 J. M. BUCK & MORGAN. No. 113 Market St., Philadelphia WHOLESALE DEALERS DRY GOODS.

THE present mode of doing business (we mean the crept system) is now carried to such an extent, that it is not only attended with lisaster and vexation to the cash and prompt solvent buyer, by increasing the number of his competitors, but, unless every precaution and the utmost prudence is observed, the wholesale dealer is involved in difficulty, and two thirds at least who embark in the culty, and two-thirds, at least, who embark in the credit business, are reduced by bad debts to absolute bankruptcy.

With this truth before us, we have determined to change our system of business, by selling only for cash, or on very short time for prompt payment; and beg leave to call the attention of purchasers to the advantages we can offer as inducements to examine our stock.

Possessing every facility for purchasing at the lowest cash prices, and at all times ready to avail ourselves of a fall in the market; watching every Auction Sale in this, and not unfrequently in neighboring cities; we feel confident of our ability to sell, at least, a portion of our stock lower than the same articles can be bought elsewhere, and the whole at the smallest possible advance. Our stock will embrace every article usually found in a Wholesale Dry Goods establishment, and we in a Wholesale Dry Goods establishment, and we respectfulty invite your attention, when in our city, knowing that, with the many inducements we can offer, we cannot fail to convince the doubting and incredulous, that the small advance charged npon the cost will not include losses by bad debts and lawyer's fees, or the expenses of a travelling collector; and, to every cash buyer, who will spare the time to give our cash of the cost of the convention. the time to give our stock a careful examination we pledge ourselves to sell him a satisfactory bill or compel other houses to sell him cheaper than the or compet other nouses to say him interper than incy have ever done before. To conclude, we promise it shall be our constant aim, in our intercourse with the retail dealer, not only to make it his interest to purchase of us, but, by pursuing a course of strict integrity, to merit his confidence, custom and Extra Sunbeam Portraits. H. LAUGHLIN, has opened his new Extra Sunbeam Daguerreotype Gallery, at 376 Market Street, south side, first door above Eleventh Street, (over Rowand & Walton's Drug Store,) Philadelphia, where he will be happy to see his old patrons, and all others who feel desirous of having a life-like portrait of themselves or relative: naving a inte-like portrait of themselves or relatives taken by his new Extra Sunbeam process; visit his gallery and see his beautiful and artistical specimens taken and put up in the latest improvement of the art—faithful likenesses, delineating every feature and expressions of nature in almost life itself. This new process may be well entitled art's best gift to man—a blessing to the human family. The gallery is of easy access—being on the second floor, having to ascend only one easy flight of stairs, and located in one of the most business of stairs, and located in one of the most business sections of Market Street, immediately adjacent to the Baltimore and Philadelphia Railroad Depot.

From his long experience and close observations in the artists of his profession, he flatters himself that he will be enabled to please every one who may visit him with their patronage.

Remember, it matters not as to the color of the dress or drapery, or whether the day be clear or cloudy, the Extra Sun-Beam process is always certain, and the pictures taken by it are warranted to e proof against water, air or dampness of any ind, and will stand for ages without lading in the ast—a truthfulness rarely if ever to be found in

The advantages to be derived from having a large stock to select from, ought certainly to be apparent to every one; only two need be mentioned: 1st. The variety to please the taste. 2d. The advantage of purchasing at the lowest prices; for it is certainly evident to every thinking mind, that the larger the business done, the smaller the profit required. It is so in every branch of trade. The manufucturer sells to the wholesale package dealer; the wholesale package dealer sells to the jobber, and the jobber to the retail country dealer; so that the firms on the package dealer. ountry dealer; so that the farmer or the consume of the article pays at least four profits! There is a Sarsaparilla for sale in the different towns salled old Dr. Jacob Townsend's Sarsaparilla. It is advertised as the original, &c. This is a notorious falsehood. Dr. Townsend has expended over $200,000 the last eight years in advertising his Sarsaparilla, which has obtained a character and reputation throughout the United States and a greater part of the world—the sale being enormous.

This excited the cupidity of certain unprincipled mea, and as old man who has been engaged in peddling cheap publications for a number of years. This man's name is Jacob Townsend. He applied to a number of men to get employment, or to sell the use of his name to put up Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, stating the large sales and sums we had expended in advertising as an inducement to embark in the business. Among others he applied to Charles Watrous, Esq. Editor of the Jammics Farmer, who accorned such a proposition. Mr. H. Q. The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other medicines is, that while it eradicates the disease, it invigorates the body. It is one of the very best

STRING AND SUMMER MEDICINES ever know; it not only purifies the whole system and strengthens the person, but it creates new, purs and rich blood; a power possessed by no other medicine. And in this lies the grand secret of its wonderful success. It has performed within the last two years more than 100,000 quree of severe cases of disease; at least 15,000 were considered incurable. It has saved the lives of more than 10,000 children the past two seasons in the City of New York alone.

As it renews and invigorates the system, gives activity of the limbs, and strength to the muscular system a most extracrdinary degree.

This is only one of more than four thousand eases of Rheumatism that Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla has cured. The most severe and chronic cases are weekly eradicated by its extraordinary virtues.

James Cummings, Esq., one of the assistants in the Lunatic Asylum, Blackwell's Island, is the gentleman spoken of in the following letter.

Dr. Townsond—Dear Sir: I have suffered terribly for nine years with the Rheumatism; considerable of the time I could not eat, sleep or welk. I had the most distressing pains, and my limbs were terribly swellen. I have used four bottless of your Sarsaparilla, and they have done me more than a thousand dollars worth of good, I am so much better—indeed I am entirely relieved. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.
