gem full of life is laid, Whose form may flash in light of truth Though wrapt in gloomy and endless shade But sin, ave sin, on its borders play, With sighs of sorrow and airs of scorn,

And souls, which often from virtue stray, Forever over its waves are borne. Its streams are joined to the deathless soul With guilt and sin on its waves combined; And life and wisdom in torrents roll Through hidden lepths of the human mind

'Tis sadly pressed with a thousand cares, With brooding shadows and fearful dreams And round it linger the vouthful snares Which tear from beauty her fairest beams In evening shadows its waves are calm, When slumber steals on the mourner's breas

And dreams pass over like a gushing balm, To soothe the soul in its time of rest. But morning throws on the voiceless eye, A halo pure with a crown of light, And sin returns with a baleful sigh, And a shady brow from the realms of night

It slumbers not though the wing of sleep, Comes down when the twilight shades are nigh, But its streams glide on through channels deep, As free as air in the morning sky. And yet so frail that the light of day, Dare enter not on its holy cells,

And no fair glance on its waves can play, Or touch the fountain, which onward swells. 'Tis there where the convict feels remorse. When mists rise up in his maddened brain, And shrinks with dread at the hurrying force, Of sins which torture his soul again.

Oh! guard it then from this tearful gloom! Which strives to darken its rays of love-Then shall it flourish in endless bloom When borne to the heavenly land above

With undimmed glory upon their brow; But angel voices can never greet Those hearts which sin may be tempting nov And should they heed to the voice of sin, Its streams will curdle with pain and care Till Conscience utters this fearful din The arrowy sinews of Death are there

Miscellaneous.

My Wife's Gold Ring; or John Gaspard Lavater and the Poor Widow.

It was a practice with Lavater (an eminent clergy nan born in Zurich, Switzerland, 1741,) to read every morning, one or more chapters in the Bible and to select from them one particular passage for frequent and special meditation during the day-One morning after reading the fifth and sixth chapters of the Gospel of Matthew, he exclaimed make choice of any particular portion of it!" After upon his knees, and prayed for Divine guidance. day. "Give to him that asketh thee; and from ted to my charge, to thy glory, a brother's welfare him that would borrow of thee turn not away." was the reply. "And how is this to be understood?" said his wife. "Give to him that asketh thee; and from him that would borrow of thee turn thou not Him to whom all and every thing belongs that I | they are produced; whereas, musical notes will be possess. I am the steward, not the proprietor.

much more then, when asked."

further reply than that she would well consider distance than that of any other animal. Thus, these things., I had scarcely left the dining-room a few minu- plain wishes to call her husband, who is working tes, when an aged widow desired to speak to me and she was shown into my study. "Forgive me, voice to a musical key, which she knows from dear sir," she said, "excuse the liberty I am about habit, and by that means reaches his ear. The to take; I am truly ashamed, but my rente is due loudest roar of the largest lion could not penetrate to-morrow, and I am short six dollars; I have been so far. "This property of music in the human onfined to my bed with sickness, and my poor voice," says Cowper. "is strikingly shown in the child is nearly starving; every penny that I could Cathedrals abroad. Here the mass is entirely persave I have laid aside to meet this demand, but six formed in musical sounds, and becomes audible to dollars yet are wanting, and to-morrow is term-day." every devotee, however placed in the remotest Here she opened a parcel, which she held in her part of the church; whereas, if the same mass had hand, and said, "This is a book with a silver clasp, been read, the sounds would not have travelled which my late husband gave me the day we were beyond the precinc's of the choir." Those orators married. It is all I can spare of the few articles I who are heard in large assemblies most distinctly. possess, and sore it is to part with it. I am aware and at the greatest distance, are those who by that it is not enough, nor do I see how I could ever | modulating the voice, render it more musical. repay,-but, dear sir, if you can, do assist me". "I am very sorry, my good woman, that I can. not help you," I said; and putting my hand into cry, which tended, as much as the formality of his my pocket I accidentally felt my purse, which con- discourse, in the liouse of Commons, to send the plexions:

tion, who could give you this trifle?" "No, there is no one!-I am ashamed to go from house to house, I would rather work day and night; surely turn away from me in my sixtieth year!"

pered, "Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away She came up to nie and said, with much sweetness "This is a good old woman; she has certainly been ill of late: assist her if you can." Shame and compassion struggled in my darkened soul. "I have but two dollars," I said in a whisper, "and she requires six; I'll give her a trifle in the hand and let her go."

