A REMARKABLE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, by ising the Oxygenated Bitters with the advice of listinguished and well known Physician. MIDDLETOWN CT., Dec. 4, 1845.

MIDDLETOWN CT., Dec. 4, 1845.

DR. GEO. B. GREEN:—Dear Sir:—It affords me great pleasure to be able to testify, to the wonderful virtue of your "Oxygenated Bitters." I was in Salem in the month of June, 1845, having just returned from sea, and owing to the intense heat, I was slightly "sun struck," which reduced me so much that I was unable to attend to my business for several months, and during that time I was badly afflicted with Dyspepsia, weak stomach, and indigestion, and have taken every medicine that has been recommended to me, without any effect. I digestion, and have taken every medicine that has been recommended to me, without any effect. I gave up all hopes of ever recovering. I then went to Windsor, Vt., and was there recommended by Dr. E. E. Phelps, to give your "Oxygenated Bitters" one trial, as he had used them with good success in a number of cases. I have used only four bottles of your medicine, and to my utter astonishment it has entirely cured me. I do sincerely recommend your medicine to all afflicted with Dyspepsia, and believe they will find it a most valuable remedy. Very Respectfully yours, JAMES H. HOLMES.
