

THE JUDICIAL TICKET.

We place at the head of our paper this week, the ticket nominated at Harrisburg, by the Democratic Convention. The Pennsylvania of Friday, speaking of the result, says:

The two Conventions lately held in our State form an era in the political history of Pennsylvania. We have already spoken of the singular harmony which prevailed in the Convention held at Harrisburg, and of the unanimity which has never before been attained, and which is a prestige of our triumph success at the polls, in October next.

Ratification County Meeting.

THE Democrats of Lancaster County, are requested to assemble at the Court House, in the city of Lancaster, on

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The following gentlemen compose the Democratic State Central Committee for the ensuing political year, viz:

HON. WILLIAM DICK, of Dauphin, Chairman.
WILLIAM DEAL, Esq., of Philadelphia.
THOMAS J. POWELL, Esq., of Lancaster.
J. ELIE BISHOP, Esq., of Cumberland.
COL. JAMES BURNIS, of Bedford.
COL. FREDERICK K. BOAS, of Bedford.
GEN. GEORGE W. BOWMAN, of Bedford.
JAMES L. REYNOLDS, Esq., of Lancaster.

Hon. Ellis Lewis.

The nomination of this gentleman for a seat on the Supreme Bench, is alike complimentary to Lancaster county, and expressive of the high esteem in which he is held by his Democratic fellow citizens throughout the State. All admit that he possesses legal talents of a high order, and that in every respect he is one of the ablest judges in the Commonwealth. That he will maintain this exalted character, in the Supreme Court of the State, we have no doubt, inasmuch as he is a gentleman of great industry and indomitable energy, and has written that lofty and praiseworthy ambition inspired deeply in his character, which will lead him to aspire to the highest eminence in his profession.

A Tragedy at Lynchburg, Va.

A letter received at Richmond by the Equivocal dated on the 15th, gives the particulars of a fatal rencontre that occurred at Lynchburg on Friday week, between James C. Saunders, Jr., and A. W. C. Terry, editor of the Lynchburg Virginian.

"The parties met in front of the market house—Saunders asked if this was Mr. Terry, and the latter replied in the affirmative, when Saunders struck him with a stick. Terry forthwith drew one of Colli's revolvers and fired; when Saunders drew a second, and fired; five shots were then exchanged between them—three by Terry, and two by Saunders. Both then clinched, and were in the act of committing upon each other further violence, when Terry, with a knife and Saunders, with Terry's sword, which he had wrested from him, they were separated. Terry was borne off to Dr. Blackford's and Saunders to Mosby & Holcomb's—both regarded as mortally wounded. Terry received one of Saunders' balls in the centre of his breast, which was mortal. Saunders received a ball just above the navel, and it passed out on the left side just above the hip-bone. They are both now lying insensible.

THE DEEPEST GLOOM.

The deepest gloom pervaded the town of Lynchburg. The family affliction occasioned by the death of Mr. Terry, was doubly and trebly increased by the death of Mr. Saunders on Thursday evening—Hon. JOHN LAPOINTE, President, and Gen. WM. S. ROSS, Vice President on his right, and Hon. STRANGE N. PALMER, Vice President on his left—were old school-mates and intimate companions, who grew up together at Wilkesbarre, and the sons of three of the 132 Delegates in North Eastern Pennsylvania, who voted for Thomas Jefferson in the dark days of 1793. This striking coincidence proves that the same devoted spirit which nerved the fathers of Democracy to combat the tyranny of Federalism, still lives in their sons and descendants.

INDIAN QUEEN HOTEL.

This new establishment at Cape Island, N. J., is now open for the reception of visitors. The accommodations for boarding, lodging and bathing are excellent, and there is no one who will be more attentive to his guests than the gentlemanly proprietor, Mr. HOPKINS. We advise those of our friends who may desire to take a few weeks recreation to go to Cape Island, and stop at the Indian Queen Hotel. For particulars see advertisement.

THE PENNSYLVANIA OF SATURDAY.

We learn with pleasure, that it is contemplated by the gentleman who signed the protest against Judge CAMPBELL, (in Philadelphia), to issue a strong address in favor of the Judicial nominations of the Democratic Harrisburg Convention. This is the true spirit, and shows that obedience to the will of the regularly ascertained majority is still as potent as ever."