Laying her hand on my arm and smiling, my wife said aloud, what conscience had whispered beore-"Give to him that asketh thee; and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou

I blushed, and replied with some little vexation "Would you give your ring for the purpose!

"With pleasure," answered my wife, pulling of er ring. The good old widow was either too simple or too modest to notice what was going on and was preparing to retire, when my wife called to her to wait in the lobby. When we were left alone, I asked my wife. "Are you in earnest about the ring? "Certainly, how can you doubt it?" she said; "do you think that I would trifle with charity? Remember what you said to me but half a year ago, Oh, my dear friend, let us not make a show of the Gospel; you are in general so kind, so sympathizing, how is it that you find it so difficult to assist this poor woman? why did you not, without hesi tation, give her what you had in your pocket? and did you not know that there were yet six dollars in your desk, and that the quarter will be paid to us in less than eight days?" She then added with much feeling, "Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink : nor ye for your body, what ye shall put on. Behold the fowls of the air: they sow not neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Eather teedeth then." I kissed my wife, while tears ran down my cheek :- "Thanks, a thousand thanks, for this humiliation!" I turned to the desk, took from it the six dollars, and opened the door to call in the poor widow-all darkened around me at the thoughtthat I had been so lorgetful of the omniscience of God as to say to her. "I cannot help you." Oh, thou false tongue! thou false heart! If thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, Oh Lord, who shall stand! Here is what you need," I said, addressing the

At first she seemed not to understand what meant, and thought I was offering her a small contribution, for which she thanked me, and pressed my hand; but whe i she perceived that I had given her the whole sum then she could scarcely find words to express her feelings. She cried, "Dear sir, I cannot repay: all I possess is this poor book

"Keep your bool ." said I, "and the money too | which was of the most social and unreserved charand thank God, and not me, for verily I deserve no acter, it soon became apparent that the stranger thanks, after having so long resisted your entrea- was no ordinary man-he was, indeed, no less an ties; go in peace, and forgive an erring brother." I returned to my wife with downcast looks, but | ident elect of the United States. Shortly after Gen. she smiled, and said, "Do not take it so much to Taylor's entrance, a tall and stately looking gentleheart, my friend; you yielded at my first sugges- man of middle age came into the room, accompation: but promise me, that so long as I wear a nied by two friends, and walking up to the bar, to say to any person, 'I cannot help you.'"

kissed me and left the apartment. When I found myself alone, I sat down and my deceitful heart-this heart which, no longer ago than yesterday, dictated the words, "Of all characters in the world there is none I would more anxiously avoid than that of a hyprocite;" yet to easy part of it, is hypocrisy. Merciful Father, how long must I wait, and reflect, and struggle ere shall be able to rely on the perfect sincerity o

I read over once more the chapter which I had read in the morning with so little benefit, and felt more and more ashamed, and convinced that there is no peace, except where principle and practice What a treasure of morality! how difficult to are in perfect accordance. How peacefully and happily I might have ended this day, had I acted a few moments consideration he threw himself up conscientiously to the blessed doctrines I profess! Dear Saviou : send thy Holy Spirit into this When he joined his wife at dinner she asked him | benighted heart! cleanse it from secret sin! and what passage of Scripture he had chosen for the teach me to employ that which thou hast commitand my own salvation!

Useful Hints to Public Speakers. It is a curious fart in the history of sound, that away. -these," rejoined Lavater, "are the words of the loudest noises always perish on the spot where heard at a great distance. Thus, if we approach The Proprietor desires me to give to him who asks | within a mile or two of a town or village in which of me, and not to refuse him who would borrow of a fair is held, we may hear very faintly the clamor me; or, in other words, if I have two coats, I must of the multitude, but more distinctly the organs give one to him who has none, and if I have food, and other musical instruments which are played must share with him who is an hungered and in for their amusement. If a Cremona violin, a real want; this I must do without being asked; how Amati, be played by the side of a modern fiddle. the latter will sound much louder of the two; but This, continues Lavater in his diary, appeared to the sweet, brilliant tone of the Amati will be heard me so evidently and incontrovertibly to be the at a distance the other cannot reach. Dr. Young, meaning of the verses in question, that I spoke on the authority of Derham, states that at Gibralwith more than usual warmth: my wife made no ter, the human voice may be heard at a greater when the cottager in the woods, or in the open at a distance, she does not shout, but pitches her

