pared from the liver of the Con Fish for medicinal use, expressly for our sales. Extract from the London Medical Journal. "C. J. B. Williams, M. D., F. R. S., Professor of Medicine in University College, London, Consult-ing Physician to the Hospital for Consumption, &c., says: I have prescribed the Oil in above four hun-dred cases of tuberculous disease of the Lungs, in different satges, which have been under my care the last two years and a half. In the large number of cases, 206 out of 234, its use was followed by marked and uncourocal improvement, varying in marked and unequivocal improvement, varying degree in different cases, from a temporary retard ion of the progress of the disease and a mitigation of distressing symptoms, up to a more or less complete restoration to apparent health. "The effect of the Cod Liver Oil in most of these cases was very remarkable. Even in a few days the cough was miligated, the expectoration dimi-ished in quantity and opacity, the night sweats ccased, the pulse became slower, and of better volume, and the appetite, flesh and strength were gradually improved gradually improved

In conclusion, I repeat that the pure fresh oil from the Liver of the Cod is more beneficial in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption than any agent, mcdicinal, diatetic or regimenal, that has yet here employed it. ι employé

As we have made arrangements to procure the Cod Liver Oil, fresh from head quarters, it can now be had chemically pure by the single bottle, or in boxes of one dozen each Its wonderful efficacy has induced numerou spurious imitations. As its success depends en-tirely upon its purity, too much care cannot be procuring it genuine
