Townsend, vindicated by the people! P. Townsend has at last given up the manu-facture of any more Sarsaparilla, having dis-posed of his business to some strangers. Thus the claim to originality and other pretensions, fall to the ground. He voluntarily abandons them in thus evading the issue before the public, by disposing of the lact that it trade and going into retirement. The fact that ne was NO PHYSICIAN, NO CHEMIST, the occupation of a great portion of whose life was spent as a WORKER on RAILROADS, CANALS, CHOPPING WOOD, SAW-LOGS, DOCK-STICKS, &c., &c. The fact also that his article became notorious for its SOURING, FERMENTING and BURST. for its SOURING, FERMENTING and BURST-ING BOTTLES, thereby DECEIVING and INJURING the sick, and destroying goods demonstrates beyond all reasoning or gamsaying, the fallacy of his pretensions, and the baseless fabric of his claims. Hereafter, it is to be sent out to the people by some STRANGERS, yet bearing the name of S.P. Townsend. We have been informed that these Strangers intend to print on the labels, the name of some chemist, in order to redeem if possible its bad character of souring, fermenting and bursting bottles.

Let the people fully understand that no RE-VAM PING, no new BOTCHING, no PRE-FIXING of chemists' names or any other folly will redeem S. P. It should be called the "Strangers' Sarsaparilla," and not S. P. Townsend's. But if there is no alteration, the people may still expect the same old souring, fer potbeer stuff, as formerly made by Ruel Clapp, the

We have felt it our duty to inform the public of ne true position of this matter, that OLD DR. JACOB OWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA may not be confounded with the souring article. In conclusion, we would remark that some months ago S. P. We understand these strangers who have taken. strangers who have taken up S. P's business intend to remain there. Such conduct needs no comment.
