MARRIAGE :

WHY SO OFTEN UNHAPPY. THE CAUSES AND THE REMEDY! MANY and many a wife endures years of bodily suffering and of mental anguish, prostrate and help-less, embittering her life, that of her husband, and hazarding the future welfare of her children, arising from cases which, if known, would have spared the suffering, the anguish to the wife, and to the husband embarrassments and pecuniary difficulties hav-ing their origin in the mind being weighed down and harassed in consequence of the sickness of the companion of his bosom.

How important that the causes should be known to every wife, to every husband, that the dreadful and harrowing consequences to the health and hap-piness of both may be avoided! Life is too short and health too precious to admit any portion of the one to be spent without the full enjoyment of the other. MAURICEAU--My Dear Sir: 'The Married Woman's Privato Medical Companion," for which I enclosed one dollar to your address, came safely to band. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sense of gratitude, for myself and wife, to give atterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions. "My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great an-guish and saffering some months before and during confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in im-minent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your, book highly spoken of as containing some maitters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my ditressed mind and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the grest discovery of M. M.
