The St. Louis Conflagration.

Details of the great fire continue to reach us. The fire broke out on board the steamer St. Cloud, which was almost instantaneously communicated to the adjoining steamers.-The burning boats were cut from their moorings and floated down the levee, setting the o such boats as were unable to get out. strong wind prevailing, the boats almost the entire length of the levee soon presented a solid sheet of flame. By this time nearly the whole city became aroused, and the utmost consternation prevailed. The heat from the burning boats set the buildings fronting on the levee on fire, the flames communicating at the lowest street, the very heart of the business portion of the city—and extending from Locust street three-quarters of a mile down the levee, reaching back as far as Second street. Within these bounds nearly every building is in ruins. To attempt to give particulars in the midst of the excitement that now prevails, is utterly im-

The St. Louis Republican office, with extensive materials and machinery, was entirely destroyed. The offices of the New Era, he People's Organ, St. Louis Revielle, and Angieger des Western, shared a similar fate. Some of them, however, saved a great por-tion of their materials. There is only one daily paper printed in English language, the The banking houses of the Messrs. Benoight, J. J. Anderson, Presbury, & Co., Clark & Brothers, Nesbitt & Co., E. P. Tesson, and the Telegraph office, subsequently removed to the opposite side of the river. The vaults of the different banking houses, however, are supposed to be secure. The following steamboats, together their cargoes, were totally destroyed :- White Cloud, Edward Bates, Bell Isle, Taglioni, Boreas, No. 3, Agrypean, Eagle, Sarah, Kit Carson, Montauk, Timour, Acadia, Mameluke, Prarie State, Eudora, St. Peter, Red Wing, Al exander Hamilton, Martha, Eliza Stewart Mandan, Gen: Brooke and Frolic. On the river, at Market street, the progress of the fire was stayed by blowing up the drug May 29] store of Messrs. Doenich & Valloux. Three persons were killed by an explosion on board the steamboat Alice, and it is probable that as twenty lives are lost, during the progress of the destroyer.

Suicide of Coolidge.

The Boston papers have the particulars of the suicide of Dr. Coolidge, who was senten-ced to the Thomaston (Me.) penitentiary for life for murdering Mr. Matthews. The circumstances, as reported to us by a passenger from the East this morning, were these: Coolidge had plotted with a prisoner about to be released, the murder of Flint, who, t will be recollected, was a student with Coolidge at the time of the Matthews murder, and was a chief witness for the govern-ment in the matter. The plot was, that the prisoner, after his release, should go to Bath, where he should call on Flint, under pretence of being sick; that he should pretend that his sickness was in the lower part of the body and that while Flint was bending down, he should strike him in the back part of the neck with a piece of iron, in a spot particularly pointed out by Coolidge, where such a blow would probably be instantly fatal. He was then to place near him a bottle of poison, and a forged letter purporting to be a confession that he was the murderer of Matthews, in-

If this plot was successful, Coolidge would, as he supposed, be liberated. But, tortunately, papers detailing the whole plot, in the handwriting of Coolidge, were found by the warden on the prisoner who was to act so warden on the prisoner who was to act so May 29, 1849.

Coolidge, upon this discovery, was forthwith placed in confinement, when probably seeing that his foul projects were all foiled, he ended his career of crime by taking poison. Upon going to his cell yesterday morning, he was found extended upon the floor in an expiring state, and shortly after died.

Opinion of Dr. J. B. Randall on the merit of Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

We have been induced, in consequence of the benefits received from this medicine, to add our testimony in favor of its extraordinary healing properties. We take great pleasure in stating, that we have frequently used it ourself and administered it to others during the past year, in cases of obstinate coughs, colds, sorness of the chest, &c., and always with the most happy result. We therefore cheerfully recommend to all afflicted with the above diseases, to ray the Balsam of Wild Cherry.

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S SHERRY WINE It may not be generally known to our citizens that the daily bulletins from the Board of Health, are merely the reports furnished by those who are styled "regular physicians." The Thomsonian, the Eclectics, and the Homeopathists, whom the rest ordinarily refuse to hold any professional intercourse with, or to recognize as physicians, consider themselves absolved from all obligation to report to a board composed of gentlemen, who do not allow them a professional character.

We have been furnished with the following re-roperties.

The following certificate of commendation from the Rev. Isaac Sawyer, of the Baptist denomination, will be read with interest. Mr. Sawyer's high 15th of May:
