THE undersigned adopt this method of informing their friends and the public in general, that they have taken the Marble Yard, formerly conducted by Daniel Fagan, situated in North Queen Street, in the city of Lancaster, a few doors north of Van Kanan's (formerly Scholfield's) tavern, where they are prepared to execute all orders in their line, in the neatest manner, at the most liberal prices, and with every possible expedition.

William Leonard acquired a thorough knowledge of the business in the most celebrated Marbl's establishments in Philadelphia and New York. Abner S. Contains no Mercury or other Mineral.

From the "Reading Eagle."

THERE was never, perhaps, a medicine brought before the public, that has in so short a time, won such a reputation as M'ALLISTER'S ALL-HEALING OR WORLD'S SALVE. Almost every person that has made trial of it, speaks warmly in its praise. One has been cured by it, of the most painful Rheumatism; another of the pilles, a third of a troublesome pain in the side, a fourth of a swelling in the limbs, &c. If it does not give immediate relief in every case, it can never do injury, being applied outwardly. As another evidence of the wonderful healing power possessed by this salve, we subjoin the following certificate, from a respectable citizen of Maidencreek township, in this county.

MAIDENCREEK, Berks Co., March 30, 1848.

MAIDENCREEK, Berks Co., March 30, 1848.
Messrs. Ritter & Co.—I desire to inform you that MADERCEER, Berks Cot., Interest to inform you that I was entirely cured of a sovere pain in the back, by the use of M'Allister's All-Healing Salve, which I purchased from you. I suffered with it about twenty years, and at night was unable to sleep. During that time I tried various remedies, which were prescribed for me by physicians, and other persons, without receiving any relief, and at last made trial of this Salve, with a result favorable beyond expectation. I am now, entirely free from the pain, and enjoy at night a sweet and peaceful sleep. I have also used the Salve since, for other complaints, with similar happy results.

Baileysburg, Va., Dec. 13, 1845.

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands: Before I commenced using your Sarsaparilla, my sufferings were almost past expression; my throat was completely ulcerated, I had a dreaful cough, and there were frequently weeks together, that I could not speak above a whisper; and besides, the inflammation from my throat extended to my head, so that my hearing was very much impaired. After taking the Sarsaparilla a short time, my health improved, and my throat is now well; I am as free from cough and tightness of the chest as ever I was, and can hear quite distinctly. Free Trade and Tailors' Rights!—
A few short years ago, the person who wished to make a genteel appearance, was restra ned from the want of means, arising from the fact that the customer tailor charged four prices for his clothing. It was at this time the Cheap Cash Clothing Store started in order to accommodate the public with as good clothing as the customer tailor made, at almost one-half the price. This effort was appreciated by the public, and the great encouragement received induced the proprietor to be first in the field to adopt the principle of "large sales and small profits," and to extend his business beyond a parallel in the history of trade. The plan adopted was to give as good Clothing as could be made in any establishment at one-half the usual price. Success crowned this effort also. Then, with extended means, he undertook a further reduction, by buying his materials from first hands, and was satisfied with a very small profit. The public fully appreciated this effort, and came in crowds to purchase clothing of a superior order, brought within the reach of all by such very reasonable prices. With All Mankind Desire to be Frée! ciated this effort, and came in crowes to purchase clothing of a superior order, brought within the reach of all by such very reasonable prices. With these facilities, it soon became evident that the cheap cash clothing room became too small to accommodate his greatly increased number of customers. In fact, the whole public opened their eyes with astonishment to see the rise and progress of this effort for their accommodation, and in the taking of the president building, which has opened out. this effort for their accommodation, and in the taking of the spacious building, which has opened out a mighty Hall, in their behalf, where the principle first adopted by this house of "quick sales and small profits," is carried out to its utmost extent. This building is sufficiently capacious to accommodate all who may call, and a stock sufficiently large to satisfy every demand, whether it be a single garment or a wagon load. And such are now the facilities of this extensive Hall as to enable him to defy all competition either from this or any other city, fully satisfied that it is an utter impossibility to furnish cheaper or better clothing in the whole world than is now furnished at the Great Lancaster Hall of Fashion and Clothing Bazaar of JOSEPH Hall of Fashion and Clothing Bazaar of JOSEPH GORMLEY, situated in North Queen street, three loors south of Orange, Lancaster.