Loud speakers are seldom heard to advantage. Burke's voice is said to have been a sort of lofty tained about two dollars; these, I said to myself, members to their cinner. Chatham's lowest whissix: besides, if even they could, I have need of sweet, rich and be utifully varied," says a writer, the widow, I said, "Have you no friend, no rela- to its highest pitch, the House was completely fillmuch of your goodness: if, however, you cannot his peculiar power. Then the House sunk before gladly would I sent her away; for conscience whis- greater, than the orator."

THE BROKEN HEART. The following lines by the late Mrs. Maffit, de ve a peculiar-interest from the fact that they ere the last penned by that unfortunate lady: , could this crushed and beating heart,

Could cease to struggle, and be still; ong has it served and been a mark For the world's scorn and vulgar will. Yet now it breaks, 'twill be no more;

Twas over-burthened long before. , tell me not, let me not hear The scorn they shower upon my name For oft 'tis whispered in my ear, And thrills to madness my poor brain. And there are times at which I crave

The drear dark mystery of the grave. and must it ever be, as now? And am I never to be free From slander's tongue and envy's vow?

Ah! is there no sweet charity Dwells on the earth-horn here below That thus they smile upon the blow. Which struck a young girl to the dust,

And dashed forever from her heart

Or ease the sensitive bosom's ache.

The dream of bliss she long had nurs'd-

And bade them all disperse, depart? Have they no pity for the fate Of one thus made so desolate? They do not know-they cannot feel How deep the wounds the blight words make, Wounds which once given, naught can heal,

But ah! it is my lot to bear Of this world's ills a heavy share,

From the New Orleans Delta. Democracy in New Orleans. The people of New Orleans are socially the mos emocratic in the world. Elevated station, or great prominence, though always respected and appreciated here, are not regarded with that distant awe and servile homage which too often mark the demeanor, even of republicans, toward those in authority. Nor do our distinguished men assume any of that exclusiveness and dignified reserve which are so common elsewhere. We were struck with and, like Earl GREY, he will stand by his order, the truth of these observations, some days ago, It would be curious to know who originated the whilst standing in that popular resort, Howlett's project. There was a memorial once for such a bar-room. There was a large crowd of citizens of tax sent to the Legislature of Pennsylvania: but all parties, classes and conditions, assembled in the it was laid upon the table at the instance of a room, enjoying themselves in various ways. Presently, a stout, short, and sturdy old gentleman en- signatures were chiefly those of middle-aged, single terred the bar-room, arm-in-arm with another elderly gentlemon. He was clothed in the undress uniform of a geneaal officer of our army, and wore a plain glazed cap. His entrance created quite a sensation and buzz in the multitude, and a crowd soon gathered around him. From the conversation, individual than the Hero of Buena Vista, the Pres-She drawing up his cloak, a la Roman toga, and casting for the Prisoner. a glance around the room, observed the presence of gold ring on my finger, and you know that I pos. took a social glass with his companions, tipping down for examination. C. Pepper, jr., Esq., a1. sess several besides, you will never allow yourself glasses, as is our fashion. The tall gentleman, then peared for the People, and John K. Porter, Esq. the President elect, when immediately, with inim added confirmation to the truth of her story, gave wrote this account in my diary, in order to humble itable grace and dignity, he raised his hat, and in particular detail a history of the whole transacmade a most graceful bow. The tall gentleman tion, the substance of which is as follows: was the popular and respected Governor of Louisiana; socially, one of the finest specimens of a true | ried three years, and has two children-one two democrat we have ever seen; his political democ- years old on the 19th of December inst., and the preach the whole moral law, and to fulfil only the racy is a matter of no concern to us. Next came, other four months old: that her husband is a causal in a little active pleasant looking genlteman, who captain, owner of the boat, and possessed of other had also his companions, and who seemed to be means; that he provides well for his family, and is equally determined to enjoy himself, with his friends, a perfectly temperate man, but has a most demo over a social glass. Catching, with great quickness niac temper; that they live on the boat winter and of vision a view of the President elect of the United summer; that from the day of their marriage he States, and of the Governor of the State, the little has been in the constant and almost daily habit of gentleman gave two very energetic and courteous using personal violence to her; that she can do bows, in quick succession, to the two distinguished nothing to please him, and upon every occasion of dignituries, and a third one to the audience, a large his dissatisfaction he inflicts his violence as his maumber of whom he insisted on treating. The lignity shall suggest; that he has always evinced ittle gentleman was the Mayor of this great city, a dislike to the eldest child, for what reason the These three prominent gentlemen having drawn wite could never satisfactorily learn: that he is in around them circles of their respective friends, con- the daily habit, when it shall neglect to obey his inued to enjoy themselves in social chat and friend- every command, to beat, to strike and kick it : that y discussion until a seasonable hour, when they he commenced on Sunday morning maltreating it, etired, one after the other, all bearing with them and continued till Monday night—kicked it off the gled with their fellow-citizens.

