A GREAT MEDICINE.

We have uniformly retrained from recommending to the public any of the various Patent Medicines of the day, unless thoroughly convinced of their value. Among those we consider worthy of notice is the German Bitters, invented by Doctor Hoofland, and prepared by Dr. Jackson, in Philadelphia. One instance in particular, in which the superior virtues of this medicine have been tested, has fallen under our observation. During the last summer, a son of Mr. Abm. Crabill, of this county, was very seriously afflicted with Liver Complaint, and after trying in vain various remedies, he purchased a bottle of the Bitters, and after using it, was so much relieved of his distressing using it, was so much relieved of his distressing A CARD.

THE subscribers beg leave thus to acquaint their friends and the public, that they've made such arrangements with a house in the city of Philadelphia, as will enable them to execute orders for the using it, was so much relieved of his distressing malady, that he procured another bottle, and is restored entirely to health.

From the Weldon Herald, published at Weldon, N. C., January 24, 1850, which said—
PATENT MEDICINES.

PATENT MEDICINES.

It is very seldom that we make any allusion to Patent Medicines, either approving or otherwise. Unfortunately for the country, and for honest and conscientious inventors and venders of these medicines, the land is becoming flooded with quack preparations, that are made alone for profit and are fit not even for the dogs. In this state of things it is hard to tell which are, and which are not urchase and salé of BANK STOCK, RAIL ROAD STOCK, STATE AND UNITED STATES LOANS, &c. &c., At the Board of Brokers, with promptness and fidelity and on as favorable terms in every respect, as can be done in Philadelphia. Money safely invested for individuals on Estates, in Bonds and Mortgages, State and United States securities, &c. &c. Personal attention will be given to the proper transfer, &c., of worth having. If a person gets an indifferent med-cine the first time he purchases, he is very apt to condemn the whole of them and buy no more, and nyentors must only blame those of their number, inventors must only blame those of their number, [who ignorantly combine plain medicines together for the purpose of making money.] for the ill success which attends the efforts of the deserving. We believe Dr. C. M. Jackson's Hoofland's German Bitters to be a most excellent medicine, and one that should be highly popular in these days of Temperance; for they are altogether Vegetable in their composition, without one drop of Alcoholic Spirits in them. This medicine is innocent, but strengthening in its effects, and richly Stock, Loans, &c., and such general supervision as will obtain for those intrusting business to them the safest and most de-Also, the collection or votes, Checks, bills, &c., on Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore, and the towns &c. in this vicinity.

"DAYTON, May 1, 1847.

"DR. A. M. MAURICEAU—My Dear. Sir: 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' for which I enclosed one donar to your address, came safely to hand. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sense of gratitude, for myself and wife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions." My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some mouths before and during continement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly spoken of as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desomeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No peculiary consideration can ever repay the obligations I am under to you far having been the means of imparting to us the matters contained in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' But for this, ore another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children left motherless.'

If I express myself rather warmly, you will see that I can not do so too warmly, when I inform you of the extent to which I have, through it, been benefited. I will state my situation when I obtained your book through the merest curiosity I look it as one of the most fortunate events of my life your book through the merest curiously hook appart is as one of the most fortunate events of my life. I had been married some ten years, and was the father of seven children. I was long struggling unceasingly, to the end that I might gain a moderate competency, but the results of my utmost exertions at the end left me about where I was at the beginning of each year; and that only, with the most stinted economy, sufficing with barely the necessaries of life. Finally, this constant effort was beginning to have its effect upon my health: I fielt less capable to endure its continuance, while I felt the necessity of perseverance.

"This constant, unceasing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the prostrated condition of my wife (with occasional intermission) for six years, much of the time confined to her bed, and, of course incapable of taking the charge and management of household affairs. Her condition arose from causes of which I was ignorant.
