INTERCOURSE, April 10, 1851. MR. EDITOR :- I observe from articles appearing in the Democratic papers of the county, that there is some attempt at speculation, as far as the election of Leacock township is concerned; and where as my name is brought in question, and misrepresentations with it, and rather too much importance attached to local elections, I feel it a duty to give you some of my views connected with matters in

We as Democrats of Lancaster county and the Keystone State, recognize no other name than Democracy in giving name to our politics-consequently at our election in Leacock we acted as Democrats and voted as Democrats, and frown at the idea of being designated by individual politics, and wish it to be understood that our preference only goes as far as the nomination of candidates in matters of State Hence I wish Democrats to deduce the idea that I was in favor of Col. FRAZER's nomination for Governor-not because I thought him the most available candidate at this time, but because he is a man fully a medical attendant, to return to the United States. Once more the bridal day was named, and with joyful hearts the lovers started for home, deeming it advisable not to be united until they should reach New York. On reaching Panama the hero of our tale was attacked with the Chagres fover. After months of delay there, he again recovered sufficiently to resume his journey to this city—not, however, until the fifth appointed time had passed by. Yes terday afternoon the lovers were united in one of the up town churches. The young lady has certainly given a most satisfactory exemplification of woman's constancy.—New York Sun. qualified for the office, was from our own county and I thought it nothing more than the duty of every Democrat to support his own worthy citizens first, and then if they fail, stick to the nomination like Democrats should. And also upon the same princi ple, I go heart and hand for the nomination fo President of a citizen from our own State, yes even county, the worthy and talented JAMES BUCK ANAN, as a statesman deserving the confidence and support of every true American-with high hopes of his nomination and election. Yours, &c. JOHN V. ECKERT.

For the Intelligen MR. SANDERSON : - By chance, that disorganizing paper, the Lancasterian of the 26th of March, fell into my hands; and on examining its columns, as I always do when I happen to get hold of it, I find the returns of old Bart so miserably stated in it, that I feel constrained to say a word concerning them. For instance; Inspector, Joseph Montgomery in place of James Montgomery-Jeremiah Swisher instead of John Swisher-James Maloy instead of John Maloy-T. Lytle instead of F. Lytle, &c., &c.; and the number of votes is also incorrect. The author of the article in that paper must either not be acquainted with the people of Bart township, or else has become so addicted to miscalling and misrepresenting the community, that he oven cannot give his own political friends their correct names. As to there not being "a fiozen Buchanan Guerrillas," (as he is pleased to term the friends of Mr. B.,) in the district which has added so much glory to the late Demo cratic victory in Bart, the assertion is as false as it impudent and is out of place. The Presidential question was not dragged into the Spring election. If it had been made the qualification for the several offices, I think there would not have been a dozen Winnebagoes found in the district-as every person acquainted with the politics of Bart, on the subject of the Presidency, must be aware that a very large majority of the Democracy are in favor of the Hon. James Buchanan. So I do not think the writer fo the Lancasterian has any room for rejoicing over the result. If it is his design to create a bad feeling amongst us, or a division in our ranks, he should be looked upon as a disorganizer, and treated accordingly. If his bombastic assertions and false statements are made for the purpose of giving strength in another quarter, to his fabulous proceedings, it is but a poor prop to support a tottering cause. I am sorry, indeed, that there are any Democrats in the County of Lancaster, so lost to rectitude and party policy that they would resort to such disorganizing means to gratify a dissatisfied spirit, by attempting to cast a stigma upon any portion of the party who may think proper to disagree with them, before nominations, about men. This is not the way to get out votes or strengthen the party-but, on the other hand, it is the way to secure an easy victory for our enemies.

JUSTICE.

BART, April 4, 1851. A Compliment.

The Albany Argus, alluding to the result of the twentieth ballot in the Massachusetts Legislature, to elect an United States Senator, and which failed again through the constancy of the small body of national democrats in the house who refuse to vote for the arch-abolitionist, Sumner, says:-

"The attempt to force the democratic party of Massachusetts into the embraces of abolitic has proved a failure. It retains its identity and its associations with the democracy of the Union, and is saved from the reproach and dishonor of a conon the 3d of March, at Watah city, MAW-FEE-WAH-HAH-DAUCHY-KEW, Esq., to Miss with a pestilent and dangerous political nection with a pestilent and dangerous political neresy. To the few sturdy and inflexible democrats in the legislature who have, through this protracted contest, stood firm in their allegiance to tracted contest, stood firm in their allegiance to their principles and to the Union, and have spurned the terms of a bargain' which exacted base recretive terms of ancy to both, all honor and thanks are due, and will be accorded by the democracy of the Union, and all the friends of amicable relations between the different sections of this great confederacy."

