therefore,

Repoled That we, as the Democrats of this township, have thought it proper to meet the call of a self-constituted committee, pretending to be the Democrate County Committee of this county, for the sole purpose of expressing, in a more emphatic manner than we have heretofore done, our disapprobation of this pusy attempt to break thrown and violate all usages of the party, under the delisive hope of selfating air, and for the purpose of gratifying personal hared and envy.

Resolved: That, as Democrats, we firmly adhere to that principal syrticle of our creed, which assumes that all power is vested in the people; and governed by the greater number! that we see this principle carried out and exemplified in our Conventions, the adopted means of ascertaining the will and wishes of the majority; which being known, we hold ourselves bound to acquiesce.

Resolved. That the County Convention which was assembled on the 18th of September; 1850, at the call of the County Committee, was properly called, and its members represented the will and the wishes of the Democracy; that, according to the admitted principle expressed in the foregoing resolution, and which forms the basis of Democratic action, the majority of that body had power to regular the time of holing the succeeding Convention action, the majority of that body had power to regulate the time of holing the succeeding Convention and appoint such committees throughout the county as were deemed proper.

Resolved, That in appointing a County Committee the Convention acted within the scope of legitimate power, and it is the duty of every stern and unwavering Democrat to acquiesce in such appointment: that any agent who attempts to force himself upon his principals after being discharged, should learn his political code anew—at least, if he pre-learn his political code anew—at least, if he pretends to Democracy.

Rsolved, That the Convention which was held on the 13th of November, 1850, in accordance with a resolution of the preceding Convention, was rightly convened, and if any portion of Democracy were attached to particular men, it was its duty to make known its preference at the respective delegate meetings and select such del gates as would make them known in Convention; that a failure to do this, and then resorting to a separate Convention, this, and then resorting to a separate Convention, we read the evidences of an unthinking, weak, and harmless minority which is willing to permit personal attachments to carry it beyond Democratic usage and propriety—even to the worst form of disorganization.

Resolved, That we utterly disapprove of and Resolved, That we utterly disapprove of and condemn the conduct that has led to the holding of delegate meetings to night, and look upon the action of these meetings as void and not the least binding upon good and faithfu Democrats.

Resolved, That the delegates appointed at the Convention of the 13th of November, 1850, namely Jacob B. Amwake, C. M. Johnson, Peter Martin, Jacob B. Amwake, C. M. Johnson, Peter Martin, Thomas Dean, Dr. John Ream, Dr. II L. Winters, are the regularly constituted delegats to the Read-ing Convention, and those appointed at the Conven-tion of the 26th inst., are the proper delegates to the Harrisburg Judicial Convention.

Resolved, That in all the actions of the late County Committe we see and recognize nothing but disorganization, and the proceedings of a Convention assembled at the call of a few of its members, must be void.

Resolved, That as lovers of our common country,

Resolved, That as lovers of our common country, and particularly as Democrats, we duly appreciate the services of our distinguished republican patriot and honest statesman, Lewis Cass, whose efforts for the general weal, untarnished by any blemish of impure motives; will ever form a page in the history of America that may be perused with honest and just pride. His recent labors have kindled in the hearts of the Democracy a still stronger feeling of admiration, which must soon result in extending to him the reward he so justly merits. The man who can thus fearlessly discharge his duties in the councils of his nation, may well be entrusted with the proudest gift in the power of the people. the proudest gift in the power of the people.

On motion, it was agreed that the Township Committee appointed at the delegate meeting in November last, be continued during the time for which it was appointed.

JACOB S. MYERS, Chairman. John R. Albright, Secr'y.

