Dr. Convers' Invigorating Cordial. THIS justly celebrated Cordial is now considered the only efficacious remedy, compounded from the materia medica; for those and derangements of body and mind, caused by improper habits of youth. The following are some of the effects of the violation of the laws of mans? physical and social being;—Prostration, nervousness, dispepsia, pain in the head, and dimness of vision; weakness of transactions of the end of the contractions of the contrac back and lower extremities, premature decay of vital power.

Weakness of memory and power for mental application slight, dejection, aversion to society, timidity and self-distrust. Young and middle aged men may here learn why they are declining in health; why they become pale, eye-sunken and lusterless; why they are losing their youthful appearance and manly vigor. This Invigorating and Renovating Cordial has restored scores of persons who have ignorantly injured themselves in youth-It contains no mercury, or deleterious drug to injure or expose,—no hindrance from business.

PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE, estab-lished 15 years ago, by DR. KINKELIN, N. W. Corner of Third and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine streets, Philadelphia.

Fifteen years of extensive and uninterrupted practice spent in this city have rendered Dr. K. the most expert and successful practitioner far and near, in the treatment of all diseases of a private near, in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat, or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, gravel, disease arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

MARRIAGE:

WHY SO OFTEN UNHAPPY. THE CAUSES AND THE REMEDY!

MANY and many a wife endures years of bodily suffering and of mental anguish, prostrate and help-less, embittering her life, that of her husband, and hazarding the future welfare of her children, arising from causes which, if known, would have spared the suffering, the anguish to the wife, and to the husband embarrassments and pecuniary difficulties hav-ing their origin in the mind being weighed down and harassed in consequence of the sickness of the companion of his bosom.

How important that the causes should be known to every wife, to every husband, that the dreadful and harrowing consequences to the health and hap-piness of both may be avoided! Life is too short and health too precious to admit any portion of the one to be spent without the full enjoyment of the other. The timely possession of a little work entitled a follows has been the means of saving the health and the life of thousands, as over

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, O.

"DR. A. M. MAURICEAU—My Dear Str.: 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion,' for which I enclosed one dollar to your address, came safely to hand. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sense of gratitude, for myself and wife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions.

"My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desomeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No pecuniary consideration can ever repay the obligations I am under to you for having been the means of imparting to us the matters contained in "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children left motherless.'

"My DEAR SIR: I know you will have the kind "My Dear Sire: I know you will have the kind ness to bear with me in encroaching upon your time, while I acknowledge (in behalf of myself and wife) the obligations we feel ourselves under to you in haveing made known certain matters, contained in your most invaluable 'Married Woman's Frivate Medical Companion.' It has been worth its weight in gold to me. If I express myself rather warmly, you will see that I can not so too warmly, when I inform you of the extent to which I have, through it, been been married so so too warmly, when I inform you of the extent to which I have, through it, been been married so so too warmly, when I inform you of the extent to which I have, through it, been been married soon ten years, and was the father of seven children. I was long struggling unceasingly, to the end that I might gain a moderate competency, but the results of my utmost exertions at the end left me about where I was at the beginning of each year, and that only, with the most sinted economy, sufficient when I obave its effect upon my health: I felt less capable to endure its continuance, while I felt the necessity of perseverance.

Her condition arose from causes of which I was ignorant. Oh! what would I have given had I the six years to live over again! What would my wife have given to have been spared the long days and still longer nights, prostrate on a bed of sickness!—all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.'" How many are suffering from obstruction or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine their health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice! How many suffer from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor-albus (weakness, debility, &c., &c.)! How many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement! How many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and whose lives are iconorated during such time, will find whose lives are jeoparded during such time, will find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief!

I have suffered years from causes which you point out in your book, without knowing what to do. I obtained a copy, and found my case treated of. I trust every female will avail herself of the information contained in its pages."

To those yet unmarried, but contemplating marriage, or perhaps hesitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations contained in these pages, so intimately involving their fature happiness, can not be appreciated.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage; neither is it necessary, since it is every one's duty to become possessed of knowledge whereby the sufferings to which a wife, a mother, or a sister, may be subject, can be obviated.

THIS Medicine has acquired a very extended and established reputation wherever it has been used, based entirely on its own merits, which its superior efficacy has alone sustained. The unfortunate victim of hereditary disease, with swollen glands, contracted sinews, and bones half cari-ous, has been restored to health and vigor. The scrollous patient, covered with ulcers loathsome to himself and his attendants, has been made whole. Hundreds of persons, who had groaned hopeless-ly for years under cutaneous and glandular disorers, chronic rheumatism, and many other comders, circuit rheumatism, and many other com-plaints springing from a derangement of the secre-tive organs and the circulation, have been raised as it were from the rack of disease, and now, with regenerated constitutions, gladly testify to the effi-cacy of this inestimable preparation.
