LANCASTER AS IT IS!

Ho! for F. J. Kramph's OAK HALL CLOTHING STORE.

Let more ambitious poets than myself, Who write for praise, for patronage, or pelf,
Employ their powers, in penning lofty rhymes,
Of other countries and of other climes; [roam There other newer sights will meet your eyes Through fancy's realms the they may cho muse, more humble, fondly sings of home! Hail, Lancaster! progressive city, hail! Where honest industry and wealth prevail! How rapid is thy growth! each passing day Brings new improvements forth in bright array, Where once bleak lots and stagnant pools were seen

"And desolation saddened all the green"— Three giant Cotton Mills may now be found. And handsome buildings ranged in order round. Within the compass of a single year, We see a splendid County Jail appear. The reign of penny-candles now is o'er. Bright burning Gas illumines every store No more the trav'ler has to grope his way, The night is made as brilliant as the day And ere the waning of another year, We'll have a splendid first-class College here. (If that is finished which is now begun,) Three Churches more, whose morning bells th

AND CONSUMPTION. THE uniform success which has attended the use of this preparation—its salutary effect—its power to relieve and cure affections of the Lungs, have gained for it a celebrity equalled by no other medicine. We offer it to the afflicted with entire confidence in its virtues, and the full belief that it will subdue and remove the severest attacks of disease when the history and Lungs. These results as they become publicly known, very naturally attract the attention of medical men and philantropists everywhere. What is their opinion of CHERRY PECTORAL may be seen in the following:
