

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR: COL. WILLIAM BIGLER, OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER: GEN. SETH CLOVER, OF CLARION COUNTY.

FOR JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT: JEREMIAH S. BLACK, Somerset. JAMES CAMPBELL, Philadelphia. ELLIS LEWIS, Lancaster. JOHN B. GIBSON, Cumberland. WALTER H. LOWRIE, Allegheny.

STATE SENATOR: AMOS R. BOUGHTER, of Lebanon Co.

Associate Judges. We are authorized by many of our Democratic friends to say that Hon. James Cass and Esq. J. S. SCHAEFER, will be strongly supported for the office of Associate Judges of this county.

We need Money!

We have several heavy payments to make shortly, and in order to meet our engagements, it is necessary that those who are indebted for subscription, advertising, and job work, should help us to a little of the needed. Now that the excitement of the political campaign is about terminating, our friends will have a little more leisure to reflect on the necessities of the Printer. We are always willing to work and do our duty as well as we know how; but we cannot live upon the wind, and keep the press going into the bargain.

Democratic Meetings.

Were held during the past week at various places in the country, all of which were largely attended and excited the greatest enthusiasm amongst our friends. At Washington Borough, on Wednesday evening—GEO. G. BAUS, Esq. in the chair. The speakers were Messrs. Mathiot, Frazer, Reynolds, Mendenhall, and J. B. Amwag.

At Robers town, on Thursday evening—Doctor RRAM in the chair. The speakers were Messrs. J. B. Amwag, Bachman, Wm. S. Amweg, H. S. Myers, and others.

At Elizabethtown, on Friday evening. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Frazer and Amwag.

At Gant's, on Saturday evening. We have not heard who were the speakers.

Several other meetings we believe were held at different points—but we have not learned the particulars.

The real Jackson spirit seems to be fully aroused throughout the county, and it augurs well for the result of the election TO-DAY.

Tremendous Rally!

The Democracy of this City are perfectly enthusiastic in favor of the Ticket. Immense meetings were held during last week at the following places viz: At STYDEN'S, East King, on Monday evening—Walter G. Evans, Esq. in the chair. The speakers were Messrs. Reynolds, Myers, Frazer and Dougherty.

At YOUNG'S, North Queen, on Tuesday evening—Geo. Sanderson in the chair. The speakers were Messrs. Myers, Swarr, Mathiot, Wm. S. Amweg, Sanderson and Potts.

At HARRIS'S, Market Street, on Wednesday evening—Jacob Weaver in the chair. The speakers were Messrs. Wilson, Myers and Thomas J. Keenan.

At BEAN'S, North Queen, on Thursday evening—Francis Russell in the chair. The speakers were Messrs. Reynolds, Dougherty, J. M. Johnston, and Potts.

At POTTS'S, East King, on Friday evening—Walter G. Evans, Esq. in the chair. The speakers were Messrs. Mathiot, Swarr and Eichleberger.

And at the Court House, on last evening—the speakers announced were Hon. James Buchanan, Col. Reah Frazer and Hon. Benjamin Champey.

At all these meetings the Democracy turned out in overwhelming numbers—and in addition to hearing speeches, marched in procession to various points, with music and banners, and other demonstrations of rejoicing.

BEWARE OF SPURIOUS TICKETS!

Once more we caution our Democratic friends, throughout the county to beware of spurious tickets! There are thousands of them afloat in every election district in the county, and it will require the utmost vigilance on the part of our active Democratic friends to prevent their unsuspecting neighbors from being imposed upon. Since our last issue we have seen a number of these spurious tickets. On some, as we informed you last week, the name of JOHN STROHM has been printed in the place of SETH CLOVER. On others, the name of Judge CAMPBELL has been superseded by one of the Whig candidates for the Supreme Court, and on others again the names of Judges LEWIS, CAMPBELL and GIBSON have been stricken out, and those of William M. Meredith, Richard Coughler and Jesse Cunniff, (three of the Whig candidates) substituted. How many other kinds of these spurious tickets are in circulation we are unable to say—but the above have been seen within two or three days, and we therefore renew our caution on the subject.

