W. ROBACK, who, during his experience of over a quarter of a century, during which time he has given advice, and employed the wonderful powers which he only is the possessor of in this country, having been born with this wonderful, most powerful science. Who can doubt that we are not under the influence of an doub that we are not under the influence of destiny, and governed by the reciprocal influence of the celestini, terrestrial, and the astronomical systems, whose mutual relation to each other once disturb, and will it not destroy the unison of actiont Do you doublipredestination then why not every man gain the celebrity of General Taylor, Daniel Webster, or a Henry Clay1 and yet there are some who are foolish enough to doubt that a man may.be born with the power to see into future events. Such should not condemn till they have called to see the seventh son of the seventh son, whose advantages from travelling have given him more experience than sill the other astrologers, male or female, in the United Sates. can doubt that we are not under the influence of the United Sates.

the United Sates. How can it be possible that the destiny of man should be governed by the mere shuffling of a pack of eards? and yet there are thousands who allow themselves, with open mouths; to swallow the greasy words of some old woman, whose true skill consists in filling them with wonders that are more for the digestion of others, who credulous, yet more scientific. It is such that bring discredit on a pro-fersion the has been acknowledged to he a science ession that has been acknowledged to be a scien of the highest order, from time immemorial; and it is the only profession that has holy anthority to sus-tain it. The high respect which General Taylor and the following gentlemen had for Astrology, is shown by his letter for his nativity, of the 10th of February, 1846, to the subscriber, in which he pre-dicted all his victories, and named the places of the late war with Merico; he also predicted that he would be elected President of the United States, and also foretold that he would notlive but a short time after his election, which prediction has been filled to the very letter. of the highest order, from time immemorial; and it

A GREAT MEDICINE. We have uniformly refrained from recommend-ing to the public any of the various Patent Medi-cines of the day, unless thoroughly convinced of their value. Among those we consider worthy of notice is the German Britters, invented by Doctor Hoofland, and prepared by Dr. Jackson, in Phila-delphia. One instance in particular, in which the superior virtues of this medicine have been tested, has fallen under fur observation. During the last summer, a son of Mr. Abm. Crabill, of this coun-ty, was very seriously afflicted with Liver Com-plaint, and after trying in vain various remedies, plaint, and after trying in vain various romedies, he purchased a bottle of the Bitters, and after using it, was so much relieved of the distressing malady, that he procured another bottle, and is re-
