BEAR ON----BEAB BRAVELY ON.

O, never from any tempted heart Let thine integrity depart. Whea disappointment fills thy cup, When disappointment nils thy cup, Undaunted, noby, drink it up; Truth will prevail and Justice show Her tardy honors, sure though slow Bear on -- bear bravely on !

Bear on ! Our life is not a dream, Though often such its mazes seem ; We were not born to lives of ease, Ourselves alone to aid and please. To each a daily task is given, A labor which shall fit for Heaven : ¢J When duty calls, let love grow warm, Amid the sunshine and the storm, With Faith life's trials boldly breast, And come a conqueror to thy rest. Bear on-bear bravely on !

the The Knickerbocker for June has a notice of the poems of Charles Swain, with some extracts, from which we take the following verses on ' Mary :"

Mary:" The graceful and the beautiful, The gentle, kind, and airy, Together met to mould the form And gift the mind of Mary. There's nature in each careless curl, In every grace a moral; Her mouth—"us Cupid's mouth--sweet girl, And full of pearls and coral.

She's like the keystone to an arch. That consummates all beauty; She's like the music to a march, Which sheds a joy on duty! All happy thoughts and feeling rife Seem evermore to guide her; The very ills and cares of life Forget themselves beside her.

Each sweet expressive glance appears Of Nature's best election ; It took the world six thousand years It took the world six thousand years To perfect such perfection 1 All gifts divine that could combine, All charms of nymph or tairy, -Agreed to grace one becatecous face, And witch the world with Mary.

She speeds as if with wings so fleet No bird's could e'er surpass them; Yet none can ever spy her feet, Though 'tis believed she has them ! She lends a spell to every scene, Her step makes winter vernal; makes wine, between A something half divine, be The earthly and eternal !

The Young Widow ; or, only Thirty-thrée.

A census taker going his round last fall, stopped at an elegant blick dwelling house, the exact lo cality of which is no business of ours. He was received by a stiff, well dressed lady, who could well be recognized as a widow of some years standing. On learning the mission of her visitor, the lady invited him to take a seat in the hall. Having arranged himself into a working position, he inquired for the number of persons in the family of the lady. "Eight sir," replied the lady, "including myself."

"Very well—your age, madam?" "My age, sir," replied the lady with a piercin dignified look, "I conceive it's none of your busines what my age might be—you're inquisitive, sir." "The law compels me, madam, to take the age of every person in the ward-it's my duty to make

The merchant hesitated a moment, but finally he concluded the chance a good one. He should be getting half the Launches must be well timed ; full time allowed for dinner, and care taken in keeping the men tur-nished with cool drinks of molasses water and ginger. A half gallon of molasses, 5 gallons of brooms for something that would not sell as readily; and as for the cost price, it was an easy matter to play gammon in regard to it. The bargain was struck; the brooms were brought in. The cash for half of them was paid over. "Now what will water and 4 lb, of good strong ginger, will make a pleasant and safe beverage. Ladies, you caged birds of beautiful plumage, but sickly looks; you pale pets of the parlor, vege-tating in an unhealthy shade with a greenish white tating in an unhealthy shade with a greenish white complexion, like that of a potato sprout in a dark cellar—why don't you go out in the open air and warm sunshine, and add lustre to your eyes, bloom to your cheeks, elasticity to your steps, and vigor to your frames? Take early morning exercise let loose your corset strings, and run up a hill on a wager and down again for fun. Roam in the fields, climb the tences, leap the ditches, wade the brooks, and go home with an excellent appetite. Liberty thus exercised and enjoyed, will render you healthy, blooming and beautiful—as lovely as the Graces and as prolific as Devera. The buxom, bright eyed, rosv cheeked, full breasted, bouncing lass-who long, however, before the missing garments were found stacked in the public square, whither the burcan darn a stocking, mend her own frocks, com-mand a regiment of pots and kettles, feed the pigs, milk the cows, and be a lady withal in company, glars had carried them ; then came the serious feris just the sort of a girl for me or any worthy ture of the business-every pocket had been rumis just the sort of a girl for me or any worthy young-man to marry; but you, ye pining, lolling, screwed up, wasp waisted, doll dressed, putty-faced, consumption mortgaged, music-murdering, novel-devouring daghters of fashion and idleness--you pockets for them. Some four hundred and odd dolare no more fit for matrimony, than a pullet is to look after a tamily of fourteen chickens. The truth look after a tamily of fourteen chickens is, my dear girls, you want, generally speaking, more liberty and less fashionable restraint-more kitchen and less parlor-more leg exercise and less sola-more pudding and less piano-more frankness and less mock modesty-more corned beef and less bishop.
