in Carroll county, Maryland, and known as the Winchester Farm.

The improvements consist of a substantial two story Brick DWELLING HOUSE, with back building, stone dairy, a large Barn and Stabling, in good repair, with extensive barracks, sheds, &c.

There is a pump of fine water in the yard. The Dwelling House is surrounded with a heautiful grove of ornamental trees. About ten acres of the premises are near enough to the town to be converted into town lots. The whole of the Farm'may easily seet into good timothy meadows, and a market for the hay found on the spot. The health of the place is undoubted. Westminster is distant 28 miles for Baltimore by turnpike, 13 from the Pennsylvania line, and 20 from Emmitsburg. Within two miles of the town are three large family flour mills.

The sale will take place on the premises on Wednesday, the 15th day of May next.

Terms, one third of the purchase money in cash, one third in six months, and one third in twelve months, with interest from the day of sale. The redit payments to be secured by a mortgage on the premises. For further information apply at the Union Bank of Maryland, in Baltimore, or to labe. The loveliest season of the rolling year,—
The Earth shakes off old Winter's icy chain, And vegetation springs to life again; Sweet-scented flowers shed fragrance on the air, And fruitful orchards buds of promise bear;
The feathered songsters carol in the grove,
And swell the note of joyousness and love,
Snow, hail and frost are now no longer seen,—
But all the earth is clothed in freshest green.