Pequa, March 4, 1851. Mr. Editor:-Our Delegate Meeting at friend Houston's, on the 1st inst., was quite a respectable one, I can assure you—composed as it was of all the leading men of the Democratic party of Salisbury twp., in whose hands the political business of the party is sate. The instructions to our delegates to vote for none but BIGLER men were given unan-imously, there not being one, in that whole meeting, who selt himself instified to raise a dissenting voice. Rest assured Salisbury twp. through that meeting speaks trumpet tougned in favor of our future standard bearer, Col. BIGLER. Depend upon it the efforts of another gentleman to receive the compli-mentary vote of Lancaster co., is a humbug; and the efforts of Thomas H. Burrowes, through the Lancasterian, to humble the honored name of our illustrious and philanthropic Buchanan, is a humbug; and for the new County Committee to suppose they are the true Committee is a humbug; and for them to expect that their delegates will be admit-ted at Reading, is a humbug. The whole efforts of that faction, throughout, is a humbug; in fact, Sir, it is all a perfect humbug-

Another bright inhabitant of earth has passed away in the meridian of life, to that " undiscovere bourne," the exquisite pleasures of which it is fondly hoped, the mind hath not conceived. From of friends and relatives, death ha selected the brightest ornament for his victim. It gives us pain to record the loss of this estimable woman, whose active benevolence, christian charity and many social virtues, rendered her beloved by all; but to those who enjoyed her intimacy, she was most endeared, and by them her loss will be

In her limited intercourse with the world, she was modest and unobtrusive, and all her actions were characterised with dignity and love. Around the bedside of disease, her hand waved loving! over the head of the smitten one, and with the so-lace of the christian's faith, she would smooth the pillow of affliction, and make light the hand of

From an admiring world she chose to fly;

With nature there retired, and Nature's God,
The silent paths of wisdom trod,
And banished every passion from her breast;
But those the gentlest and the best,
Whose holy flames, with energy divine,
The virtuous heart enliven and improve,
The conjugal and the maternal love.

To the afflicted members of her family, she has left the bright image of her moral worth for imitation; and to them be the solace given; she died, as she had lived, in close communion with the most righteous will of Heaven. Let not the husband and motherless children, repine their loss, for it is

Would thy fond love, His grace to her control And, in those low abodes of sin and pain,

Her pure exalted soul,

Unjustly, for thy partial good, detain?

Unjustry, for thy partial good, detain?
No, rather strive thy groylling mind to raise,
Up to that unclouded blaze,
That heavenly radiance of eternal light,
In which enthron'd, she now in pity sees,
How frail, how insecure, how slight Ev'n love itself, if rising by degrees
Beyond the bounds of this imperfect state, Whose fleeting love or con must and

Whose fleeting joys so soon must end,
It does not to its sovereign good ascend.
Raise then; thy soul, with hope elate,
And seek those regions of serene delight,
Whose peaceful path, and ever-open gate,
No feet but those of harden'd guilt shall miss,
There, death himself the loved one shall restore
There yield up all his pow'r never to divide There yield up all his pow'r ne'er to divide

TAYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL: For the Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRON-CHITIS, CROUP, ASTH-MA, WHOOPING-COUGH AND CONSUMPTION. THIS truly valuable Remedy for all diseases of the Lungs and Throat, has become the chief eliance of the afflicted as it is the most certain cure known for the above complaints. While it is a powerful remedial agent in the most desperate and almost hopeless cases of Consumption, it is also, in diminished doses, one of the mildest and most agreeable family medicines for common coughs and colds. Read below the opinion of men who are known to the world, and the world respect their opinions.

FROM PROF. HITCHCOCK.

James C. Ayer.—Sir: I have used your "CHERRY PECTORAL," in my own case of deep-seated Bronchitis, and am satisfied from its chemical constitution that is is an admirable compound father elief of laryngial and bronchial difficulties. If my opinion as to its superior character can be of any use you are at liberty to use it as you think proper.

"AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is one of the most valuable preparations that has fallen under our notice. After a careful examination, we do not hesitate to say we have a large appreciation or its merits and the fullest confidence in its usefulness for coughs and lung complaints."

Dr. Brewster, of Windham Co., Conn., sends us the following testimony:—

Dr. J. C. Ayer.—Dear Sir:—I enclose you a certificate from Mrs. Catharine K. Cady, a highly respectable lady of this village, wife of Mr. Seth Cady, Deputy Sheriff, Windham county Conn. The cure in her case was very prompt, and has attracted general attention.
