Veto from an Anti-Veto Governor.

From the Harrisburg Democratic Union.

Notwithstanding the tirades pronounced against vetoes and the veto power by Governor Johnston, before the election, he has been several times already in a tight place upon this question, and on Friday last broke the ice by vetoing a bill because the Legislature in their wisdom passed two bills of the same kind. The following is the "little monster" which we put on file as an Avant courier, feeling very confident that more of the same sort will follow:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

GENTLEMEN: I herewith return [veto] the bill entitled "An Act extending Market street and Water street in the borough of Brookville, and to declare the width thereof," to the House in which it originated with my objections to the same.

By an act entitled "An Act extending Market street and Water st. in the borough of Brookeville, Jefferson, and to declare the width thereof," approved Febr'y 5th, '49, the provisions of the bill herewith returned are literally enacted and became a law. It is believed that both acts are intended for the same borough, and therefore the latter must be wholly useless. WM. F. JOHNSTON.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, }
Harrisburg, Feb. 9, 1849. }

By the foregoing it will be seen that the Whig Executive has actually vetoed a bill in the second or third week of his administration; and one other bill came very near being vetoed and was only saved, we believe, by the promise of a "Protocol," explanatory and declaratory of the views of the Legislature in passing said act. The bill referred to was "An Act to promote the free navigation of French creek." The Governor did not approve of the bill and held it over for some days, but as he felt great delicacy on the subject of vetoes, whilst his anti-veto speeches were so fresh in the recollection of the people, he desired that an explanatory bill—a kind of Protocol to the first bill—should be passed, and the friends of the bill actually originated and passed the Protocol through the Senate, but the House being a slow motioned refractory kind of body, held the Protocol so long in its hands that the ten days expired, and the Governor sent in the bill with a message saying that he had allowed it to become a law without his signature. In a very short time, therefore, we may expect the Governor's nerves will be strung up, and he will yield the veto with as good a grace as he now wields the guillotine.

The Cincinnatti Tragedy.

A WOMAN'S REVENGE.

The Cincinnati Commercial gives the particulars of the murder committed in that city by a woman:

The history of this bloody affair is, in brief, as follows: Not many years since Captain John Howard married the daughter of a physician residing in Montreal, Canada. They lived together in apparent happiness and domestic comfort for some time in this city, but difficulties occurred, not necessary here to name, and the parties separated—the wife taking the two children; a boy and a girl. Not long after the separation Capt. H. obtained the two children by violent means—having no recourse in the law—and placed them in charge of a friend in Kentucky; at the same time an application for a divorce was pending in a court in that State. Mrs. H. was of an impetuous and determined temperament—a woman of many accomplishments, and capable of occupying high places in society—and felt her humiliation in a keen degree, and had often sworn revenge. Heaven knows, she has got it!

Capt. H. married again, (it is said,) and was living at the time of this terrible transaction with the lady (quite handsome by the way and amiable in her manners) who fell a victim to the wild fury of jealousy and vengeance, and perished under the knife of the abandoned wife. The circumstances of the tragedy are as follows:

At about five o'clock, last evening, a woman called at the boarding-house of Mrs. Wolf, on Fifth st., between Plumb and Western Row, and walked into the entry. Meeting Mrs. W. she said—"Madam, I saw your door open and took the liberty of walking in. I came to see Mrs. Howard." Mrs. W. said she would call Mrs. H. and immediately went up stairs for that purpose.

Mrs. H. soon come down, and upon meeting the stranger, the latter sprang at her, and plunged a knife into her neck, severing the jugular, and then walked off. Mrs. H. staggered back into the kitchen, the blood gushing from the wound, cried, "O, Mrs. Wolf, I am killed!" and expired in a short time. Mr. Howard was in the house at the time, and upon being made acquainted with the facts, he seized a knife, and calling the name of the murderess, rushed down stairs—but she had escaped. The bleeding object of his love was writhing in death before him, and he became frantic.

Pursuit was made for the murderess, but she could be found no where. Mr. John L. Scott, member of Council from the Second Ward, however, met her a short time after the murder, on Fourth street, near Vine, when she called his attention, by showing him a knife reeking with blood, and exclaiming—"I have done it!—I killed her!—can I get this much out of Howard?" She was determined in her manner, and her eye had the glare of a maniac! Her hand and arm to the elbow were besmeared with blood, and there were some spots upon her face. Mr. S. was so completely confounded by this singular meeting, that he suffered her to pass on. She was arrested at a late hour last night by officer Huse, Jr., near her residence

From the Placers---Indian Outrage.

From the California Star Nov. 18.

