Slave Abduction Prevented. The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer publishes an ac count of a curious affair which occurred at that place on Tuesday last, the main points of which are condensed as follows:

Much excitement was produced yesterday by strange incident at the Depot of the Richmond and Potomac Railroad Company. A negro draymat carried to the office of Adams & Co.s Express tw large square boxes, addressed to "P. Williamson No.—Buttonwood Street, Philadelphia." On being interrogated as to whence they came the negrous showed some confusion. Still the boxes were pla ded on the Express wagon and transported to the cars. As the driver of the wagon turned one of the boxes over rather roughly, he heard a sort of grunt, which proceeded from it. Suspicion was aroused, the boxes opened, and each one was found to contain a stout negro, carefully folded up, with a small quantity of bread and a bladder of water and one of them with a FAN-a useful article in his warm situation. On examining the boxes a large auger hole was observed in each box, partially con cealed by a stout rope-knot, which could be withdrawn while in the cars, and allow the entrance of air. The negroes, we hear, belonged, one to Mrs. C. Christian, of New Kent, the other to Mr. Govan's estate, and were employed as waiters, one at the Washington and the other at the Columbian Hotel Washington and the other at the Columbian Hotel.

Their story is, that they had been prepared for transportation by Mr. S. A. Smith, who keeps a small, shoe store on Broad street, in Mr. J. Lyon's new buildings, and that they paid him well (some $\frac{1}{2}\text{transportation} \text{Or the intervals} \text{This Smith Correlate level.} $60 each) for the job. This Smith formerly kept a shoe store at the sign of the "Red Boot," opposite the Old Market, and has also been a lottery vender. We hear that some years ago he was intimate with Blevins, the great negro kidnapper, (now in the penitentiary) and that on the trial of the latter, a etter to, or from, the same "P. Williamson," Phil-

th was yesterday morning present at the oper ing of the boxes, and immediately went up the stree and took the Northern cars as they passed. This fact being made known, after the cars had departed, a telegraphic despatch was sent to Fredericks-burg to arrest him there. The negro drayman represents that Smith directed him to state at the express office that the boxes were from the armory. At 1 P. M. news was brought by the telegraph that terror of evil-doers, that Smith had been rested at Fredericksburg. He was last evening ight down in the cars, and deposited in jail, to be examined before the Mayor at 10 o'clock

From the National Intilligencer. From China.

We thank Dr. Young, the Chief Clerk of the Navy Department for the Hong Kong China Mail, down to the 27th of February.

The Mail contains an interesting account of a visit paid by the Imperial Commissioner Sue to the U.S. ship Plymouth at Whampoa. The cor-tege consisted of thirty boats, bearing the ensigns of the Madarins. On their approach, Commodore Geisinger sent his boat, under the command of the flag lieutenant, with his flag and that of Dr. Davis, our Commissioner to China, a ceremony that was reciprocated by Sue. A Chinese salute of three guns being fired, the Chinese flav flying at the fore Sue and his suite came on board and were received by Dr. Davis and the United States Consuls at anton and Hong Kong-Dr. Parker acting as interpreter. After the usual ceremonies of recep-tion and the shaking of Sea's left hand by the company; they proceeded to the cabin, where tea was

He was dressed very plainly, with nothing to indicate his high rank, except button of the first class. Not so dignified as eying he is fully his equal in state-craft. His forehead is high, and his eye hazel. He is a man of a very high order of intelligence, and a native of Horan province. He is 53 years old, and has a peing intimated to him that the Commodore would gladly show him the effect of a shell thrown on the opposite shore, he promptly declined, on the ground that the shell in exploding, might injure or kill some one. The Mail does, not think he is so ruel a ruler as he has been represented. After witnessing the scaling of the guns and several manœuvres on the deck, the party returned to the cabin, to partake of dinner in the American style.

The export of Tea to the United States from China, from January I to February 19, 1849, was 6,137,400 lbs., of which quantity 1,521,000 lbs. were black, and 4,615,400 were green. Of the

A letter from London to the Boston Post, thus ompares the facility with which books are printed n London and New York.

"The art of printing advances far more rapidly America than here. Liverpool, nearly as large New York, has no printing done by steam. London, but one or two printers of books, print by steam, and very rarely print more than twelve pages of a 12mo. book at a time. From an exten ive acquaintance with the manner and speed of book-printing in New York and London, I will wouch for the fact that of all the books printed in the two cities, our printers print three copies to the Londoners' one in the same time. First-class pubications are generally better 'got up' in England than America. But, got up equally as well, the New Yorkers will print their two copies to their one. Not one book in four in London is stereotyped: In New York three out of four. In London publisher lately boasted that he actually publ a book in three days from the time he received it That is quoted as an extraordinary operation tha was actually accomplished, once. In New York the Harpers have issued many a book in from wenty-four to thirty hours after its receipt. But will not multiply examples to show the greatest mount of enterprise or inventive genius in An

From the Frontier.

