SARTAIN'S MAGAZINE, for August, comes fully up to any of its predecessors. It is certainly one amongst the very best of the monthlies, and deserves a liberal patronage. GRAHAM comes up to the work of competition manfully. The August number is rich in embel lishments and reading matter, and is fully equal to any of the previous issues. We are glad to fin that this Magazine continues to prosper.

THE LADIES' KEEPSAKE, for July, is a capi tal number, and embellished with a very handsome engraving.

We have received from the publishers, "Ecarte, or the Salons of Paris," a new novel, by Major Richardson. The work will fully sustain the high reputation which the author has won to himself as a writer. The book is entertaining from beginning to end, and is of that class of novels which teach the folly and evil results of a licentious life. Orders for the work should be directed to DEWITT & DAVENPORT, Publishers, Tribune Buildings, New York.

It is thought that Stetler has been the principal coiner of counterfeit money in the United States—hence the importance of his arrest.—Col

The Hon, Ellis Lewis, the eloquent orator and distinguished jurist, was present, by invitation at the celebration of the 4th at this place. He has apparently changed but little since he presided over tne Courts of this county, some ten years since.— Hundreds of our citizens, Whigs and Democrats called to see him, during his brief visit, and cordially congratulated him upon his nomination, as a candidate for the responsible and exalted post of Supreme Judge of Pennsylvania. He will receive a very heavy vote in Old Union, where his capacity as a Judge is fully appreciated, and his bland and unassuming manners have won for him the esteem and affection of our citizens .- Union Times.

MESSES. STIMSTON & REED: MESSES. STIMSTON & REED:
Gentlemen:—By reading in a small pamphlet I picked up at my door, the testimony of a large number of highly respectable individuals in favor of the "Oxygenated Bitters" for the cure of Dyspepsia, a disease by which I have suffered for sevpepsia, a disease by which I have suched to see real years, but most severely during the last, I was induced to make a trial of them, and to my great surprise, I soon found myself relieved of the distress I so long suffered, and my flesh and strength returning. And now, after a trial of more, than six weeks, and having taken nearly three bottles of e medicine, I have the fullest confidence in its ower to cure; and although the price is large, supered with other popular medicines, yet should be again afflicted as I was when I commenced taking it, I would pay ten times its present price, i I could not obtain it otherwise. Respectfully yours, ROYAL Bosworth.

The above certificate is worthy the attention of those who know by experience the discouarging symptoms of Dyspepsia; the Oxygenated Bitters, Philadelphia, will are better recommended for this disease, than any per return of mail.