A Touching Scene. Mr. Backus, Editor of the Canajoharie Radii, has lost his only son, aged 14, a dispensation severely felt, for both Mr. B. and his wife are deaf and dumb. Their child could hear and speak, and was to them at once a pride and solace, and it is natural that the parental feelings should have assumed a depth and an intensity which has few parallels in the affections of the human heart. A friend thus describes the death bed scene: "They saw their beloved child writhe in pain-saw the expression of acute suffering in his features, and saw his lips move in utterance of the pangs he felt and the relief he eraved; but they heard him not, and the intensity of their anxiety could be only partially relieved by the tedious process of inadequate interpretation Another peculiarity in their affliction is their own unfortunate deprivation. With hearts sensitively alive to the severity of their loss, and almost sinking under the weight of their affliction, the relief of language is denied them, and their sorrows, like pent up fires, are doomed to waste their energies upon themselves. But thanks to a benignant Providence, they have the intelligence to recognize His hand in the afflictive dispensation, and feel a becoming resignation to the good pleasure of Him who giveth and who taketh away."

A Scene in New York.

The sudden inclemency of the weather drew the office of the New York Alms House Commis sioner, on Tuesday, soliciting aid, not less than from twelve to fifteen hundred of all countries and com-

Among the motley multitude was a handsome cannot extricate her from her difficulty, she requires per was distinctly heard; "his middle tones were young Irish woman in an interesting situation, who appeared to suffer much from the pressure of the this money for some other purpose. Turning to describing the orator; "when he raised his voice crowd. The expression of her countenance was mournful, yet resigned, as she patiently awaited ed with the volume of sound, and the effect was amidst the struggling throng, her turn to obtain awful, except when he wished to cheer or animate audience of the Commissioners. Suddenly she and then he had spirit stirring notes, which were sank upon the floor, evidently in a condition that my excuse for being here is, that people speak so perfectly irresistible. The terrible, however, was required prompt medical attention. She was at once removed to an adjoining room and as comforassist me, you will at least forgive my intrusion; him; still he was dignified, and wonderful as was tably provided for as circumstances would permit and God, who has never yet forsaken me, will not his eloquence, it was attended with this important Dr. Hyatt, the able medicol attache of the establish effect, that it possessed every one with a conviction | ment, attended her, and in a very short time a still-At this moment the door of my apartment opened that there was something in him finer even than born infant was ushered into the world. At a late and my wife entered. I was ashamed and vexed; his words; that the man was greater, infinitely hour last evening, the mother was doing as well as possible under the circumstance.

From the Baltimore American.

NO. 51.