To the Democrats of Pennsylvania.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, Harrisburg, October 8, 1851.

INFORMATION has reached us from an undoubted source, that large numbers of SPURIOUS TICKETS have been printed, and are now being circulated in the respective counties of the State. These tickets show that the name of JAS. CAMPBELL one of our candidates for Supreme Judge has been LEFT OFF AND/OR RICHARD COUGHLIN one of the Whig nominees for the same position substituted in its stead.

Democrats! Examine well your Tickets! See that they contain for Governor, WILLIAM BIGLER, Canal Commissioner, SETH CLOVER, Judges of Supreme Court, JEREMIAH S. BLACK, JAMES CAMPBELL, ELLIS LEWIS, JOHN B. GIBSON, WALTER H. LOWRIE, and by a united support of the "TICKET, THE WHOLE TICKET, AND NOTHING BUT THE TICKET" you will secure the place in the State to defend the People of their dearest rights, and aid the Democracy of the State in achieving a glorious triumph TO-DAY.

W. M. DOCK, Chairman.

Immense City Meeting!

The Democratic meeting at RAZAR'S, N. Queen street, on Saturday evening, was an overwhelming demonstration, such as has rarely, if ever, been witnessed in this City. That veteran Democrat, ROBERT KING, Esq. presided, and was assisted by a large number of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries. The meeting was addressed for a few minutes by Capt. George Sanderson, when a procession was formed, and after marching through several of the principal streets, accompanied with music from the Lancaster Brass Band and other music, and an immense number of transparencies, torch lights, &c., halted at the Court House, which was crowded to a perfect jam before more than one-half of the persons present could get in. At this stage of the proceedings, a very large delegation from Columbia arrived, accompanied with music and banners, and displaying the utmost enthusiasm.

The meeting was then addressed by Col. SAMUEL W. BLACK in a strain of great eloquence and power, who was frequently interrupted by tremendous cheering and applause. After he concluded, WILLIAM V. MCKEAN, Esq., of Philadelphia, was called for, and addressed the Democracy with great force and truthfulness, whose remarks elicited the warmest commendation.

On motion, a resolution of thanks to Messrs. Black and McKean, for their able addresses, was unanimously passed by the meeting.

While the speaking was going on inside, the crowd on the street, who could not get into the Court House, were addressed by JAMES D. BACON, Esq., and R. W. MENDENHALL, both of whom were frequently interrupted with loud bursts of applause.

The procession was then re-formed, and after marching through other portions of the City, finally escorted the Columbia delegation to the Cars, about 10 o'clock. After the Columbians had left, the meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for BACON and CLOVER.

It was a proud evening for the Democracy of this ancient Democratic City, and will have an important effect on the election to-day.

Tribute to Judge Lewis from his Old Neighbors.

WILLIAMSPORT, Oct. 3. HON. J. LEWIS, Esq.—Dear Sir.—The members of the Bar of Lycoming county congratulate you upon your return to visit among them upon the present occasion. Although separated for several years, they are not less united in their affectionate regards to you, and in their admiration of the distinguished ability with which you presided over the several courts of the 5th Judicial District. We rejoice to learn that in your performance of duty in a similar capacity elsewhere, since you have, we are confident, continued to increase your deserved reputation as a skillful lawyer, an experienced and discriminating Judge. As a humble token of our regard for you, personally, as well as of respect for your legal ability, and that we may revive our former pleasant relations to each other, we have the honor to present to you, as a public dinner, a public dinner at such time as may suit your convenience during your stay among us, and earnestly solicit your acceptance.