Several disturbances have recently occurred in and about the placer, and another murder has been committed. About the 1st inst. a party of men crossed the tract of country between the Juba and American rivers, had a loss of animals near the latter stream, and separated in search. They succeeded in recovering their property, but two of the company failing to return were, accordingly, in turn sought for, and unquestionable evidence obtained of their having fallen in with and met death at the hands of the Indians. The arms and equipments of one of the missing men were shortly after discovered in the possession of a party of Indians. Hollingsworth—the name of one of the victims—had for some time past resided in Napa valley, and has left a family in the country to deplore his fate.

Similar outrages, our correspondent is of opinion, may be constantly apprehended. The Indians, perpetrators of the deed, are of a numerous tribe, highly incensed against the whites, particularly against the emigrants late from Oregon, having received injuries from the latter not long since, it is said.

A party of men passed our office yesterday, but that moment arrived from the mines. Digging, where continued, holds good, though the customary labor appears to have been pretty generally suspended, and those purposing a stay upon the ground during the winter are actively employed in providing camp with provisions and other necessaries for the approaching season. Should the winter be as severe as that of last year, little advantage can be gained by remaining in the mines, save choice of ground for spring operations.

Gold in Maryland.

From the Baltimore American.

The discoveries of gold which are calculated to render the present day so remarkable in aftertimes, are not to be confined, it would seem, to the California region exclusively. A recent development of the presence of the precious metal in Maryland holds out the promise of a golden harvest within our own borders. Within a short time past a vein of gold has been accidentally discovered in Montgomery County, on the farm of Mr. SAMUEL ELLICOTT, situated on Holland's river, a branch of the Patuxent, about half a mile distant from the village of Brookeville. It is found to exist in a mass of flint rock, the outcropping of which shows itself above the surface of the ground. Fragments of the rock which have been broken off contain visible evidences of the presence of gold, and its actual existence is placed beyond a doubt by the examination of a fragment transmitted to the U. S. Mint. We learn that a company are in treaty for the purchase of the farm, with a view to the working of the vein in mine, and should it be concluded we shall doubtless soon hear more of it.

The Scherr Pianos.

From the Pennsylvanian.

We direct attention to the advertisement of E. N. SCHERR, Esq., the highly accomplished and enterprising manufacturer of Pianos in this city. His instruments have long borne off the palm in this country for great durability, sweetness of tone, facility of management, and unusual melody and volume. Amateurs and Artists have combined in awarding him this high praise. He now presents three certificates, strongly approving the great superiority of his instruments, from the three unequalled masters of the piano, in Europe—DR. MEYER, THALBERG, and STRAKOSCH—the latter now on a remarkably successful tour in the South. While in London, recently, Mr. Scherr's Pianos were by many regarded as equal to those of ERARD, who had long been conceded to be without a living rival. Mr. Scherr's high character in this community is a sufficient guarantee that these testimonials are not used simply as puffs, but as the unsolicited tributes to his Pianos of those who are most competent to decide upon their merits.

☞ A singular malady is prevailing in the neighborhood of Uniontown, Pa., and has caused twenty deaths of fifty cases in two weeks. Its ravages are mainly among the young. It is supposed to be cholera, but the symptoms as described differ widely from that disease—the first indication being sometimes pains in the fingers and limbs, fever and headache, followed by vomiting and diarrhea.—Some of the patients break out with spots, like the measles, and after death the body and face are covered with large black spots, the legs and arms assuming a black color.

JUDGE MCLEAN.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia North American, writes as follows, under date of the 13th instant:

"Judge McLean received a telegraphic dispatch from Columbus this morning, communicating that a caucus of the Whigs in the Legislature of Ohio, has nominated him for U. S. Senator, to fill the vacancy to occur by the expiration of Mr. Allen's term on the 4th of March. An answer was immediately returned declining the honor.

STUMPING FOR GOVERNOR.—The Tennesseans are getting out with the practice of the candidates for governor stumping the state in their own behalf. The Nashville Union, and the Gallatin Tenth Legion have articles against the custom.

ANOTHER EDITOR OFF.—The last number of the Cincinnati Prices Current, contains the valedictory of its publisher and editor, Mr. A. Peabody, who goes to California to seek a fortune.

INCREASE OF THE TOWN OF READING.—There were 348 houses built in the town of Reading during last year. Of the above 77 are three story brick houses, 75 frame buildings, and the majority of the remainder two story brick dwellings.

GOLD.—The amount of gold received from the mines of the United States and territories and coined into money since the year 1824, is thirteen millions of dollars. The African gold is the purest that has yet been discovered in any quarter of the globe.

MR. CLAY.—The New Orleans Picayune of the 8th instant says—

We learn that the return of this gentleman to the Senate of the United States will not interfere with his purpose of passing the winter in New Orleans. It is not his present intention, we are informed, to repair to Washington for the short executive session in March.

