Sacred Scenes and Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley. This work may very properly be considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author. It is to illustrate and "render more life-like" the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is to excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history dotrines and laws; to know its truth, to imbibe its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation; in a word, to prize in some measure as talvation; in a word, to prize in some measure at it deserves, this treasure which is indeed beyond price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works.—The News, Jan. 7th, Sacred Scenes and Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley, author of the "Sacred Mountains," &c. This work will add greatly to the reputation of the author. In literary merit it more than equals his "Sacred Mountains." Mr. Headley excels in his glowing style and vivid descriptions. His works are a rich treasury of all the sublimity of thought, moving tenderness of passion, and vigorous strength of expression, which are to be found in all the languages by which mortals declare their minds.—See Daity Globe, Jan. 5th.

Rambles and Sketches.—By Rev. J. T. Headley. We have not for a long time sat down to a book with more pleasing anticipations, or found those anticipations more fully realized, than in the perusal of the work before us, and we know it will be hailed with gratification by the many admirers of the talented author. His "Napoleon and his Marshals" was, perhaps, as popular, and found at least as many enthusiastic readers as any book that can be mentioned. We think the Rambles and Sketches as destricted to be an oppular at least as any of his be mentioned. We think the Rambles and Sketches are destined to be as popular at least as any of his previously published works. There is not a dull chapter in the work, filled as it is with "an infinite variety." The author has ample room and verge enough for the employment of his fine talents to great advantage and most successfully has he recomplished the task. The biographical sketch of the author is interesting and "well considered," and adds much to the value of the book, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher.—See Portland Transcript, Dec. 16th.

COOPER'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND
FEVER AND AGUE PILLS.
THESE Pills are composed entirely of Vegetable Substances, and in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred, will perform a perfect and permanent cure in three days. No instance has ever been known, where more than eix days have been been known, where more illan six days have been required to perform a complete cure, even in the very worst cases, and on the strongest constitutions. We would earnestly say to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease, to get one box; and try them, and in all cases, two boxes are warranted to cure, if taken according to the directions, or the money returned. We do not recommend it to cure everything—we recommend it to cure Dyspepsia, and the diseases originating from it, and that it will cure in almost every case, and it is recommended for nothing else. In many instances, recommended for nothing else. In many instances, recommended for nothing eige. In many institutes even the worst of cases have been completely cured in two and three months, but it depends somewhat upon the constitution of the patient. Great Cure for Dyspepsia! NOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S

PEPSIN! The True Digestive Pluid or Gastric Juice!

The True Digestive Plaid or Gastrie Juice!

PREPARED from Rennet, or the fourth Stomatch of the Ox, after-directions of Baron Lients, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsis, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Persun is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the solvent of the food, the purifying, preserving and sumulating agent of the stomach and intestines. It is extracted from the digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsin are removed, just as they would be by a healthy stomach. It is doing wonders for dyspeptics, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The scientific evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE:

Baron Liebig in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the atomach of the calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement; but authenticated certificates have been given of more than Two Hundred Remarkable Cures, in Philadelphia, New York and Boston alone. These wore nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wenderful, but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to Billious disorder, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, or badly treated Fever and Ague, and the evil effects of Quinine, Mercury and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also, for excess in eatings and the too free use of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles health with intemprance.
