FOREIGN NEWS.

From the New York Tribune ARRIVAL OF THE HIBERNIA. ST. Johns, Friday, 10 o'clock A. M. The Hibernia, Capt. STONE, with 43 through assengers, arrived at Halifax about 5 o'clock last evening, bringing London papers to the evening of the 27th, and Liverpool of the 28th ult.—her day of sailing. She will probably arrive at her wharf in Boston about 6 o'clock on Saturday morning.

We are under great obligations to the ger tlemanly and very obliging officers of the Hi-bernia for attentions to our Agent, who was wholly dependent on them for papers, as from some oversight none were for sale at Halifax. M. Frafield, the Envoy Extra of the Roman Republic, has presented a protest to the Gov ernment against the expedition to Civita Vec chia he declared that his Government was willing to accept the mediation of France, and the fact was made known to the French Government on the 12th.

The only answer that he got was, that Frace could not negotiate with what did not exist—that Rome so far as France was concerned, was the Pope; that France interposed in rder to prevent a too violent revolution, and in order that the principal of separization (?) might be applied as largely as possible in the administration of the State

Proclamation about Italy.

Just before the squadron got under way from Marseilles for Civita Vecchia, Gen. Oudinot issued a proclamation, in which he tells his troops that the Government being resolved to maintain in all quarters of the globe their old and legitimate influence, would not allow the destinies of the Italian people to be at the mercy of a foregin power, or of a party which is but a minority. It has confined to our charge, said he, the French flag for us to unfold in the Roman territory, as a striking symbol of our sympathies.

The King of Prussia has again quarrelled with his Parliament, and has definitely refused to accept the imperial crown of Germany. On the 26th, the second Chamber having pass ed some obnoxious resolutions against holding Berlin longer in a state of siege, was forthwith dissolved by royal ordinance. This gave great displeasure to the people of Berlin, and was the immediate cause of apopular commotion which was for some time suppressed by the soldiers, but not until more blood had been shed.

The war in Schleswig continues, and the promised peace seems still very far distant.— Four of the French war steamers returned to Toulon, from Civita Vechia, on the 28th, when preparations were immediately made to em-bark another detachment of 5,000 infantry, two batteries of artillery and several squad rons of cavalry which it was expected would sail for Italy on the 2d inst. This movement might lead to the supposition that Gen. Oudinot expected resistance at Rome. However that may be, it is stated that Gen. Arvzana would not wait for reinforcements to march, a column of six thousand men having been already directed towards that city. The news of the arrival of the French has created a great sensation at Rome, where, it was said, Avozzana had got 20,000 men under arms, to meet them. It is supposed that the meeting was got up for the purpose of fortifying the House of Lords in the step it now seems probable that branch of the legislature will pursue, in throwing out the bill for the e cavigation act.

Should this bill be defeated in the House o Lords, it will, it is supposed, carry down with it all the prominent measures of the ministry and the ministry itself. Candian affairs have been, on several oc-

> Dr. Seth W. Fowle—Dear Sir:—From my youth I have been subject to lung complaints. In February last I took cold—a cough set in, and though slight in the beginning, I made use of the simple remedies which I always kept for that purpose. (These failing, I resorted to others, but my cough increased in violence, and a pain in the side and right lobe of the lungs set in, which soon became very distributions. very distressing and at intervals were attended with oppressive strictures on the lungs.) During this time I expectorated freely, but the mucus raised from the lungs indicated a disease deeply seated. Two or three Physicians kindly sent me their medicines, which have been very efficient in curing coughs, but they FALER to reach my care and I became but they failed to reach my case, and I began to be somewhat uneasy. My cough was considerably aggravated. A friend advised me to try the BAL-SAM OF WILD CHERRY, but I told him I had swallowed medicine enough. Well, sir, I coughed out that day and the night following, and the next day my friend urged me again to try "Deetse." my friend urged me again to try "Doctor star," and at 3 P.
