Possessing every facility for purchasing at the lowest cash prices, and at all times ready to avail ourselves of a fall in the market; watching every Auction Sale in this, and not unfrequently in neighboring cities; we feel confident of our ability to sell, at least, a portion of our stock lower than the same articles can be bought elsewhere, and the whole at the smallest possible advance.

Our stock will embrace every article usually found in a Wholesale Dry Goods establishment, and we respectfulty invite your attention, when in our city, knowing that, with the many inducements we can offer, we cannot fail to convince the doubting and incredulous, that the small advance charged upon the cost will not include losses by bad debts and lawyer's fees, or the expenses of a travelling collector; and, to every cash buyer, who will spare the time to give our stock a careful examination, we pledge ourselves to sell him a satisfactory bill, February 27

CHARLES A. HEINITSH,

CALIFORNIA GOLD iscovered by Signor D'Alvears Goldometer The Gold Seekers Guide! Or the Secret Art of finding Mines of Gold, Silver, Iron, Lead, Copper, Coal, and other Mineral Riches.

THE first discovery of Gold in California was made by Don Jose D'Alvear, an eminent Spanish Geologist, Chemist and Natural Philospher, by means of a newly invented Magnetic instrument called GOLDOMETER, or GOLD SEEKERS GUIDE!

SEERERS GUIDE:
Signor D'Alvear has just arrived at New York from the Gold regions of California, by way of Panama, Chagres, and New Orleans, bringing with him a very large quantity of Gold ore, valued at nearly one million of Dollars, which he collected there, long before the existence of the Gold mines became know to the residents of alifornia generally.
HISTORY OF THE DISCOVERY.
Signor D'Alvear went out to California nearly two years ago, in consequence of certain information which he had received of the geological character of that country, with the firm belief that vast mines of precious motats would be revealed there, upon careful investigation. He was encouraged to this enterprise, also, by his confidence in the course of a certain Magnetic Magnetic and the confidence in the course of a certain Magnetic and the confidence in the course of a certain Magnetic and the confidence in the course of a certain Magnetic and the course of a certain information which is a course of a certain information which is a course of a certain information and the course of a certain was encouraged to this enterprise, also, by his confidence in the powers of a certain Magnetic instrument which he had invented, called the 'Goldometer,' by whose aid he expected to be directed at once to the 'Gold Placers,' if any such existed. Nor were his expectation disappointed. His scientific calculations proved to be founded in terms had preferred visidenced his founded in truth and profound wisdom, and his new instrument, the "Goldometer," fulfilled new instrument; the "Goldometer," fulfilled his highest hopes. In less than two months after reaching California, he struck upon one of the richest gold mines in that country, upon an obscure branch of the Sacramento river, in a gorge of hills extremely rocky and difficult of access, and seldom visited by the native Californians. Disguising his object under the pretence of purely scientific research, he obtained the aid of some fifteen or twenty simple and faithful Indians, and steadily pursued his task, collecting often more than $3,000 worth of gold in a single day, which he concealed in a deep ravine, without exciting any suspicion whatever, until after the discovery of gold at Capt. Sutter's Mill, when the mountains were ransacked by gold seekers, and Signor D'Alvear's "gold placer," the richest, in all California, was beset with greedy adventurers. It is now found that the real mines or sources of the gold lie in the gorges of the mountains, and not in the beds or sands of the rivers. Previous to leaving California, Signor D'Alvear sold his scure branch of the Sacramento river, in a gorge to leaving California, Signor D'Alvear sold his instrument, the Goldometer, a very imperfect one, for $3,000. The person who purchased it confidently expected to make a handsome fortune by simply finding "gold placers" and selling out the right of digging to the gold workers.

MANUFACTURE OF THE GOLDOMETER AND PUB. OF THE GUIDE. Signer D'Alvear, in compliance with the request of numerous scientific gentlemen, has commenced the manufacture of his new Magnetic Instrument, the Goldometer, which he now offers for sale, in the United States, at the remarkable low price of three dollars each, accom-panied by full instructions for use, and a variety Philosophical hints drawn from the ancient and modern sciences, or the ART OF FINDING MINES OF GOLD, Silver, Platinum, Quicksilver, Coal, Iron, Copper, Lead and other Mineral Riches, the whole being given in a publication called the GOLD SEEKER'S GUIDE The Goldometer, is so simple an instrument that a child may learn to operate with it in five minutes. It is not affected by climate, moisture, or any other known cause, (except the natuaral magnet,) and will retain its power of pointing out mineral riches in the earth for any number of years. By the aid of the Guide any person may use the instrument with perfect success.

may use the instrument with perfect success FARMERS AND LAND OWNERS. Farmers and Land owners throughout the United States, who have reason to suspect the existence of any kind of mineral riches upon their lands should avail themselves of this opportunity to test that fact, by the surest of all known tests before the abundance of discoveries in all parts of the country shall have lessened this source of wealth in their estates.

ADVENTURERS TO CALIFORNIA.

Persons going to California cannot make a bet er investment than by purchasing one of these astruments, which will not only be worth fifty times its value there, to sell again, but will be o nestimable worth to those who go in search e Gold, which has been proved by the most abundant experiments both in California and the dant experiments both in California and the United States.

TESTIMONIALS.

Signor D'Alvear does not deem it necessary to encumber this notice with a long list of testimonials in proof of the value of his Goldometer, and Gold Seeker's Guide. The brilliant results of his labors in California, and the discovery, this very week, of fresh veins of Gold in Virginia, and beds of coal in Rhode Island, by its use, are alone sufficient to stamp it as the greatest discovery of sufficient to stamp it as the greatest discovery of the age. Nothing but the extreme cheapness of the instrument, and his desire to see it used for the benefit of mankind induces him to dipose of it at the low price for which he offers it. Besides this, his own desire for wealth is nearly satisfied. The following testimonials, in proof of the value of the Goldometer, selected from a great number equally satisfactory, must suffice for the