Letters from St. Joseph, (Mo.) dated April 25th. nys:-From what I have been able to ascertain here appears to be a greater number of emigrants rendezvousing at this point than at Independence. At the commencement of the season this was not anticipated by the good people of the latter place, or expected by the business men or citizens of St.

sepn. The roads, in every direction, are lined with the vagons of emigrating parties from the lower comwagons of emigrating parties from the tower counties of Missouri, and from Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois. The majority of these intend moving leisurely as far as Fort Kearny and Council Bluffs, and there make their final start. Un to this time at least three thousand emigran we arrived at this point, en route for California. Several companies have already departed, and are now about one hundred miles from the frontier they intend remaining in camp for some days at Grand Island, which is about two hundred and eighty miles distant. The roads from Independence, Joseph, Fort Kearney and Council Bluffs, there 51. Joseph, Fort Kearney and Council States, incre-connect. The trying times to many will arise be-fore they succeed in reaching Grand Island, Postal mication ceases after leaving their several places of rendezvous, and the emigrant has no ready means to communicate to his friends his

From the Lexington (Mo.) Express, we clip the Hardly an hour in the day passes, but what wagons may be seen passing on their way to Cali-fornia. Many, we hear, take the left hand road at Old Town, and go to Independence. Others cross the river here, for St. Joseph. On the other side of he river, train after train are passing up.

A letter in the St. Louis Reveille, dated near Fort Kearney, April 24th, says:

We are all in good spirits, and have, I think passed through dimost the greatest trials of our trip—the "breaking in" part being generally the hardest part of an undertaking. Indeed, our early arrival here has been very advantageous to us, as we shall be completely prepared for the journey—for its exposures and all emergencies. We have nothing to apprehend from the Indians—not even the stealing of our animals. the stealing of our animals. This point has been selected by the Mormons as much the best route o the States, either in returning or going out, and aged 3 years and 10 months. will be taken by those emigrating this spring.everal hundred Mormons are expected here in a few days. The buffalo are very numerous two hundred and fifty miles from this. Advise friends to procure everything either at St. Louis, Indepenlence or St. Joseph, as nothing but corn can be procured here, and even that not conveniently.— This route is very desirable—the road, for several hundred miles, being unexceptionably good; plenty of water is found in the valley of the Platte by digging two and a half feet, wherever they choo to camp. The water is better in warm weather than when procured from the river. This is imthan when procured from the river. This is important to travellers, as they can stop to camp whenever they wish, and, beside, after striking the Platte, the road is parallel with it for several hundred miles. I have not learned about the facility of procuring wood, but it is not so important as water and grass—that is, if those emigrating are properly provided with pilot bread and dried meats, as we are; also with chafing dishes and spirits of winc. We are thus entirely independent of wood and buffalo chips—particularly when it rains—

[Certificate from the Principal of the Fredonis (New York,) Seminary.] Fredonia, July 17th, 1846. Or, Seth W. Fowle—Dear Sir :—From Dr. Seth W. Fowle—Dear Sir:—From my youth I have been subject to lung compliaints. In February last I took cold—a cough set in, and though slight in the beginning, I made use of the simple remedies which I always kept for that purpose. (These failing, I resorted to others, but my cough increased in violence, and a pain in the side and right lobe of the lungs set in, which soon hecame very distressing and at intervals were attended with oppressive strictures on the lungs.) During this time I expectorated freely, but the mucus ruised from the lungs indicated a disease deeply seated. Two or three Physicians kindly sent me their medicines, which have been very efficient in curing coughs, but they FALED to reach my case, and I began to be somewhat unensy. My cough was considerably aggravated. A friend advised me to try the BAL-SAM OF WILD CHERRY, but I told him I had aggravated. A friend advised me to try the BAL-SAM OF WILD CILERRY, but I told him 1 had swallowed medicine enough. Well, sir, 1 coughed out that day and the night following, and the next day my friend urged me again to try "Doctor Wistar," and at 3 P. M., I was willing to try anything to I told the same than the same try to the sam Wistar," and at 3 P. M., I was willing to try anything, for I coughed constantly. I procured a bottle-drank of it-read the directions—continued taking it from that bottle one week, and when the Balsam was gone my cough and pains were gone, and I have not coughed since.