We are, respectfully yours, Geo. White, F. C. Campbell, J. Hughes, Adolphus D. Wilson, John W. Healey, Robert McClure, J. M. B. Peckin, Herbert F. Platt, W. Cox Ellis, J. M. McKinney, James Gambel, Clinton Loyd, James Armstrong, G. Youngman, Wm. H. Armstrong.

JUDGE LEWIS'S REPLY.

WILLIAMSPORT, Oct. 3d, 1851.

GENTLEMEN: With the most grateful emotions I acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of this date, inviting me to the public dinner to be given in token of your regard for me personally as well as of respect for my legal ability and that we may revive our former pleasant relations to each other. When I see among the names attached to your letter the signatures of the oldest and most distinguished members of the Lycoming Bar—those who have occupied and still occupy high places in the public confidence—gentlemen of both political parties, who have known me intimately from my first entrance into the legal profession, and others who have more recently entered the profession themselves, but who have known me the greater part of their lives, I cannot but esteem the favorable opinion, and kind regard which you are so good as to express, as the highest compliment which a public man can receive.

The time, and the peculiar circumstances, under which this mark of respect is tendered, "irrespective of party considerations," by my professional brethren who have known me from my first entrance into the legal profession, and others who have more intimately, touches my heart, and I trust the good feelings which prompted it will never be forgotten.

I regret that engagements which require me to leave this place on Monday, the 10th inst., prevent me from going to-morrow morning, deprive me of the pleasure of accepting your polite invitation to revise our former pleasant relations.

Yours, &c. ELLIS LEWIS. To T. Campbell, Esq., Wm. Cox Ellis, Esq., H. Peckin, Esq., Wm. H. Armstrong, Esq., and others, members of the Lycoming Bar.

Another Letter from Mr. Gorsuch.

The able letter from the Rev. Mr. Gorsuch, addressed to Governor Johnston, in relation to the murder of his father near Christiana, and which we published two weeks ago, brought out Mr. Attorney General Franklin in a futile attempt to screen the Governor from the consequences of his gross negligence, or something worse, in relation to that tragical affair—in which Mr. F. wishes the public to understand that he approves of Governor Johnston's course, and that he cannot consent to be placed by Mr. Gorsuch, or any body else, in an antagonistic position to his Excellency. This feeble effort of Mr. F. has brought out the following pungent rejoinder from Mr. G., which is well calculated to place our townsman in any thing else than a pleasant predicament. We copy from the Baltimore Sun, of Wednesday last: THE CHRISTIANA OUTRAGE.

Reply of Rev. Mr. J. S. Gorsuch to Attorney General Franklin.

WASHINGTON, October 6th, 1851.

Sir: I am sorry that the errors and charges contained in your pretended reply to my letter to Gov. Johnston, compel me to appear again before the public. My first letter was erroneously dated the seventeenth. It was finished early on the morning of the sixteenth, and mailed at nine o'clock the same day. The editors of the "Baltimore Sun" noticed its reception in their paper of the 17th. It is, therefore, not true that I went to Christiana, and wrote it after first seeing you. Nor does your "reference to the dates" give you the desired effect.

When we assembled in the court house at Lancaster, on Tuesday, the 16th ult., the State Attorney told us that he was alone, and that he desired aid. We went and secured counsel to assist him. When the case was about to be opened, you came into court, was introduced to us, and took your seat upon our side; but you had not a considerable conversation with me on the subject, nor did you do anything that proved to me that you were much interested in the matter. It was after leaving the court house, that I learned, upon good authority, that you did nothing toward securing or hastening the arrest of the murderers; nor has it yet appeared that you did. And although you say "it was upon consultation with Governor Johnston that all the steps have been taken consequent upon the lamentable affair," you will not say it was the Governor's instance that Mr. Thompson and Mr. Reigart went to the scene of the rebellion. As for yourself, you took two days to write me, and told me those, I suppose, were the steps counseled.

You say I "give credit to the public authorities for doing every thing necessary to bring the transaction to light, and to offset to justice." That I did not do so, is a matter which the public authorities of the county, in that regard, you too well know. I meant especially the State's Attorney and the Alderman; for until they reached Christiana nothing had been done in issuing writs and making arrests.

