A GREAT MEDICINE. We have uniformly retrained from recommend-ing to the public any of the various Patent Medi-cines of the day, unless thoroughly convinced of their value. Among those we consider worthy of notice is the German Bitters, invented by Doctor Hoofland, and prepared by Dr. Jackson, in Phila-delphia. Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, O. "DR. A. M. MAURICEAU-MY Dear Sir. 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion,' for which I enclosed one doflar to your address, came safely to hand. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sonse of gratitude, for myself and wife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions. "My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great an-guish and suffering some months before and during confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting ber life in im-minent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the wort. Letters are daily received of this character, unne-cessary to present. To those yet unmarried, but contemplating mar-riage, or perhaps besitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations con-tained in these pages, so intimately involving their future happiness, can not be appreciated. It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a na-ture strictly intended for the married, or those con-templating marriage; neither is it necessary, since it is every one's duty to become possessed of knowl-edge whereby the sufferings to which a wife, a moth-er, or a sister, may be subject, can be obviated.