☞ The Boston Journal of the 13th inst., publishes a list of the names of the passengers who have left that port for California since January 26th. The whole number is 1007. The previously published list included 740 names, making the total of 1747 names.

☞ The Charleston papers announce the death of Ex-Governor John L. Wilson, of South Carolina.

☞ Col. Wm. R. Johnson, the turf man, is dead. He died at New Orleans.

TOLERABLE.—While sitting in a restorateur, a few months since, we were amused at a hit made by a wag. It was the early season of green peas, and they were so generally called for, that the supply gave out. "Peas! peas!" was the call, long after there were none left.

"Ah!" said a wag, throwing himself in an attitude a la Patrick Henry, "gentlemen may cry peas! peas! but there is no peas!—Lynn News.

A WEALTHY GENERAL.—Soon after the battle of Leipsick, a wit observed, "that Napoleon must be in funds, for he had received a check on the Bank of the Elbe."

DOMESTIC BLISS.—Pater familias—"I cannot conceive, my love, what is the matter with my watch: I think it must want cleaning."

Pet Child.—"Oh no, papa dear. I don't think it wants cleaning, because baby and I had it washing in the basin for ever so long this morning."

☞ The Democrats of Bradford county have chosen ADDISON MCKEAN and ULYSSES MERCUR, representative, and D. V. BAYNE for Senatorial delegates to the 4th of July Convention, with instructions to support Col. GORDON F MASON, for Canal Commissioner.

☞ Somebody tried to excuse a liar to Doctor JOHNSON, saying—"You must not believe more than half he says." "Aye," replied the Doctor, "but which half."

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

THE great remedy for CONSUMPTION, and the best medicine known to man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaints, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, Pains and Weakness in the Side, Breast, &c., and all other diseases of the Pulmonary Organs. A very important disease over which this Balsam exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a Diseased Liver.

In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any other remedy hitherto employed and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected Permanent Cures, after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in Asthma, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success, even in cases of years standing.

It not only emanates from a regular physician, but has been well tested in all complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mystery, or in any way deceive the public by over-rating its virtues; on the contrary, I shall simply endeavor to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues, as will satisfy the most incredulous, that Consumption may and can be cured, if this medicine be resorted to.

Richardson's Bitters.

DR. RICHARDSON'S Sherry Wine Bitters, advertised in our columns, are recommended very highly by the press and by physicians generally. It has one virtue which to many is considered very important—it is prepared by an able and experienced physician, a regular M. D. We have tested its qualities, and so far as we are able to judge, think it is every thing "it is cracked up to be."—Northern Star, Warren.

This is the season for the use of this highly valuable medicine. It is the most safe and effectual family medicine for diseases which it professes to cure, that has ever been discovered. It is composed of different roots and plants. We like the Bitters because they are no quack, but prepared by a regular practical physician, who says but very little about them himself, but leaves for those who use them to make their own statements of the beneficial effects upon the system. We have just used the last of our bottle, which we purchased of one of his agents, whose name will be found on the outside of our paper. A month ago, we could neither run, fight, sing, halloa, dance, or go to work, without feeling that our days were soon to be numbered among those that are not. But these Bitters have cured us, and we feel as if we had been born again, and can sing (in our own peculiar style,) "begone dull care" to suit ourselves, and those who wish to feel so too must resort to Richardson's Bitters, or there is no help for them—Essex Banner and Haverhill Banner.

Extra Sunbeam Portraits.

H. H. LAUGHLIN, has opened his new Extra Sunbeam Daguerreotype Gallery, at 376 Market Street, south side, first door above Eleventh Street, (over Rowand & Walton's Drug Store,) Philadelphia, where he will be happy to see his old patrons, and all others who feel desirous of having a life-like portrait of themselves or relatives taken by his new Extra Sunbeam process; visit his gallery and see his beautiful and artistical specimens taken and put up in the latest improvement of the art—faithful likenesses, delineating every feature and expressions of nature in almost life itself. This new process may be well entitled art's best gift to man—a blessing to the human family.

The gallery is of easy access—being on the second floor, having to ascend only one easy flight of stairs, and located in one of the most business sections of Market Street, immediately adjacent to the Baltimore and Philadelphia Railroad Depot.

From his long experience and close observations in the artists of his profession, he flatters himself that he will be enabled to please every one who may visit him with their patronage.

Remember, it matters not as to the color of the dress or drapery, or whether the day be clear or cloudy, the Extra Sun-Beam process is always certain, and the pictures taken by it are warranted to be proof against water, air or dampness of any kind, and will stand for ages without fading in the least—a truthfulness rarely if ever to be found in the old process.
