Carlisle Correspondence. CABLISLE, July 5th, 1850

Dear " Borr - 's you have always been partie

ularly measure rathe cause of Education, a shot ount of the doings in the Common Schools of Carlisle, as well as other matters, for the benefit o yourself and readers, may not prove uninteresting, Oats 371c. even from me.

I had the opportunity of attending but one Examination—that of the Female High School— which took place Thursday morning, the 27th ult. With it, I was more than delighted, and never be-fore did never before did such a teeling of pride stir my bosom, as, when seated in old "Education Hall," hearing, seeing and teeling the mastery of Mind and Genius, I reflected that this little Eden-spot of Intelligence was yet-almost my home. Upon entering the room, I was struck with the great variety of needle-work, of the neatest execution, tastefully an ranged on different tables, and also, the handsom drawings and paintings that ornamented the walls One thing on which my eyes immediately rested was a chair—the cabinet work of Elizabethan style; the seat, arms and back were covered with tufted work, rich and beautiful, reflecting great work, rich and beautiful, reflecting great credit on its youthful artist. The Exercises commenced with sweet and inspiring vocal music by the young ladies of the School. The different studies were then taken up, and the pupils, questioned by teachers and visitors answered with a promptness and accuracy that was truly gratifying to all present. Compositions were on different subjects, the thoughts expressed in each of which spoke well for the culture and solid-ity of the minds of the Authors. Time will net permit me to speak more particularly; but on leav ing the room, where all might have been instructed as well as pleased, I could not but think that the as well as pleased, I could not but think that the Instructress in charge must be a lady of no com-mon abilities, to be able to use her power over her pupils in such a manner as to combine so much that is tasteful and 'ornamental, with so great' an amount of useful knowledge; and that that School well earned the appellation by which it has been des ignated by some of the Scholars -SCIENCE HALL On Friday evening, the 28th ult, the Exhibition of the two High Schools took place. The Exer-cises consisted of Declamation by the Male High School. The speaking was good, but the Compositions were most excellent. Last, but not least, must be noticed the Music of the evening, which almost charmed our senses away, and which for sweetness and harmony of sound I have never heard equalled. It was duced by a select choir, chosen expressly for the All were delighted, notwithstanding the heat, for that night a rich Feast of the Mind was afforded us. There were twenty Graduates, upon each of whom a diploma was conterred.

On Saturday evening, the 29th ult., an entertainment was served up in the Hall, at which the humble writer of this had the pleasure of being present. All the graduates and members of both schools were in attendance, as well as the Directors and other invited persons, -- probably in all, one hundred and twenty five. You should have been there, dear Editor, to see the young ladies bringing out your bachelor "used to was" colleagues. The hours were spent in mirth and promen Mem bers of the church were there, and I feared for -there must have been a terrible destruction of them. Twas warm, but who thought of that when we had the cooling effect of-Ice Cream. With delightful music closed the pleasure of the evening. A more joyous time I never spent; in after years, those hours, too. short, shall wake a sigh to memory.

The Fourth of July in Carlisle! A grand sight ! Twas a warm and sultry day, the sun shone scorchingly hot upon the earth. I looked out and saw-nothin'! It was a lively Fourth where---and "echo answers, where ? Carlisle is a fine and beautiful town-but, unlike your city, there is no danger of it ever progressing so far as to roll down 'tother side of the globe. I have given you a very hasty and impertect ac-count of the operations in our midst: but you must remember time presses, and that in the art of letter writing for publication, I am quite a Novice. ID The Honorary Degree of L. L. D. was con erred upon the Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN, at the re-ent Commencement of Princeton College, N. J.

WHY SO OFTEN UNHAPPY. THE CAUSES AND THE REMEDY! MANY and many a wife endures years of bodily

An and of mental anguish, prostrate and help-less, embittering her life, that of her husband, and hazarding the future welfare of her children, arising from causes which. if known, would have spared the suffering, the anguish to the wife, and to the hus-band embarrassments and pecuniary difficulties hav-ing their origin in the mind being weighed down and harassed in consequence of the sickness of the com-panion of his bosom. How important that the causes should be known to every wife, to every husband, that the dreadful and harrowing consequences to the health and hap-piness of both may be avoided! on seven children. I was joing stragging unceasingly, to the end that I might gain a moderate competency, but the results of my utmost exertions at the end left me about where I was at the beginning of each year: and that only, with the most stinted economy, suffi-cing with barely the necessaries of life. Finally, this constant effort was beginning to have its effect upon my health: I felt less capable to endure its continu-ance, while I felt the necessity of perseverance. "This constant, unceasing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the prostrated condi-tion of my wife (with occasional intermission) for six vears, much of the time confined to her bed, and of course incapable of taking the charge and manage-ment of household affairs. Her condition arose from causes of which I was ignorant. Oh! what would I have given had I the six years to live over again. What would my wife have given to have been spared the long days and still longer nights prostrate on a bed of sickness!--all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'THE MARRIED W MAR'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.''' Notice.

Letters are daily received of this character, unne-cessary to present. To those yet ummarried, but contemplating mar-riage, or perhaps hesitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations con-tained in these pages, so intimately involving their future happiness, can not be appreciated. It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a na-ture strictly intended for the married, or those con-tomplating marringe; neither is it necessary, since it is every one's duity to become possessed of knowl-edge whereby the sufferings to which a wife, a moth-er, or a sister, may be subject, can be obviated. THOSE persons who are in possession of any of the Township Assessments for 1850, are re-quetted to return the same to the Commissioners Office, without delay, as they are much wanted at this time.