My counsel, you say, has been "extraordinary." Was it not extraordinary that a Governor of Pennsylvania should array himself against a sovereign law of the land, and lend his official aid to frame its operation? Was it not extraordinary that my father was murdered by a band of negroes, encouraged by white abolitionists? Was it not extraordinary that no step was taken by the officers of the neighborhood to arrest the perpetrators of the outrage until late in the afternoon of the second day, and that not until help had come from a distance? Was it not extraordinary that though the United States authorities were upon the ground almost as soon as those of the State, the Executive of the United States took a deep interest in the vindication of the laws, while that of the State showed an indifference that almost amounted to connivance? And was it not most extraordinary that the Governor should write a letter to defend his neglect of duty, containing many grave errors and misstatements, and in which he has been found more easy to call a plain and honest statement of the facts "extraordinary" than to disprove it.

My letter to the Governor was written by myself, without suggestion, dictation or aid of any other. Your insinuation, therefore, in regard to its authorship and intent, is as ungenerous as it is untrue. That insinuation has the merit, however, of exhibiting great adroitness in political juggle.

But you "cannot consent to be placed in a different position from Governor Johnston." Well, I cannot help that. Governor Johnston has placed himself in a position not far removed from odium; if you are resolved to stand with him, then indeed you are a white fraternalist. J. S. GORSUCH. Hon. Thomas E. Franklin.

California Democratic!

Notwithstanding the false reports, manufactured for the occasion, and published in the Whig papers for the purpose of influencing the election in Pennsylvania, it is rendered pretty certain, from the latest and most reliable intelligence, that the election in California has resulted in favor of the Democrats. There is no doubt of the election of Col. JOHN BOLAN, the Democratic candidate for Governor—and it is also conceded that we have, probably, in both branches of the Legislature!

We shall try and secure that BANER. Notwithstanding California has done so well—the old Key-stone will do better, TO-DAY!

Hon. James Buchanan

Has been doing yeoman's service during the present campaign. In addition to addressing four meetings last week in Philadelphia county, he also addressed an immense mass meeting, on Saturday afternoon at Womelsdorf, Berks county. His addresses are highly spoken of as characterized by great power and eloquence.

He was likewise announced to speak at the Court House, in this City, on last evening.

Democracy! TO THE RESCUE!

YOUR COUNTRY CALLS YOU TO DUTY!! "There is a weapon surer set, And better than the bayonet, A weapon that comes down as still, As snow flakes fall upon the sod, But executes a Freeman's will, As lightning does the will of God. And from its force nor bolts nor locks Can shield them—'tis the BALLOT BOX."

THE GREAT DAY HAS ARRIVED!

REMEMBER, Freeman of Pennsylvania, that you are called upon to exercise one of the most sacred duties conferred upon you by the Constitution—that of choosing your own rulers.

Are you all Ready?

If not—if there is a single soldier of the Democracy who is behind hand, begin now to get ready—now or never—and strike for your country and her cherished institutions. Strike for your altars, your homes and your friends.

Stand firmly at the Polls!

Come up, every one of you! to the BALLOT BOXES to-day, and vote for

WILLIAM BIGLER,

The honest SUSQUEHANNA RAFTSMAN, who raised himself by his own honesty, industry and perseverance to an eminence which the proudest in the land may well envy. Before his nomination, all the federal papers in the State extolled him to the skies. Now they pounce upon him with tiger-like ferocity.

HEED NOT FEDERAL LIES AND CALUMNIES.

The same party denounced Jefferson as an Atheist, Madison and Monroe as Bribed Traitors, Simon Snyder as a Felon, and Jackson as a Murderer. Why then should a man, pure and virtuous as William Bigler, expect to escape? Just in proportion as a Democrat is faithful and true to his principles, will he be abused and slandered by his federal foes.

