THE MURDER CONFESSED AND FOUR OF THE MURDERS ARRESTED.

BALTIMORE, April 19.—Drummond, the man who was arrested about a month since, on the charge of participating in the terrible murder of the Cosder lamily near Georgetown Cross Roads. Kent county participating in the terrible murder of the Cosden family near Georgetown Cross Roads, Kent county, Md., on the night of February 27th, has made a confession disclosing the true authors of the crime. He says that five men, named Murphy, Shelton, Ford, Sills and Taylor, were the perpretrators of the murder. He denies that he had anything to do with it. He only knew of the conspiracy of the others for the commission of the crime.

The first four mentioned, Murphy, Shelton, Ford and Sills, have been arrested at Havre de Grace.

Taylor, the other party, is still at large. Webster,

Taylor, the other party, is still at large. Webste the uncle of Mrs. Cosden, who has been suspecte in the uncie of Mrs. Coscen, who has been suris not implicated.

In his confession, Drummond also intimates that if some of the Cosden family had not escaped and if some of the Cosden family had not escaped and if some of the Cosden family had not escaped and if some of the more than the management of plunder and massacre; and other families in the neighborhood, against whom they entertained feelings of hostility, would have been murdered the same night. The disclosures thus made add a deeper dye to the already terrible crime which has agitated the community where it occurred to such an extraordinary extent.

Ruchanan in Northumberland.

The American Intelligencer, a sound and ably conducted Democratic newspaper, published at McEwen'sville, Northumberland county, Pa., comes to us last week with the names of James Buchanan for President, and Gen. SAM. HOUSTON for Vice President, displayed at the head of its columns.-The same paper has a temperate and well written article on the subject of the next Presidency, which we shall endeavor to find room for in our next issue

Mifflin County.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Millin county, held on the 10th inst., Gen. JAMES BURNS Was appointed a delegate to the Harrisburg Convention with instructions to support Hon. A. S. WILSON, of Lewistown, as a candidate for the Suprem

The meeting also passed resolutions in favor of Gen. Cass for President, and Col. BIGLER for Gov-

There was quite a flare-up in the New York Senate last week-all of the Democratic Senators, with but three exceptions, resigned on Thursday, in consequence of the determination of the Whigs to pass the bill for enlarging the Erie Canal, it being considered unconstitutional to increase the State debt for that or any other purpose. Twelve of the Senators resigned, and the bill was then laid on the table for want of a quorum.

This Canal bill will be a prominent issue in the next State election. The Democrats are in fine spirits, and the resigning members will confidently appeal to the people through the ballot-boxes.

The Legislature has adjourned finally, for want of a quorum in the Senate, and a special election is ordered.

Hon. WILLIAM BEATTY, of Butler, died on the 12th inst., after a short illness. He was a prominent Democrat, had represented his district in the State Legislature and in Congress, and at the time of his decease was a formidable candidate for Canal Commissioner. He was emphatically an honest man, and that is his best eulogy.

PRCULIAR ATTACHMENT.—The name of Buchanan, Mr. Buchanan, James Buchanan, &c., &c., in all sizes and kinds of letter, (from long-primer bold-face, to lower case nonpariel,) says a wag a our elbow, occurs only thirty-one times in yester day's Intelligencer.

We copy the above from the Lancasterian the 9th inst., in which we counted the name of Mr. Buchanan, upwards of twenty times and then stopped, being convinced that men will sometimes stoop to small things to berate a great and good man, of whom they are envious .- Juniata Register

The Juniata Register also denies that the resolution passed at their County Meeting last fall bad any reference to the Presidency, as alleged by the Harrisburg Keystone. It was, the Register says, a mere complimentary resolution intended to sustain Gen. Cass' course on the Compromise measures-nothing more. .

THE FLOODS IN THE SOUTHERN RIVERS .- Th Baton Rouge Gazetts presents this gloomy, yet deeply interesting picture of the Louisiana lov lands, in a time of high water pressure;

"The whole coast at this time presents a scene of painful interest. The fairest and wealthiest por; threatening wave of the "Father of Waters." The planter uneasily looks out upon his fair domain, not knowing what moment all may be disaster and ruin. From too many points we hear that the worst fears are realized. A crevasse occurs, and in spite of all precaution, the flood swallows up the accumulation of years. A person unfamiliar with "scenes in Louisiana," suddenly in the night time landed upon our coast, would suppose that we were in the midst of an active siege. The watch-fire burns steadily upon the embankment, the facine stretches out toward some enemy, the sentinel walks his quiet round, and listens with attentive ears to every rustling wind or wave. It is the waters, and not the Mexicans that are upon us; it is the angry deep that threatens; and the dark cloud, and the rolling thunder, strike more terror than would the waving flag or heavy artillery of a less to be dread

The Augusta Republic of the 10th inst. says :-The recent rains have caused a rise of 29 or 30 feet in the Savannah River, above low water mark -the highest river we have had for a considerable It is thought that a rise of five more feet would bring the water into the streets. At su down yesterday evening, however, it was at a stand, or falling. Yesterday morning the gates of one of the aqueducts of the canal, near the factory, gave way, and caused an overflow of the greater po tion of the commons. Efforts were making yester day to close the breach

The Montgomery, Ala., Journal of the same date has the following intelligence:

We have accounts from all directions of th astrous effects of the heavy rain and storm of Monday night—its damage to crops and fences, and destruction to stock. Some thirty miles east of this place the rain was accompanied by heavy wind, which effected serious havoc. The stage connection in some directions, is suspended—creeks swimming and extensive portions of the lower country flooded

Mr. Allen, the contractor on the Mobile mail oute, we learn, lost six horses on Tuesday, in attempting to cross a creek a few miles below this place. The passengers and driver escaped; the mails have since been recovered. A passenger informs us that the Chattahoochee had risen yesterday at Columbus forty feet, and that at West Point it had reached the bridge. The rise in the river here has been unprecedented in rapidity and extent, considering it the effect of four hours' storm. The volume of rain must have been immense

Extract of a letter dated Griffin, April 10, 1851 "We have just had the most washing rains I ever saw; every mill dam in the country is washed away, and every bridge on Flint river that I know of, except the one at Flat Shoals."
