DEATHS.

In Columbia, on Monday, the 28th ultimo, of inflammation of the lungs, Mrs. Mary E., wife of Mr. Henry Breneman, in the 38th year of her age, In the death of this amiable and benevolent wo man, a large circle of friends and acquaintances join the regret of those relatives of the deceased who mourn her sudden and untimely dissolution. Of her it can with truth be said,

"None knew her but to love her-None named her but to praise."

A professing christian for a long period of year she has ever exemplified a christian's faith, by an active benevolence, a christian charity, and an ex-ample of piety. She has left a void in that com-munity of which she was so bright an ornament. which time alone can fill; and long will her many social virtues be remembered by those emulous of her good qualities of heart and mind. But none will feel more sensibly her loss, as none could ap preciate more fully her worth, than the disconsolate usband and the afflicted orphan children of this loving wife and truly christian mother.

Sleep ²mid the fragrance of thy virtuous deeds, And may thy spirit breathe thy heart's perfune; Memory is active, while our bosom bleeds, And we would fain rest with thee in the tomb !
