Majority for Johnston, in Lancaster cour ty,—4,213

Note.—Since 1848, the various Election Districts in Lancaster county have undergone considerable change, but in preference to stating in detail such modifications as have been made, we prefer re-publishing from our files of 1848 the table of majorities of that year. For the changes spoken of, we refer our readers to the Sheriff's proclamation of the present year.

At an adjourned meeting of Lancaster Lodge, No. 43, A. Y. M., held on Monday evening, Sept.

15th, 1851, the undersigned committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were nanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, It has pleased God, in his wisdom, to remove from this life, our late worthy and esteemed brother, Dr. George B. Kerfoot, D. D. G. M., Resolved, That while we bow with submission to this bereavement, we feel pleasure in bearing testimony, that for a period of fifteen years he had been a member of this Lodge, and the zeal and devotion with which he performed his duty as a Mason, made him second to hone in the Lodge.

Resolved, That we sympathise with the family of the deceased, on our mutual loss, but are com-forted with the reflection, that his deportment thro. life is the best evidence that our loss is his gain. Resolved, That as a mark of our unfeigned sor-row, and affection for his memory, our Lodge be clothed in the habilaments of mourning for the Kesolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that the same be published in the Lancaster papers. Charles M. Howell, ? Committee Joseph Gormley, John J. Keller,

The Academic buildings are new, large and commodious; erected and furnished expressly for a boarding and day school, with especial reference to the health, comfort, mental and moral culture of students.

This institution is located in a pleasant and healthy village, surrounded by a beautiful and fertile country, and noted for the intelligence, enterprise and morelity of its population.

Situated on the great Central Railroad of the State, it is easy of access from any point, being four hours ride from Philadelphia, four from Baltimore, one from Harrisburg, and half an hour from Lan²r.

The government of the school will be mild, but decided, requiring only what is thought conducive to the highest good of the student, yet enforcing strict conformity to whatever is required.

Careful attention will be paid to the moral and religious training of those committed to their charge.

The Bible will be read daily in the school room. Students will have the liberty of attending any of
