Difficulty with Portugal. The Washington correspondent of the N. York

Tribune, writes as follows: Mr. Clay our Charge de Affairs at Lisbon, looked for in this country before a great while— So soon as he arrives, the President will transmit a special message to Congress, upon the subject of our present relations with the Portuguese Domin-ions, that will smell considerably strong of gun The difficulties that exist, grow out of the continued refusal of the Portuguese Government to pay the indemnities to American citizens, without pretending to give an excuse for such injustice. Things have been brought to such a crisis, that there is no alternative but payment or war.

Adopt the principle of "large sales and small profit of trade. The plan adopted was to give as good Clothing as could be made in any establishment at one-half the usual price. Success crowned this effort also. Then, with extended means, he undertook a further reduction, by buying his materials from first hands, and was satisfied with a very small profit. The public fully appreciated this effort, and came in crowds to purchase clothing of a superior order, brought within the clothing of a superior order, brought within the reach of all by such very reasonable prices. Ho! FOR F. J. KRAMPH'S "OAK HALL CLOTHING STORE!" Let more ambitious poets than myself,
Who write for praise, for patronage, nor pelf,
Employ their powers, in penning lofty rhymes,
Of other countries and of other climes;
Through fancy's realms they may choose to roam
My muse, more humble, fondly thinks of home!—
Hail, Lancaster! progressive city, hail!
Where honest industry and wealth prevail!
How rapid is thy growth! each passing day
Brings new improvements forth in bright array,
Where once bleak lots and stagnant pools were seen
"And desolation saddened all the green"—
Three giant Cotton Mills may now be found,
And handsome dwellings ranged in order round. And view the vast improvements centered there, Or, hie thee there before those sights you see That sights and suits may be in harmony. There other namer sights will meet your eyes And fill your breast with wonder and surprise; And fill your breast with wonder and surprise;
A thousand garments—rising pile on pile
Of every pattern, color, size and style,

We offer it to the afflicted with entire confidence in its virtues, and the full belief that it will subdue and remove the severest attacks of dis upon the throat and Lungs. These results, as they become publicly known, very naturally attract the attention of medical men and philantropists everywhere. What is their opinion of CHERRY PECTORAL may be seen in the following:

VALENTINE MOTT, M. D.,

VALENTINE MOTT, M. D.,
Prof. Surgery Med. College, New York, says:—
"It gives me pleasure to certify the value and efficacy of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which I consider and Lungs."

THE RT. REV. LORD BISHOP FIELD writes in a letter to his friend, who was fast sinking under an affection of the Lungs:—"Try the Cherry Pectoral, and if any medicine can give you relief, with the blessing of God that will."

CHIEF JUSTICE EUSTIS,

of Louisiana, writes "That a young daughter of his was cured of several severe attacks of Croup by his was cured of several severe attacks of Croup by the Cherry Pectoral."

HARTTORD, Jan. 26, 1848.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Dear Sir:—Having been rescued from a painful and dangerous disease by your medicine, gratitude prompts me to send you this acknowledgment, not only in justice to you, but for the information of others in like affliction.

A slight cold upon the lungs, neglected at first, became so severe that spitting of blood, a violent cough and profuse night sweats followed and fastened upon me. I became emaciated, could not sleep, was distressed by my cough, and a pain through my chest, and in short had all the alarming symptoms of quick consumption. No medicine seemed at all to reach my case, until providentially tried your Cherry Pectoral, which soon relieved and now has cured me.