A CURIOSITY.-A most wonderful piece of linen has been woven for the World's Exhibition, by a weaver named Haddock, near Warrington, in the north of Ireland. It is a web of fine cambric handkerchiefs. Small print can be read through it, and yet the web is so close and compact that a single thread could not be distinguished without the aid of a microscope, or rather web glass. The cambric, when held up to the light, looks like a fine and airy fabric. In the production of this beautiful gossamer looking cambric, Mr. Haddock almost realized what ancient classic fiction ascribed to the performance of Arachine, who, as mythologists inform us, was converted into a spider, on account of equaling that ingenious little architect in her production of fine webs.

HORRIBLE MURDER —A small boy, about five years old, named John Troutfelter Rumpf, son of Mr. Jacob C. Rumpf, butcher, living on Hampstead, near Choptank Street, Baltimore, had been sent to school on last Thursday afternoon, but not going there or returning home at night, search was made for him, and on Friday afternoon, his body was found lying in an old unoccupied frame slaughter house, nearly opposite to Mr. Rumpf's residence, owned by Jacob Baukerd.

The body had been dragged, or carried, and thrown into the slaughter house, through a small rear window. From Hampstead street along round to this window, were several places on the ground where blood had dropped; and on the sence, and a wooden bar of a rear door, were marks of blood made by the fingers of some one. In the corner where the body lay were two places much stained with blood, and on the floor were found about th third of a brick saturated with blood, and an old broom handle—part split off-stained with human gore, evidencing that the work of the murderer, or murderers, had been finished there, although from the small quantity of blood found certainly com

The child was discovered lying on his face, with one arm partly under his head. On his head was found a deep cut over the left eye, which had the appearance of being done with a sharp instrument; and back of each temple were also ghastly wounds.
The other portions of his head and face were bruis ed and mashed almost to a jelly by beating—acros his back was a severe bruise, and the little fellow hands and arms were black with bruises, evidently received in the futile effort to fend off the blov aimed at his head. An inquest was held upon the body, which resulted in the binding over of two lads named William Irons and Francis Hopkins, for further examination. This shocking murder has caused much excitement in Baltimore.

MANOGANY VENEERS & MOODBLEAS AND HOUSEkeepers will find in our stock a complete assortment of Pots, Kettles, Pans, Knives and Forks, Spoons, Ladles, Shovel and Tongs, Coffee Mills, Waiters, and Looking Glasses. A general assortment of CEDAR WARE. Tubs, Buckets, Churns, Stands, bushel, half bushel, peck and half MARRIAGE OF PROF. WEBSTER'S DAUGHTER. Miss Harriet W. (daughter of the late Prof. J. W. Webster,) was married at Cambridge, Mass., on the 2d inst., to Mr. S. W. Dabney, of Fayal, the bropeck measures. ther of her eldest sister's husband. When her father was convicted of the murder of Dr. Park man, this young lady, who had for some time been betrothed to Mr. D., absolved him from his engagement, which, however, he would not accept.-They, with Mrs. Webster, are about making a visit to Fayal.

BUTTER.-From the census returns of five coun ties adjoining Philadelphia, it appears that they produced, in 1850, 11,383,182 pounds of butter.-The average price of butter in the Philadelphia market, which these counties supply, is about 20 cents per pound. The money value therefore of this single product is over two millions and quarter of dollars, ($2,276,636.)

The Postmaster General has established "daily mail" between this City and Landisville.

WOMAN'S CONSTANCY -- Some four years since a WORAN'S CONSTANCY.—Some four years since a young man, residing in this city, formed the acquaintance of a young lady, and, after visiting her for some time, it was mutually agreed that they would be joined together in the bands of wedlock. The day was determined upon, and with anxions hearts they looked forward to the time when they should the made one. About a week before this period arrived, the young man was called upon to deplore the loss of a fond and affectionate perent—this unforseen event rendered it necessary that the marriage day should be postponed for some months. A few weeks before this time had passed, an advantageous business engagement was proffered to the intended groom to visit California. On consultation, the bride and her friends came to the conclusion that a second postponement of the day would prove benefice and postponement of the day would prove benefice.

After spending a year in San Francisco, the young man determined to estile there permanently; and, in accordance with this determination, wrote to the lady and requested her to join him in California; at the same time naming the day for the consummation of their anxious hopes. With great joy the lady made due preparation for her departure; and in course of time reached California. Imagine her sorrow on arriving there to find her intended husband lying at the point of death from an attack of brain fever. Dr. J. C. Ayer—Dear Sir:—I enclose you a certificate from Mrs. Catharine K. Cady, a highly respectable lady of this village, wife of Mr. Seth Cady, Deputy Sheriff, Windham county Conn. The Cady, Deputy Sheriff, Windham county Conn. The cure in her case was very prompt, and has attracted general attention.

West Killingly, Ct., Sep. 23, 1848.

This may certify that I was afflicted with a very severe cough in the winter of 247-8, which threatened to terminate in consumption. I had tried many medicines in vain, and was cured by the use of "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral." of "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral." CATHERINE K. CADY.
