In reply to a question, avoid the monosyllables yes and no, thus: " Is your father in good health ?" instead of saying "Yes, sir," say, "Very good, sir, a prison, the cost of which is to be $102,000, have-gone to an unnecessary expense, and if persisted in will create an enormous county debt, greatly augment taxation, and be in direct violation of the will of the majority of the citizens. Resolved, That we fully concar in the views set forth in the several reports of Grand Juries in regard to the erection of a new and suitable Prison, and that the old juil is it we stand.

Avoid vulgar, common-place, or slang phrases, such as "by jinks, first rate, I'll bet," &c. Bett ing is not merely vulgar, but sinful, a species of g<sup>a</sup>m bling. Gentlemen never bet. Think before you Speak.-Think twice, think what

Prison, and that the old jail, as it now stands, and the condition in which it is, is a burning dis-grace to the county, but that we believe it never. was the intention of any Grand Jury to recom-mend the building of a Prison the cost of which to speak, how to speak, to whom to speak, and with all to hold up your head, and look at the person to whom you are speaking full in the face with modest dignity and assurance. Some lads have a foolish, sheepish bashfulness, sheer off, hold down was to be so enormous, and out of all reason and baracter. Resolved, That we are not opposed to the e-rection of a jail sufficiently large, sufficiently convenient, and sufficiently beautiful for the convenient, and sufficiently beautiful; for the county of Lancaster, and to attain the ends of justice, but that we are opposed to creating an unnecessary, and unwarranted debt; and unneces sary and heavy taxes, by the erection of such a Prison as that contracted for by the Commis-tioners sioners. Resolved, That in our opinion the said contract is illegal and void, in as much as not a sin-gle fact in regard to the cost, the plan, or loca-tion of said Prison has been laid before any Grand Jury of the county; that, in as much as the Commissioners have not "first obtained the approbation of two consecutive-Grand Juries, and of the Court of Quarter Sessions," they have and of the Court of Quarter Sessions," they have no power whatever to proceed. Resolved, That we recommend the calling of a County Convention in regard to the matter, and that George Morrison, A. S. Ewing, and John McSparran, be appointed delegates to rep-resent Dyamore township in said Convention. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meet-ing be signed by the officers, and published in the names of the city and county.
