At length we have light-thanks to our City fathers. On Wednesday night last, the lamps were lighted, some with gas and others with fluid, causing our streets to present quite a brilliant and lively appearance, notwithstanding the murky at mosphere and general inclemency of the weather. It gives our little City quite a lively aspect after night-fall, and pedestrians can now get along with safety and comfort.

FUGITIVE SLAVES AT THE NOBITHWEST .- Mr Calvert, an agent who was sent to Chicago, St. Louis, to recover fugitive slaves, informs wer to any of them. He says that there are a large number of fugitive slaves at Chicago but that through the activity of the abolitionists i is almost impossible to recover any of them. One female slave consented to return with him bu she was forced from him at Bridgewater by fifty or sixty colored persons. In pursuit of fugitives he went to Chatham, in Canada, where he found a large number of them, and many others constantly
