Twentieth Edition. 18mo., pp. 250. Price, $1.00. THIS WORK IS INTENDED ESPECIAL-LY FOR THE MARRIED, or those contempla-ting marriage, as it discloses important secrets which hould be known to them particularly. Here, every female—the wife, the mother—the one either budding into womanbood, or the one is the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates an important change—can discover the causes, symp-toms, and the most efficient remedies and most cer-tain mode of cure, in every complaint to which here sex is subject. The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands, as the innumerable letters received by the author (which he is permitted by the writers to publish) will attest.

SICKLY AND UNHAFTY WIPDS. Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, O. "DATON, May I, 1847. "DR. A. M. MAURICEAU-My Dear Sir: 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion,' for which I enclosed one donar to your address, came safely to hand. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sense of gratitude, for myself and wife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions. "My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great an-guish and suffering some months before and during continement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in im-minent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your; book highly spoken of, as containing some matters mute types. On its receipt and perusal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Deso-meax provided a remedy. It opend a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No pecu-niary consideration can ever repay the obligations I am muter to you for having been the means of im-parting to us the matters contained in 'The Married Woman's Frivate Medical Companion.' But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children left motherless.' Extract from a Letter. Competence and Health.

Competence and Health. "LANCASTER, PA, Oct. 24, 1847. "My DEAR SHI: I know you will have the kind ness to bear with me in encroaching upon your time, while I neknowledge (in behalf of myself and wife) the obligations we feel ourselves under to you in hav-ing made known certain matters, contained in your most invaluable 'Married Womar's Frivate Medical Companion.' It has been worth its weight in gold to me. If I express myself rather warmly, you will see that I can uot do so too warmly, when I inform you of the extent to which I have, through it, been benefited. I will state my situation when I obtained your book through the merest curiosity I look upon it as one of the most fortunate events of my life. I had been married some ten years, and was the father of seven children. I was long struggling unceasingly, to the end that I might gain a moderate competency, but the results of my utmost excritons at the end left me about where I was at the beginning of each year; but the results of my utmost exertions at the end left me about where I was at the beginning of each year; and that only, with the most sinted economy, suffi-cing with barely the necessaries of life. Finally, this constant effort was beginning to have its effect upon my health : I felt less capable to endure its continu-ance, while I felt the necessity of perseverance. "This constant, unceasing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the prostrated condi-tion of my wife (with occasional intermission) for six vears, much of the time confined to her bed, and of course incapable of taking the charge and manage-ment of household affairs. Her condition arose from causes of which I was ignorant. Ohl what would

Oh I what would I have given had I the six years to live over again I What would my wife have given to have been spared the long days and still longer nights prostrate on a bed of sickness !-- all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.'"

To those yet unmarried, but contemplating mar-riage, or perhaps hesitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations con-tained in these pages, so intimately involving their future happiness, can not be appreciated. It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a na-ture strictly intended for the married, or those con-templating marriage; neither is it necessary, since it is every one's daty to become possessed of knowl-edge whereby the sufferings to which a wife, a moth-er, or a sister, may be subject, can be obvinted.
