Governor of said Com A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, In and by the system of morality which regulates honest men it is enjoined that the TRUTH should be told on all occasions and that the Governor of this Commonwealth; should state truly and fairly the condition of the Finances, and Now, therefore, know ye, that I do hereby issue this my Proclamation, publishing and declaring the ing FACTS, which are on record in the several offices, at Harrisburg, viz: That the Public Debt, when Gov. Ritner was elected, amounted to $25,162,465 02 When he went out of offices, it was 34,141,653 80 Two months after Governor Ritner went into office, the United States Bank Bill was passed, which put under contract the following fancy improvements, viz: ERIE EXTENSION—North Branch Canal-

Sinnemahoning Extension—Rettysburg Rail Road—Wisconisco Canal, and Allegheny Feeder, amounting in all to the sum of $11,055,554 74!
To meet this large sum Gov. Ritner had appropriated the meagre sum of $1,900,000; leaving a deimmediately, by Gov. Porter, when he went into office in 1838. of $10,015,554 74! to be provided for

That the expenses of Government have been INCREASED during my administration, as the annexed table will show Expenses during 2 y'rs, | Expenses during 2 y'rs Shunk's administration: | Johnston's administ'n: In 1846, $216,632 In 1847, 200,113 In 1850, $262,899! In 1851, 275,151! Increase, $121,295!

That the revenue before I came into power was as follows: Taxes on real and personal estate, and Income from railroads and canals only $1.915.535 In 1850, from the same sources: Taxes, $1,317,821! Railroads and canals, (unthe management of Democrats,)

That if the next Legislature will aid me, I can purchase all the State Bonds, which bear 5 per nt. by renewing them at 6 per cent., thus easily will the people be relieved from this enorous debt That the Sinkin' Fund was suggested by Col. William Bigler, in the State Senate, in 1846, and the money which goes into it annually, is derived by the wise policy of Governor Shunk. the lamented Francis R. Shunk is justly due the honor of relieving our embarrassed condition, and elevating the credit of the State. And all attempts to pluck the laurel from the honored dead to athe my brow, should be resisted as sacrilege! That the only items which my policy has caused to go into the Sinkin' Fund, are as follows:

1st. The difference between the $400.000 5 per cent.

stocks, purchased by me, and that amount borrowed by me at 6 per cent. . Mileage in going to Harrisburg, 3d. Commissions issued to 300 aid-de-camps, $2,00 each,

ministration, approved the following Acts to borrow money, viz Act passed 15th May,-1850, to borrow, $3,300,000 29th Jan., 1849, 200,000 " 10th April, " 200,000

That Gov. Shunk, during his administration, paid interest on the public debt to the amount of only $5,992,604 97, whilst during my administration, I have paid interest to the amount of $6,032,692 37 That the important services rendered by me as Executive of this Commonwealth, may be summed Music. up as follows, viz —I have collected more Taxes off the People than my predecessor—I have borrowed more money than my predecessor—I have purchased more 5 per cent. State stocks, by giving new 6 per cent. bonds—I have paid more Interest -I have spent more money among the office-holders-and have done a bigger Sinkin' Fund business than my predecessor!

Judge Jessup at Home. The Montrose Democrat is furnishing a candid expose of Judge Jessup's political course, and his connection with the co-partner of the Towando Bank, that defunct swindling establishment, the Susquehanna co., Bank. It is among those only, on whom chiefly the base frauds of these establish ments fell, that these wrongs are most keenly felt. There is a moral miasma and stench hovering around the relics of these concerns, which pollute the hands that touched them. In this community, the culpability of men, who had an opportunity o were, and did not expose them, meets with no extenuation. It is believed here that-Judge Jessup participated in the overt act, which laid the four lation for the consummation of the unmitigated Susquehanna county bank swindle. The report of the Commissioners to investigate the affairs of her bank, embraces the facts which discloses the Judges ency, and for which he will be held account It is well known that Gov. Johnston had intended to nominate him for the vacancy on the Supreme Bench, occasioned by the death of Judge Burnside, who was a northern man, and whose place none doubted would be filled by some one from the same part of the State. But the Governor had the report of the Susquehanna Bank investigation before him, and although for a while he hesitated, because the North was entitled to the honor, but seeing that an act of this kind would be justly construed as an approval of Judge Jessup's association with this bank, he dropped him, and took Judge Chambers. The Gove nor had more sagacity than the Lancaster Convention. __ Towardo Der

Hon. James Buchanan The Martinsburg (Va.) Republican follows the example of a number of Democratic papers in Virginia, and declares for this great statesmon for the Presidency. It hangs out the flag of James BUCHANAN, for President, and John B. FLOYD, the present noble Governor of Virginia, for Vice Pres dent. The Editor speaks of Mr. Buchawan as

Mr. Buchanan is well known to the whole nation Mr. Buchanan is wen known to the more national as one of the most able, learned and distinguished statesmen of which our country can boast. His of Congress, in the most critical times of the Republic-his great ability in the Cabinet, and in Republic—nis great ability in the Caping, and in fact in every political station in which he has served, have pointed him out as one peculiarly fitted for the highest office in the gift of a free people.—The favorite son of the old "Keystone State," which has always stood shoulder to shoulder with us since the days of the revolution, will meet and receive a warm and triumphant support from Vir-ginians, and indeed from the whole South, who at this moment are looking at him with all eyes in-tent, as he stands like a mighty barrier to ward off and roll back the tide of northern tanaticism which is endeavoring to engulph the Constitution and the Union. That he is the favorite of the Virginia Democracy we have not a doubt, and that the choice of Virginia will be endorsed by the South we have as little doubt. We are satisfied that he is strong with the Democracy of the nation, and his nomination once fairly made by the country, his election is certain. But as we shall have fre uent occasion to reler to this distinguished citizen we for the present forbear to say more.

A late number of the Mobile, Ala., Daily Regis ter formally renews its pledge in favor of Mr. Bo-CHANAN. This seems to be the sentiment of the almost entire Democracy. We shall give other extracts as we may find room.