TO ARMS, THEN, TO ARMS!

Nothing is wanting but activity and determination to ensure for BIGLER, CLOVER and the SUPREME JUDICIAL TICKET an old fashioned majority of 20,000.

The contest to be determined THIS DAY, is eminently fraught with the present peace and future happiness of our common country. To avert impending evil, you must

GET OUT THE VOTERS!

ONE VOTE is of the utmost importance. It has frequently made Senators, Sheriffs and other officers. One Vote elected a Governor of Massachusetts. There is no chance for running. The battle must be fought bravely through.

THE GREAT BATTLE

Has commenced. The bugle has already been sounded, and the notes of preparation have all been heard. In your hands rests the issue. On your firmness and patriotism all now depends. You CAN overcome all combinations against you.

Resolve that You Will, and All Will Be Well.

The day cannot fail to be ours, if we but do our duty. To discharge this, we must devote the whole day to unceasing activity at the polls. We must

STAND BY OUR RIGHTS!

Democrats, yield not an inch of ground. Your adversaries have become desperate, and will resort to their old system of FRAUD to defeat you. We must go into the contest determined to MAINTAIN OUR RIGHTS.

BE FIRM! BE RESOLUTE!

ASK NOTHING BUT WHAT IS RIGHT! SUBMIT TO NOTHING THAT IS WRONG!

REMEMBER THIS DAY.

Mr. Buchanan at Williamsport. Correspondence of the Pennsylvania.

WILLIAMSPORT, Oct. 4, 1851. An esteemed correspondent, writing from this place, says: Gov. Johnston addressed a large meeting of his friends here upon the 1st, and I am happy to state that he fell far short of their expectations. He discussed the financial affairs of the State, and gave himself the credit of paying the interest of the State debt, and on being the first Governor of the State who had discovered how to apply a sinking fund to pay off her debts. He also discussed the tariff and the fugitive slave law, ridiculed the idea of dissolution of the Union, and abused Judge Woodward and Mr. Buchanan—but here the cream of the jokes begins. On the 2d inst. Mr. Brexley arrived in this place, to attend the wedding of his young friend. Among others I called upon him, and personally invited him to address a public meeting in our Court House the following evening, which was seconded by the entire company. He accepted the invitation, and the Court House was, upon the very notice, crowded with Whigs, Democrats and ladies. And now, sir, you know I have been set down as being very strong for BUCHANAN, and therefore my opinion may be entitled to some weight, so far as the universal opinion to-day, that the effort was the greatest and most happy ever witnessed in this or any other country. No better political speech ever was or can be made, upon the topics now agitated within the Commonwealth, and in a mild and gentlemanly way, literally annihilated the position taken, and doctrines advocated by Gov. Johnston—he left not a vestige of the Governor's argument, and he was not only victorious, but he was such a wreck. The remembrance of the hands of a pigmy appeared like a pigmy in the hands of a giant, there is not this day a wavering Democrat within our town. Our party here was quiet before—and we treated the speech—(to-day to hear our honest Democratic mechanics, merchants and professional men talk, you would think they had awakened from a Rip Van Winkle sleep, and come down from the mountains. If every man in Lycoming county had heard that speech Bigler's majority here would be 800. Poor John Strohm will be totally wiped out of political existence. His vote upon the resolution to supply our army in Mexico, makes even the Whigs here shudder, (and God knows, their hearts are obliterate as I tell you, sir, Buchanan literally "knocked me out of my boots." I consider the greatest service I ever rendered my party—asking Mr. B. to speak. If I had time, I would delight in giving you an outline of that great speech.—JAMES BUCHANAN is, as I always knew he was, a Union man.

Strohm's Whimsy for Canal Commissioner.

In the candidate for Canal Commissioner, the Whig has presented a plain, old-fashioned, honest Pennsylvanian—one, in whom every confidence could be placed. It was clear to the understanding of every man, that