Tax on Bachelors. The Tax on Bachelors, proposed in the French Assembly, may lead some to doubt the liberality and justice of the new Republic. It would seem strange, indeed, that a people who, for the sake of Freedom, have driven a king into banishment, should now persecute Freedom, by assailing her special votaries. Bachelors, because they will not give up their liberty, are to be made to give up their money; their unhoused free condition is to be put in circumscription and confined whether they love the gentle DESDEMONA or not. In this alternative between self and pelf, in which if the former is not yielded to matrimony the latter is to be given to the State, the bachelor has a strong claim to sympathy. But he will get none-none whatever. He belongs to a persecuted class. An oyster in season, or a partridge in shooting time, might as well hope to be spared. He is an outsider-a wayfaring passenger that has to carry his own budget. His chief use is to count one in the census-the only mode in which he is recognized as adding to the aggregate population. Age, which is venerable in others, becomes a reproach to him. If sensitive he is worried; if neek he is snubbed. An unfortunate man in all respects. Whether a bachelor by choice or by necessity, his crime is the same, and he is doomed to receive the punishment due to contumacy. The only oil that is poured upon his wounds is the oil of vitriol. A victim among Ishmaelites, all hands are against him-a prisoner in the midst of savage captors, he must suffer torture or marry into the

Such a condition, one would think, is distressful mough; yet the law must needs step in and tax the bachelor. By one of its fictions the law may pleasantly intend, that, having been long enough rnamental, the bachelor must now be made useful; or, in a more serious humor, it may have determined that as he will not help the State to soldiers he must be subsidized for supplies. We do not know what will be the fate of the proposition in the French Assembly; but if a reasonable calculation may be depended on, we may predict its defeat. Louis Napoleon is a bachelor scrutinizing committee, who ascertained that the

Most Brutal Assault by a Father

upon his Infant Child. From the Albany Evening Journal. On Tuesday afternoon, Caroline Goodwin, the vife of Westley Goodwin, a canal boat cap ain, nade complaint at the Police Office, that her hus band had severely beaten her and her infant child not quite two years old. Officer Cowell immediately arrested Goodwin and brought him before Justice Parsons. The case was then partially examined, and Goodwin committed to jail for further examination Vesterday aftern

The wife, whose whole manner and appearance

the respect and esteem of the persons present whose chair—put it into the cold midships, and compelled dmiration and regard were not diminished by the it to remain there until it was stiff and shivering free and unreserved manner with which they min- with the cold-struck it on the head and body several times with a boot jack-sawed its neck with a boot-jack-and, by putting his thumbs under the ears, held it suspended in the air. The child was produced in court, and its appearnce sent a thrill of horror among the auditory. It was apprehended that the crowd would inflict speedy chastisement upon the brutal father, and it re quired care and coolness to restrain them. The wife said that she had before made complain of the conduct of her husband, but in hope of his reformation, and from fear of her own safety, she had been restrained from urging his prosecution Upon the examination of the case on Tuesday. the prisoner boldly claimed the right thus to chastise the child. The magistrate committed him fully on both charges, and he was remanded to jail.

Robert Blum to his Wife. The following is a copy of the letter written by the unfortunate Robert Blum, the Austrian Demo erat, (shot by order of Windischgratz,) to his wife, an hour before his murder: "My dear good Wife.-Farewell farewell for time men call eternity, but which will not be so. Bring up our—now only your—children to be honest men; so they will never disgrace their father's name. Sell our little property with the aid of our friends. God and all good men will help you also capes me in terrs; only once more, then, farewell, my dearest. Consider our children a treasure of which you must make the best use, and honor thus the memory of your faithful husband. Farewell, farewell; receive the last kisses of Robert. Vienna Nov. 1848, five o'clock in the morning; at six all will be over.—P. S. I had forgotton the rings; on that of our betrothal I press for you a last kiss; my seal-ring is for Hats, the watch for Richard, ive the last kisses of Robert. ne diamond stud for Ida, the chain for Alfred, as emorials. All the rest divide as you please .-

They are coming; farewell, 4-0-1-19 A Jewel of a Woman.

The editor or a Philadelphia paper takes notice of a lady at a late concert in that city, who had nineteen rings upon her fingers, thirteen bracelets of different descriptions upon her arms, which were bare to the shoulder and very handsome. Her hands were small, white and beautiful. Some of he rings contained diamonds of large size, and whenever she moved her hand it appeared to be in a blaze of light. This gaily decked lady was a subject of admiration to some, of envy to others, and of pity to a few. Her fan was expensive, and secured to her wrist by a heavy gold chain. She wore ear rings, and a breast pin. Altogether she presented the appearance of a walking jewelry store, and so he regarded her as the most valuable woman, literally speaking, that he had ever seen.